Conceptual Theory Of Rhetoric:

A Conceptual Theory of Rhetoric Frank J. D'Angelo, 1975 A Pragmatic Theory of Rhetoric Walter H. Beale, 1987

Walter H Beale offers the most coherent treatment of the aims and modes of discourse to be presented in more than a decade His development of a semiotic grammar of motives that relates the problems of meaning in discourse both to linguistic structure and ways of constructing reality stands as a provocative new theory of rhetoric sharply focused on writing He includes a comprehensive treatment of rhetoric its classes and varieties modes and strategies In addition he demonstrates the importance of the purpose substance and social context of discourse at a time when scholarly attention has become preoccupied with process He fortifies and extends the Aristotelian approach to rhetoric and discourse at a time when much theory and pedagogy have yielded to modernist assumptions and methods And finally he develops a theoretical framework that illuminates the relationship between rhetoric the language arts and the human sciences in general Encyclopedia of Rhetoric and Composition Theresa Enos, 2013-10-08 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Sourcebook on Rhetoric , Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski, 2001-07-19 Please update SAGE UK and SAGE INDIA addresses on imprint page Essays on Classical Rhetoric and Modern Discourse Robert J. Connors, Lisa S. Ede, Andrea A. Lunsford, 1984 Eighteen essays by leading scholars in English speech communication education and philosophy explore the vitality of the classical rhetorical tradition and its influence on both contemporary discourse studies and the teaching of writing Some of the essays investigate the theoretical and historical issues Others show the bearing of classical rhetoric on contemporary problems in composition thus blending theory and practice Common to the varied approaches and viewpoints expressed in this volume is one central theme the 20th century revival of rhetoric entails a recovery of the classical tradition with its marriage of a rich and fully articulated theory with an equally efficacious practice A preface demonstrates the contribution of Edward P J Corbett to the 20th century revival and a last chapter includes a bibliography of his works Cognitive Neural Mechanism of Semantic Rhetoric Qiaoyun Liao, Lijun Meng, 2022-10-21 This book is a necessary supplement to the theoretical exploration into semantic rhetoric particularly a breakthrough in the study of the relationship between the source domain and target domain involved in the construction of semantic rhetorical discourse The study focuses on rhetorical expressions constructed by means of semantic variation or deviation of concepts Based on the holistic cognitive pragmatic model and the framework of impartment and inheritance of connotation and denotation this book constructs a new framework the Annotation Denotation Relevance Inheritance Model ADRIM to explain the construing of semantic rhetoric Besides rooted in the Index Hypothesis Theory and the research paradigm of affordance derivation in language comprehension three ERP experiments on metaphor irony and pun are conducted to demonstrate the psychological reality that people activate possible feature extraction in the process of understanding semantic rhetoric With those sample analyses and experiments the feasibility and operability of ADRIM are proved The book unfolds a combined approach of speculative research and empirical research and can provide a new methodological alternative for semantic rhetorical studies in different languages This title will be an essential read to students and scholars of Linguistics East Asian Studies and social workers who are interested in Language Studies in general Deconstruction and Critical Theory Peter V. Zima, 2002-06-01 This book surveys the main schools and theorists of deconstruction establishing their philosophical roots and tracing their intellectual development It analyses their contribution to the understanding of literature and ideology comparing their critical value and exploring the critical reaction to deconstruction and its limitations The text is designed for students who wish to understand how and why deconstruction has become the dominant tool of the humanities

Deconstruction and Critical Theory marks a new stage in the reception history of Derrida's work and in the wider philosophical debate around deconstruction Zima's study makes a strikingly original contribution to our better understanding of deconstruction and its various philosophic sources Christopher Norris University of Wales at Cardiff Deconstruction And Critical Theory surveys the main schools and theorists of deconstruction establishes their philosophical roots traces their intellectual development analyses their contribution to the understanding of literature and ideology compares their critical value explores the critical reaction to deconstruction and its limitations This is the ideal text for students who wish to understand how and why deconstruction has become the dominant tool of the Humanities Composition-Rhetoric Robert Connors, 1997-06-15 Connors provides a history of composition and its pedagogical approaches to form genre and correctness He shows where many of the today's practices and assumptions about writing come from and he translates what our techniques and theories of teaching have said over time about our attitudes toward students language and life Connors locates the beginning of a new rhetorical tradition in the mid nineteenth century and from there he discusses the theoretical and pedagogical innovations of the last two centuries as the result of historical forces social needs and cultural shifts This important book proves that American composition rhetoric is a genuine rhetorical tradition with its own evolving theory and praxis As such it is an essential reference for all teachers of English and students of American education James A. Berlin and Social-Epistemic Rhetorics Victor J. Vitanza, 2021-01-16 The field of rhetoric and composition has at last received a long lost message delivered in the form of Victor J Vitanza's seminar on James A Berlin In this book that is an untext on Berlin's work and its impact on the field Vitanza acquaints us with Berlin by virtue of many Berlins in multiplicity and via the figure of an excluded third that wants to deliver to us a new message that was undelivered from Berlin to us and from Vitanza to Berlin after Berlin's untimely death in 1994 A seminar on a seminar on the teaching of writing it is teaching all the way down They met at the historical NEH seminar at Carnegie Mellon in 1978 Their friendship and rhetorical dialogues spanned only sixteen years but Vitanza continues the conversation through the seminar through this book rife with reflections and yes homework for his readers and through our reception of it It is up to us now to carry it forward As Vitanza writes I would prefer not to not think that what remains unsaid stays undelivered Ancient Non-Greek Rhetorics Carol

