The Concord Quartet Samuel A. Schreiner, Jr., 2010-12-22 We will walk on our own feet we will work with our own hands we will speak our own minds Ralph Waldo Emerson The American Scholar 1837 From the start of transcendentalism and America's intellectual renaissance in the 1830s to the Civil War and beyond the story of four extraordinary friends whose lives shaped a nation Beginning in the 1830s coincidences that seem almost miraculous in retrospect brought together in Concord as friends and neighbors four men of very different temperaments and talents who shared the same conviction that the soul had inherent power to grasp the truth and that the truth would make men free of old constraints on thought and behavior In addition to Emerson a philosopher there was Amos Bronson Alcott an educator Henry David Thoreau a naturalist and rebel and Nathaniel Hawthorne a novelist This book is the story of that unique and influential friendship in action of the lives the friends led and their work that resulted in an enduring change in their nation's direction From the Prologue
