The Concise Oxford Companion to Classical Literature ,2003 Searchable database of information found in The concise Oxford companion to classical literature which was originally published in 1993 and then reissued in 1996 The Oxford Companion to Classical Literature M.C. Howatson,2013-08-22 This companion not only presents all the essential facts about the authors tales and characters from ancient literature and myth but places these details in the wider contexts of the history and society of the Greek and Roman worlds The Collected Works of Gerard Manley Hopkins Gerard Manley Hopkins,2014-02 Hopkins s Dublin Notebook brings us closer to Hopkins s life and times than any other volume providing a digitized facsimile of the large journal he used for academic personal and religious notes accompanied by a careful transcription of the hand written text and thorough explanatory notes to guide the reader "The" Oxford Companion to Classical Literature Margaret C. Howatson,1997 The Oxford companion to classical literature Sir Paul Harvey,1937

The Concise Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, Katy Hooper, 2012-06-14 This book provides a compact guide to all aspects of English literature For this edition existing entries have been updated and new entries have been added on contemporary writers such as Jim Crace and Pat Barker Wallace Stevens and Pre-Socratic Philosophy Daniel Tompsett, 2012 This book studies Wallace Stevens and pre Socratic philosophy showing how concepts that animate Stevens poetry parallel concepts and techniques found in the poetic works of Parmenides Empedocles and Xenophanes and in the fragments of Heraclitus Tompsett traces the transition of pre Socratic ideas into poetry and philosophy of the post Kantian period assessing the impact that the mythologies associated with pre Socratism have had on structures of metaphysical thought that are still found in poetry and philosophy today This transition is treated as becoming increasingly important as poetic and philosophic forms have progressively taken on the existential burden of our post theological age Tompsett argues that Stevens poetry attempts to play its audience into an ontological ground in an effort to show that his reduction of metaphysics is not dry philosophical imposition but is enacted by our encounter with the poems themselves Through an analysis of the language and form of Stevens poems Tompsett uncovers the mythology his poetry shares with certain pre Socratics and with Greek tragedy This shows how such mythic rhythms are apparent within the work of Friedrich Nietzsche Martin Heidegger and Hans Georg Gadamer and how these rhythms release a poetic understanding of the violence of a reduction of metaphysics

*Reading Faulkner: Collected Stories, For readers and critics a guide to the Nobel Laureate s short stories