S. Lipson, Roberta A. Binkley, 2009-04-03 Ancient Non Greek Rhetorics contributes to the recovery and understanding of ancient rhetorics in non Western cultures and other cultures that developed independently of classical Greco Roman models Contributors analyze facets of the rhetorics as embedded within the particular cultures of ancient China Egypt Mesopotamia the ancient Near East more generally Israel Japan India and ancient Ireland

Rhetoric and Reality James A. Berlin, 1987 Intended for teachers of college composition this history of major and minor developments in the teaching of writing in twentieth century American colleges employs a taxonomy of theories based on the three epistemological categories objective subjective and transactional dominating rhetorical theory and practice The first section of the book provides an overview of the three theories specifically their assumptions and rhetorics The main chapters cover the following topics 1 the nineteenth century background on the formation of the English department and the subsequent relationship of rhetoric and poetics 2 the growth of the discipline 1900 1920 including the formation of the National Council of Teachers of English the appearance of the major schools of rhetoric the efficiency movement graduate education in rhetoric undergraduate courses and the Great War 3 the influence of progressive education 1920 1940 including the writing program and current traditional rhetoric liberal culture and expressionistic and social rhetoric 4 the communication emphasis 1940 1960 including the communications course the founding of the Conference on College Composition and Communication literature and composition linguistics and composition and the revival of rhetoric and 5 the renaissance of rhetoric and major rhetorical approaches 1960 1975 including contemporary theories based on the three epistemic categories A final chapter briefly surveys developments through 1987 JG

A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte, Neil Nakadate, Roger Dennis Cherry, 1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L Kinneavy's firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing

Methods for Social Theory Jan Ch. Karlsson, Ann Bergman, 2016-12-15 This book constitutes a practical guide to the important skills of both theorizing and writing in social scientific scholarship focusing on the importance of identifying relations between concepts that are useful for explaining social entities and of producing a text that convincingly advances the theory that has been constructed Taking as its point of departure the distinction between the research process and the reporting process between clarifying one's ideas to oneself and writing to express these ideas clearly to others this volume concentrates on writing when theorizing as a way of thinking emphasizing the series of relations that exist between ontology epistemology and rhetoric upon which successful theoretical writing depends Richly illustrated with practical examples the book is divided into two parts the first of which presents techniques for theorizing based upon visualized and logical connections of ideas concepts and empirical patterns in both free and systematic ways and the second part providing techniques for structuring and presenting arguments in essays papers articles or books As such Methods for Social Theory offers a toolbox for the development and presentation of social thought which will prove essential for students and teachers across the social sciences

Classical Greek Rhetorical Theory and the Disciplining of Discourse David M. Timmerman, Edward Schiappa, 2010-03-22 This book contributes to the history of classical rhetoric by focusing on how key terms helped to conceptualize and organize the study and teaching of oratory David Timmerman and Edward Schiappa demonstrate that the intellectual and political history of Greek rhetorical theory can be enhanced by a better understanding of the emergence of terms of art in texts about persuasive speaking and argumentation The authors provide a series of studies to support their argument They describe Plato's disciplining of dialogesthai into the Art of Dialectic Socrates' alternative vision of philosophia and Aristotle's account of demegoria and symbole as terms for political deliberation The authors also revisit competing receptions of the Rhetoric to Alexander Additionally they examine the argument over when the different parts of oration were formalized in rhetorical theory illustrating how an old school focus on vocabulary can provide fresh perspectives on persistent questions
