Concrete Mama Prison Pro From Walla Walla:

Concrete Mama John A. McCoy, 2018-10-16 Journalists John McCoy and Ethan Hoffman spent four months inside the walls of the Washington State Penitentiary at Walla Walla in 1978 just as Washington once a leader in prison reform abandoned its focus on reform and rehabilitation and returned to cell time and punishment. It was a brutal transition. McCoy and Hoffman roamed the maximum security compound almost at will, observing and befriending prisoners and guards. The result is a striking depiction of a community in which there was little to do, much to fear, and a culture that both mimicked and scorned the outside world. McCoy's unadorned prose and Hoffman's stunning black and white photographs offer as authentic a portrayal of life in the Big House as outsiders are ever likely to experience. Originally published in 1981, Concrete Mama revealed a previously unseen stark and complex world of life on the inside for which it won the Washington State Book Award. Long unavailable yet still relevant, it is revitalized in a second edition with an introduction by scholar Dan Berger that provides historical context for the book's ongoing resonance along with several previously unpublished photographs. A Survey of the Representation of Prisoners in the United States James Hugunin, 1999. Presents a comprehensive view of prison photography in the USA from its 19th century beginnings to the present. The author gives a nuanced analysis of the shifting boundaries between outsiders and insiders in the encounter between the photographer and the prison system. The text shows not only the complexities of prison photography as a genre but the ways in which society more generally responds to the phenomenon of incarceration. Corrections in the United States Dean J. Champion, 1998. Details elements of the US corrections system for beginning students. Treatment is reader friendly but layout is austere with no illustrations or boxes. Part I examines the history of US corrections and overviews the criminal justice and sentencing systems. Correctional alternatives are examined. Federal Probation, 1982. The New York Times Biographical Service, 1990. A compilation of current biographical information of general interest. Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 1985. The Publishers Weekly, 1982. Books in Print Supplement, 1985. Sociological Abstracts, 1985. Concrete Mama Ethan Hoffman, 1981. Library Journal, 1982-07. Concrete mama J. McCoy, 1981. Concrete Mama; prison profiles from Walla Walla photographs by E. Hoffman E.
