Concepts In Film Theory:

Concepts in Film Theory Dudley Andrew, 1984 Concepts in Film Theory is a continuation of Dudley Andrew's classic The Major Film Theories. In writing now about contemporary theory, Andrew focuses on the key concepts in film study: perception, representation, signification, narrative, structure, adaptation, evaluation, identification, figuration, and interpretation. Beginning with an introductory chapter on the current state of film theory, Andrew goes on to build an overall view of film, presenting his own ideas on each concept and giving a sense of the interdependence of these concepts. Andrew provides lucid explanations of theories which involve perceptual psychology and structuralism, semiotics and psychoanalysis, hermeneutics and genre study. His clear approach to these often obscure theories enables students to acquire the background they need to enrich their understanding of film and of art. Concepts in Film Theory J.
