Conceptual Art in the Netherlands and Belgium 1965-1975 Carel Blotkamp, 2002 Many of today's artists display an affinity for the techniques and subjects of 1960s and 70s Conceptual art. Conceptual Art In The Netherlands And Belgium 1965-1975 takes a fresh look at the work of Bas Jan Ader, Carl Andre, Art Language, John Baldessari, Marcel Broodthaers, Daniel Buren, Jan Dibbets, Gilbert George, Joseph Kosuth, Sol LeWitt, Bruce Nauman, On Kawara, Edward Ruscha, Robert Ryman, Robert Smithson, Lawrence Weiner and others in relation to the processes and themes of contemporary art. Considering the Netherlands as a melting pot for ideas and the importance of Dutch institutions in supporting and disseminating Conceptual art, this book excavates a rich seam in European art.

Conceptual Art After Modernism Robert Bailey, 2025-05-30 This study provides a new interpretation of art after modernism by foregrounding the importance of conceptual thinking as a pervasive force for change in art and art history since 1950. Robert Bailey shows how distinctions between art and art history gave way as conceptual thinking provided artists and art historians with a common means to reassess what art could be and do in the world. Bailey assesses the results of artful and scholarly inquiries combining creative activity with intellectual rigor to proffer new approaches to a variety of social and environmental concerns ranging from questions about human identity including race, class, gender and sexuality to activist efforts to redress everything from abortion access to migrants' rights to climate change. This book provides both a historical overview of these developments and close analyses of key works and texts spanning 1950 to the present and encompassing broad geographic scope with special attention paid to Indigenous art. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and contemporary art.

The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin, 2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall, a position of power that brought the city prestige, money and historical recognition. Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy, Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power. As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s, however, American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs, a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s. Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art world, a story that spans two continents, forty years and hundreds of actors. Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period.
