Bodies and Their Spaces Russell West-Pavlov, 2006 Bodies and their Spaces System Crisis and Transformation in Early Modern Theatre explores the emergence of the distinctively modern gender system at the close of the early modern period The book investigates shifts in the gendered spaces assigned to men and women in the public and private domains and their changing modes of interconnection in concert with these social spaces it examines the emergence of biologically based notions of sex and a novel sense of individual subjectivity These parallel and linked transformations converged in the development of a new gender system which more efficiently enforced the requirements of patriarchy under the evolving economic conditions of merchant capitalism. These changes can be seen to be rehearsed, contested and debated in literary artefacts of the early modern period, in particular the drama. This book suggests that until the closure of the English theatres in 1642, the drama not only reflected but also exacerbated the turbulence surrounding gender configurations in transition in early modern society. The book reads a wide range of dramatic and non-dramatic texts and interprets them with the aid of the systems theory developed by the German sociologist Niklas Luhmann.

Klaus Kinski, Beast of Cinema Matthew Edwards, 2016-07-13. With more than 130 films and a career spanning four decades, Klaus Kinski (1926-1991) was one of the most controversial actors of his generation. Known for his wild tantrums on set and his legendary collaborations with auteur Werner Herzog (Aguirre, the Wrath of God 1972, Nosferatu the Vampyre 1979), Kinski's intense performances made him the darling of European arthouse and exploitation horror cinema. A genius in front of the camera, he was capable of lighting up the most risible films. Yet behind his public persona lurked a depraved man who took his art to the darkest extremes. This first ever collection of essays focusing on Kinski examines his work in exploitation and art house films and spaghetti westerns along with his performances in such cult classics as Doctor Zhivago (1965), Crawl Space (1986), Venus in Furs (1965), The Great Silence (1968), Android (1982) and his only directorial credit Paganini (1989). More than 50 reviews of Kinski's films are included along with exclusive interviews with filmmakers and actors who worked with him.

Crossing Frontiers Barbara Burns, Joy Charnley, 2010. This volume brings together two very popular and active research fields: Swiss Studies and Intercultural Studies. It includes contributions on the movement of ideas, literatures and individuals from one culture to another or one language to another and the ways in which they have been either assimilated or questioned. All of the writers explore this general theme: some come from a literary angle, some look at linguistic inventiveness and translation whilst others study the problems faced when crossing geographical and cultural borders or presenting ideas which do not travel well. By emphasising the connections, borrowings and mutual influences between Switzerland and other countries such as Germany, Hungary, France, the UK and the Americas, the articles reaffirm the importance for Switzerland of intellectual openness and cultural exchange. Barbara Burns is Senior Lecturer in German at the University of Glasgow. She has published books and articles on a number of nineteenth century German writers including Theodor Storm, Detlev von Liliencron, Louise von Franke and Adolf Müllner and also has an interest in Swiss Studies, in particular the work of Eveline Hasler on which she has recently been publishing. She is Germanic Editor of the MHRA journal The Year's Work in Modern Language Studies. Joy Charnley has co-edited eight volumes of essays on Swiss literatures and history with Malcolm Pender and in 1996 they co-founded the Centre for Swiss Cultural Studies in Glasgow. She has written books and articles on French speaking Swiss authors such as Yvette Graggen, Alice Rivaz, Anne-Lise Grob, Anne Cuneo, Janine Massard and Amélie Plume.
