Concordat of Agreement--Supporting Essays Daniel F. Martensen,1995-03-01 Cruciform Ecumenism Elizabeth Smith Woodard,2019-09-06 The truth claims of Christianity appear compromised by the division of Christ's followers into different denominations What keeps Christians separated retreating to their corners labeled Catholic Orthodox and various types of Protestant Elizabeth Smith Woodard accounts for Christian disunity in terms of ecclesiology episcopacy and apostolicity in brief Who are we Who is in charge And are we who we say we are Woodard argues that the controversial issues dividing Christians today stem from these questions of authority and identity What would it look like Woodard asks if Christians did not insist on making others more like us but instead worked toward all of us becoming more and more like Christ She answers that growing in such cruciformity should serve as the basis for unity Using recent unity achieving Anglican Lutheran discussions as a case study she examines the crucial intersection of ecclesiology episcopacy and apostolicity to argue that Christians growth in Christ's mission necessarily entails growing in unity and cruciformity

Deaconesses, the Ordination of Women and Orthodox Theology Eleni Kasselouri-Hatzivassiliadi,Niki Papageorgiou,Petros Vassiliadis,2018-06-11 This collection of essays highlights the thorny and divisive issue of the admission of women into the sacramental diaconal priesthood of the Christian Church from the Orthodox theological perspective The contributions here stem from scientific papers presented at an international conference titled Deaconesses Ordination of Women and Orthodox Theology organized in Thessaloniki Greece in 2015 by the Center of Ecumenical Missiological and Environmental Studies CEMES They cover almost all the fields of biblical liturgical patristic systematic canonical and historical theology The volume's main focus is the ancient order of deaconesses in connection with the overall issue of the ordination of women Although most papers address the issues from an Orthodox perspective their sober analysis can provide theological argumentation for the wider Christian community both the Churches and Christian denominations that exclude women from the sacramental priesthood and those that have already adopted their ordination Ecumenical Reception William G. Rusch,2007-07-16 In 1988 William Rusch wrote a book tracing the development of the idea of reception up to that time During the intervening years both reflection on reception and the experience of attempting to engage in it have progressed considerably Rusch begins with a bird's eye view of the term reception across several disciplines law philosophy literary criticism before homing in on its theological import He traces its use as a term and as a practice from the New Testament up to the twentieth century painting a picture of a dynamic process that fosters unity and diversity among churches and spiritual communities Finally he examines the new chapter in the history of reception due to the establishment of the ecumenical movement and considers what will be necessary for it to continue to move the church forward Unity in the Triune God Timo Tavast,2012-12-21 The contemporary trinitarian paradigm in systematic theology has been internationally well known since the time of Karl Barth and Karl Rahner and particularly since the contribution of their famous successors Many of them Wolfhart Pannenberg and Robert W Jenson among others have intentionally shown in their writings what the general ecumenical relevance of the findings of trinitarianism might be However the academic research of ecumenism has not yet fully investigated how ecumenically oriented trinitarian theology has been factually applied in varying ecumenical relationships and agreements Unity in the Triune God focuses on the ecumenism of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America with its full communion partners the Presbyterian Church USA the Reformed Church in America and the United Church of Christ 1997 the Episcopal Church 1999 the Moravian Church in America 1999 and the United Methodist Church 2009 Together all these ecumenically active denominations have shown in their full communion agreements that the doctrine of the Trinity and the church's common trinitarian confession are not meaningless relics from ancient times but rather are dynamic and many sided ecumenical resources that can be used for several functions in full communion agreements The goal of this study is to reveal the differing ways in which to utilize this ecumenical potential of the trinitarian faith

Armentrout,Robert Boak Slocum,2003-09-01 In 2000 the Episcopal Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America began a relationship of full communion based on the document Called to Common Mission This momentous agreement bringing together the reformed and catholic traditions came after years of discussion and some resistance As the possibilities for living and working together evolve across all levels of these two churches lives there will inevitably arise many questions about the details from shared worship and mission initiatives to interchangeability in deploying clergy Discovering Common Mission is a collection of essays that address the issues Contributors Martin E Marty J Robert Wright Mark Dyer Jon S Enslin Reginald H Fuller George H Tavard Robert H Busch Parish study groups congregations exploring new relationships with their Lutheran or Episcopal neighbors and seminarians will find these essays helpful in understanding the issues of this ongoing relationship Essays in International Litigation for Lord Collins Jonathan Harris,Campbell McLachlan,Paul David Mora,2022 This collection is in honour of the remarkable career of Lord Collins The book offers a set of unique insights into the conduct of cross border litigation the judicial role in international cases the shape of English private international law the conduct of international arbitration and the interface with public international law An Historical Essay on Modern Spain Richard Herr,1974-11-20 More political than cultural in its emphasis this enormously detailed scholarly yet thoroughly readable book about modern Spain under Franco should fascinate any reader curious to know what changes have been wrought in that country in the past 30 years Professor Herr UCLA and Berkeley has researched painstakingly and drawn a clear authentic and meaningful portrait of Spain today as it is rapidly being transformed from an agrarian society to one now predominantly industrial Publishers Weekly Professor Herr is also seeking the origins of modern Spain his history is Aristotelian in that the end dominates the process He seeks these origins in the later eighteenth century when the traditional order was perceived to be a bar to progress A group of civil servants influenced by the European Enlightenment sought to bring Spain into Europe believing that industrial progress education and agrarian reform would do the trick but all their reforms were opposed by Catholic traditionalists Hence the division into the two Spains Yet it is not the old crude version of two Spains so often served up to explain everything from the failure of university reform to the Civil War that Professor Herr plumps for He sees the course of Spanish history explained by the rise and modification of the Moderado oligarchy he does throw out a lifeline in a sea of complexities and gives us the best short account of Franco Spain Spectator This is a work of substantial interest and value which must be recommended as a well balanced readable and scholarly introduction to a subject which has never ceased to be controversial and is still in the process of reinterpretation commands a high place among the general histories of Spain Journal of Modern History Anglican Orders and Ordinations David Holeton,1997 A History of Lutheranism Eric W. Gritsch, In a clear nontechnical way this noted Reformation historian tells the story of how the nascent reforming and confessional movement sparked and led by Martin Luther survived its first battles with religious and political authorities to become institutionalized in its religious practices and teachings Gritsch then traces the emergence of genuine consensus at the end of the sixteenth century followed by the age of Lutheran Orthodoxy the great Pietist reaction Lutheranism's growing diversification during the Industrial Revolution its North American expansion and its increasingly global and ecumenical ventures in the last century A Commentary on "Concordat of Agreement" James E. Griffiss, Daniel F. Martensen,1994

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483 1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism American Book Publishing Record ,1995 The A to Z of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Duane Howard Larson, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2007 On October 31 1517 the German Priest Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses challenging the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church on the door of the church in Wittenberg It is widely held that this act triggered the large exodus from the Catholic Church which became known as the Protestant Reformation Lutheranism one of the many Protestant movements that were spawned as a result of this revolution is largely founded on the teachings and writings of Martin Luther The A to Z of Lutheranism sheds light on the many and varied concerns of the