*Classical Love Poetry Dr. Jonathan Williams, Clive Cheesman, 2004 This lovely book pairs selections of translated Greek and Roman verse from Homer Sappho Virgil Horace and Ovid among others with fine examples of paintings sculpture vases and decorative objects The excerpts which cover the period from the eighth century B C to the early Middle Ages were chosen from famous works such as Homer's Iliad as well as less well known pieces such as the writings of the Greek poet Ibycus This book demonstrates that the human preoccupation with love in all its forms has inspired writers for millennia from the expression of enduring faithfulness and familial affection in Homer's description of Hector and Andromache to the passionate intensity portrayed by the later Greek lyric poets and the light hearted depiction of love as a lost little boy by the anonymous authors of the Inacreontea The book includes a brief introduction to Greek and Roman views on love and marriage a short biographical note on each of the major poets and a glossary of mythical and geographical names understand these issues this volume addresses a range of questions regarding the ways in which ideas beliefs and constructions of the supernatural threatened and conflicted with authority as well as how the power of the supernatural could be used by authorities monarchical religious legal or familial to reinforce established social norms Drawing upon a range of historical literary and dramatic texts the collection reveals intersecting early modern anxieties in relation to the supernatural issues of control and the exercise of power at different levels of society from the upper echelons of power at court to local and domestic spaces and in a range of publication contexts manuscript sources printed prose texts and the early modern stage Divided into three sections Magic at Court Performance Text and Language and Witchcraft the Devil and the Body the volume offers a broad cultural approach to the subject that reflects current research by a range of early modern scholars from the disciplines of history and literature By bringing scholars into an interdisciplinary dialogue the case studies presented here generate fresh insights within and between disciplines and different methodologies and approaches which are mutually illuminating The Poetry of Luis Cernuda Neil Charles McKinlay, 1999 A study of the work of the Spanish poet Luis Cernuda 1902 1963 The works of the twentieth century Spanish poet Luis Cernuda 1902 1963 are characterised by their fragmentary and disunified nature with a wide range of complexities and contradictions Concentrating on the well known La realidad y el deseo Dr McKinlay considers the poems from the perspective of the widespread loss of faith in God exploring the tension between Cernuda's perception of chaos and desire for order which co exist in dialectical opposition NEIL C MCKINLAY is college lecturer in Spanish at New College Oxford Intercultural Education Nektaria Palaiologou, 2024-11-01 This edited collection highlights the diversity of perspectives within the broad field of intercultural education focusing on education in modern multicultural societies as well as exploring the role of migrant populations as modern citizens. The chapters examine these themes both through historical analysis tracing the pathway of intercultural education back to ancient Greece before focussing on modern multicultural societies It also discusses intercultural learning issues in multicultural contexts dynamic approaches and practical applications in modern classrooms and the main issues in teacher training in relation to immigrant students The volume highlights the need to design more effective social and educational policies for immigrant populations on the basis of respecting protecting and supporting all social groups irrelevant of their country of origin racial or ethnic background sexual orientation socio economic class or religious beliefs It brings together conceptual and empirical contributions from well known authors in the field as well as from younger scholars and researchers The result is a mixture of ideas that will provide food for thought and discussion to an international readership This book was originally published as a special issue of Intercultural Education Reading and Writing the Mediterranean Vincenzo Consolo, 2006-01-01 Vincenzo Consolo is counted by many critics among the most significant voices in contemporary world literature This volume makes available for the first in English an edited and annotated volume of Consolo's short stories essays and other writings pertaining to the diverse cultures and histories of Sicily and the Mediterranean basin The Mediterranean region holds a particular fascination for Consolo who seeks through his writing to recover the memory of a Sicilian and Mediterranean history which he feels is presently being threatened by the forces of late capitalist Western culture His writings about the region also voice a commitment to questions of ethics and human rights which have been brought to the fore by recent tensions dividing this area and forcing a mass exodus of its people At a time when this part of the world is under threat from unbridled globalization as well as dangerous forms of ethnic and religious fundamentalism Consolo s words offer an insightful rethinking of regionalism within a global hierarchy of values They remind us of the necessity of moderation and contingency and in so doing attempt to recover a moral and ethical dimension for our Direct To Brain Windows, Remote Neuron Reading and Writing and Other Science Big Secrets, Lies, and Mistakes Ted Huntington, 2012-09 If you have to read this book then you do not get Direct to Brain Windows The first ever tell all book about Direct to Brain Windows Do you see little semi transparent windows and videos in front of your eyes No Then you are excluded too It sounds crazy but getting video directly to our eyes and ears removes the need to look at a screen or to wear headphones and is just as safe and harmless Ted Huntington breaks the silence for the first time in history by telling the public openly and explicitly many secret details about Direct to Brain Windows remote neuron reading writing and muscle moving But perhaps even more importantly Huntington reveals the truth about many science lies frauds secrets and mistaken beliefs It's shocking vicious and beyond belief to realize that many millions secretly see inside houses and heads in windows in front of their eyes but for centuries have denied that same benefit to millions of other fine people not even telling them that such a thing happened long ago in the past But it s all there clearly spelled out by many heroic thinkers through the many dark centuries of silence and violence The Flight of the Angels Alistair Charles Rolls, 2023-11-27 It is a close study of four novels by Boris Vian It aims to show how L cume des jours L Automne P kin L Herbe rouge and L Arrache coeur form a unified and coherent tetralogy By establishing close links between these four texts it becomes possible to achieve a more comprehensive understanding not only of the significance of the tetralogy in exposing a complex and multi layered novelistic strategy at the heart of the vianesque but of the individual novels as autonomous creations An examination of the novels reveals that they are not merely joined to one another via a superficial network of textual similarities that which I refer to as intratextuality but that this intertwining is emblematic of a common method of narrative construction Each Vian novel is dependent for a thorough understanding of the text to be possible upon the multiple lines of external influence running through it The sources of this influence which I refer to as intertextuality are located in various major texts of twentieth century literature anglophone as well as francophone Thus in each instance the narrative is driven by a complicated interaction of intratextuality and intertextuality
