Love, Sex, and Marriage Julie Coleman, 2022-06-13 If the language we use influences and reflects the way that we see the world then the fields of LOVE SEX and MARRIAGE will show how speakers of English view their closest social and emotional relationships. Love Sex and Marriage provides a classification of English terms for these three fields from the earliest written records of the language until the present day. This volume makes it possible to trace changing attitudes towards social and sexual ties and to understand those ties as earlier speakers of English did through the language they used. The terms are arranged by meaning and are listed chronologically within semantic fields with their dates of usage. Notes on individual terms provide further information about their connotations and development. Language does not exist in isolation from the people who speak it so background information about changes in social conditions, religious beliefs and medical advancements is also included. A brief introduction to basic semantic terminology explains the principles behind the classification and an alphabetical index facilitates the location of individual terms. The Holt Guide to English William F. Irmscher, 1981 A Concise Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English Eric Partridge, 1989 A Concise Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English Eric Partridge, 1989 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988 Waterstone's Guide to Books, 1989 Historical Linguistics, 1993 Henning Andersen, 1995-01-01 This volume contains a selection of 34 of the 96 papers presented at ICHL 1993 including several of the contributions to the workshop on Parameters and Typology organized jointly by Henning Andersen and David W. Lightfoot. Major topics represented are grammaticalization and functional renewal illustrated with changes in Romance, French, Pennsylvania German, Afrikaans, English, Finnish, changes in syntax, Indo-European, Indo-Aryan, Ancient Greek, Romanian, Spanish, Portuguese, French, Japanese, Dutch, English and discourse structure, Old Russian, Old French morphology, German, Turkic phonology, Romance, Italian, French, German, Old English, English. Several papers include sociolinguistic, areal and typological perspectives on change; a few are specifically concerned with reconstruction or with the principles of reconstruction and several demonstrate the continued importance of the philological methods in the study of texts.
