Concilium 78 Celibacy In The Church:

Celibacy in the church. Vol. 78 CONCILIUM theology in the age of renewal ,1972 Clerical Celibacy in the West: c.1100-1700 Helen Parish,2016-05-23 The debate over clerical celibacy and marriage had its origins in the early Christian centuries and is still very much alive in the modern church The content and form of controversy have remained remarkably consistent but each era has selected and shaped the sources that underpin its narrative and imbued an ancient issue with an immediacy and relevance The basic question of whether and why continence should be demanded of those who serve at the altar has never gone away but the implications of that question and of the answers given have changed with each generation In this reassessment of the history of sacerdotal celibacy Helen Parish examines the emergence and evolution of the celibate priesthood in the Latin church and the challenges posed to this model of the ministry in the era of the Protestant Reformation Celibacy was and is intensely personal but also polemical institutional and historical Clerical celibacy acquired theological moral and confessional meanings in the writings of its critics and defenders and its place in the life of the church continues to be defined in relation to broader debates over Scripture apostolic tradition ecclesiastical history and papal authority Highlighting continuity and change in attitudes to priestly celibacy Helen Parish reveals that the implications of celibacy and marriage for the priesthood reach deep into the history traditions and understanding of the church The Crisis of Confidence in the Catholic Church Raymond G. Helmick SJ,2014-09-01 The Catholic Church in the United States and Europe has seen declining numbers both in regular attendance and in clergy and religious life Scandals have torn at people s allegiance and feelings of disappointment disillusion and anger have become widespread Church authorities have seemed reluctant to acknowledge or address these problems and have responded with vexation to those who raise them from the Right or Left The Crisis of Confidence in the Catholic Church examines the roots of this crisis in light of the nature of the Church community its institutional structure and the historical experiences that have brought it to this pass Raymond Helmick SJ traces the problems of the Catholic Church far back in its history concentration of Church leadership on control of the Christian population a requirement of obedience to their rulings rather than on the Gospel values of Jesus the defensiveness and self righteousness in the face of any criticism Helmick also emphasizes the role of the Second Vatican Council as it brought the Church to an awareness of its potentiality for an active life of faith by its total membership How will the Church revive Helmick believes that a new growth of Christianity can come now only by a return to the love and care of its original premises to the things that are redolent of the life of Jesus The new evangelization can only be done by living a Christian life giving an example Clerical Celibacy in East and West Roman Cholij,1990 An Historical Sketch of Sacerdotal Celibacy in the Christian Church Henry Charles Lea,1867 What Happened at Vatican II John W. O'Malley,2010-09-01 During four years in session Vatican Council II held television audiences rapt with its elegant magnificently choreographed public ceremonies while its debates generated front page news on a near weekly basis This

William R. Burrows,2006-05-01 This is an exciting informed thoughtful and ground breaking book on one of the most vital and threatening issues facing the contemporary church Father Burrows seeks effectively to show that the older forms of church and clerical life developed in the West are both irrelevant and stultifying when transferred in to the Third World and that as a consequence new forms of church and clerical life forms still within the Catholic heritage to which he affirms must be developed if the church is long to survive in that new world Frankly admitting that his suggestions are only the beginning and by no means final Burrows nevertheless makes crystal clear the need for more open attitudes towards the forms of church and the need for more open attitudes towards the forms of church and clergy if the newer churches are to become genuinely creative forces in the Third World rather than lingering embassies from the First World I found the work exceedingly stimulating the approach fresh and open and his suggestions more than worthy of careful thought by all those concerned with the Church in a global context Langdon Gilkey Shailer Mathews Professor of Theology University of Chicago Divinity School New Ministries deals with topics of vital concern for the Christian churches and it does so in a way that will catch and keep the reader s interest Burrows handles this rather explosive topic with personal sensitivity and with scholarly care Paul F Knitter Professor of Theology Xavier Women in a Men's Church Virgilio P.
