

A sunset over the ocean with waves crashing against a rocky shore. The sky is a warm orange and yellow, and the water is a deep blue-grey. The waves are white with foam as they break against the dark rocks in the foreground.

Those who do not remember the past are condemned to repeat it.

Condemned To Repeat:

Condemned to Repeat it Wick Allison, Jeremy duQuesnay Adams, Gavin Hambly, 1998 Fifty crucial lessons from history that are not only fascinating in their own right but are constant reminders about how the world often operates Jacket

Performing Remains Rebecca Schneider, 2011-03 Performing Remains is a collection of essays from one of Performance Studies leading scholars exploring the role of the fake the false and the faux in contemporary theatre Divided into seven essays this book examines both contemporary and historical performance with a wide scope questioning the importance of representation and reassessing the ritual value of failure Forced Migration and Global Processes Francois

Crepeau, Delphine Nakache, Michael Collyer, Nathaniel H. Goetz, Art Hansen, 2006-03-28 Migration is at the center of much of the discussion on globalization Migrants move across borders and thus defy state centered traditions Migration is often caused or influenced by aspects of global change the transformation of the world economy with the expansion of free trade the modification of the world balance of power and the challenge of global insecurity the emergence of the global environment as an important political issue and the redefinition of the role of communities in shaping identities when faced with networks of migrants and diasporas Forced Migration and Global Processes considers the crossroads of forced migration with three global trends development human rights and security This expert collection studies these complex interactions and aims to help determine what solutions may alleviate most of the human suffering involved in forced migrations

War and Conflict in Africa Paul D. Williams, 2013-04-16 After the Cold War Africa earned the dubious distinction of being the world's most bloody continent But how can we explain this proliferation of armed conflicts What caused them and what were their main characteristics And what did the world's governments do to stop them In this fully revised and updated second edition of his popular text Paul Williams offers an in depth and wide ranging assessment of more than six hundred armed conflicts which took place in Africa from 1990 to the present day from the continental catastrophe in the Great Lakes region to the sprawling conflicts across the Sahel and the web of wars in the Horn of Africa Taking a broad comparative approach to examine the political contexts in which these wars occurred he explores the major patterns of organized violence the key ingredients that provoked them and the major international responses undertaken to deliver lasting peace Part I Contexts provides an overview of the most important attempts to measure the number scale and location of Africa's armed conflicts and provides a conceptual and political sketch of the terrain of struggle upon which these wars were waged Part II Ingredients analyses the role of five widely debated features of Africa's wars the dynamics of neopatrimonial systems of governance the construction and manipulation of ethnic identities questions of sovereignty and self determination as well as the impact of natural resources and religion Part III Responses discusses four major international reactions to Africa's wars attempts to build a new institutional architecture to help promote peace and security on the continent this architecture's two main policy instruments peacemaking initiatives and peace operations and efforts to develop the continent War and Conflict in Africa will be essential reading for all students of international peace and security studies as well as Africa's international relations Between Samaritans and States Jennifer C. Rubenstein, 2015 Examining the difficult ethical quandaries faced by humanitarian non governmental organizations INGOs this book explains why INGOs occupy a middle ground between the individual good Samaritan and full fledged conventional governments Gender, Space and Time Dorothy Moss, 2006-01-01 Drawing on the work of Henri Lefebvre and Barbara Adam Gender Space and Time is a brilliant study that offers a unique and original threefold conceptualization of how space and time is developed and applied in an empirical study of women's lives Author Dorothy Moss focuses on the everyday practice and experience of women higher education students at a community college in northern England Women's action is considered in relation to the complex and interconnected spheres of paid work home leisure community and higher education Through highlighting concepts of space and time the complex relationship between networks of power and personal action gains visibility Moss conceptualizes women as centers of action and demonstrates the ways in which they construct personal pathways connect different spheres of experience integrate new time demands into the multiple rhythms of their everyday lives and carve out personal space Gender Space and Time is a timely and compelling work certain to be of interest to scholars of sociology women's studies and anthropology The Banyamulenge Soldier Christopher P. Davey, 2025-09-29 The Banyamulenge Soldier offers a critical analysis of combatant experiences from within the Rwandan Patriotic Front RPF and subsequent armed groups through the interpretation of Banyamulenge soldier narratives Banyamulenge young men joined the RPF and acted as foot soldiers in the RPF's fight against the genocidaire in 1994 and later conflicts becoming active agents of conflict in the region up to the present In examining the highly political discourse and stories around the Rwandan conflict and Congo wars this book examines RPF memory the evolution of its uses of violence and how these memories have shaped Banyamulenge combatants Challenging the preconceived perpetrator and victim categories with a forward thinking approach using the concept of genocide narrative identity meaning a narrative identity shaped by experiences of social destruction or uses of genocide as a concept Christopher P Davey reveals how the stories we tell about ourselves shapes who we are He shows that Banyamulenge experiences of genocide between Congo and Rwanda are layered around agencies of victimhood and perpetration of genocide Using soldier and other community narratives Davey examines the subjective nature of genocide in perception of an event strategic deployment of the label and in the re shaping of social worlds inhabited by this community and therefore impacting others in Congo and Rwanda The Banyamulenge Soldier offers an insider view of the historical dynamics of current conflicts in South Kivu while adding to our understanding of relational genocide theory Dangerous Sanctuaries Sarah Kenyon Lischer, 2015-07-22 Since the early 1990s refugee crises in the Balkans Central Africa the Middle East and West Africa have led to the international spread of civil war In Central Africa alone more than three million people have died in wars fueled at least in part by internationally supported refugee populations The recurring pattern of violent refugee crises prompts the following questions Under what conditions do refugee crises lead to the spread of civil war across borders How can refugee relief organizations respond when militants use humanitarian assistance as a tool of war What government actions can prevent or reduce conflict To understand the role of refugees in the spread of conflict Sarah Kenyon Lischer systematically compares violent and nonviolent crises involving Afghan Bosnian and Rwandan refugees Lischer argues against the conventional socioeconomic explanations for refugee related violence abysmal living conditions proximity to the homeland and the presence of large numbers of bored young men Lischer instead focuses on the often ignored political context of the refugee crisis She suggests that three factors are crucial the level of the refugees political cohesion before exile the ability and willingness of the host state to prevent military activity and the contribution by aid agencies and outside parties of resources that exacerbate conflict Lischer s political explanation leads to policy prescriptions that are sure to be controversial using private security forces in refugee camps or closing certain camps altogether With no end in sight to the brutal wars that create refugee crises Dangerous Sanctuaries is vital reading for anyone concerned with how refugee flows affect the dynamics of conflicts around the world

Condemned to Repeat? Fiona Terry, 2002-05-31 Fiona Terry examines the side effects of intervention by aid organisations and points out the need to acknowledge the political consequences of the choice to give aid

Above the Fray Shai M. Dromi, 2020-01-24 From Lake Chad to Iraq nongovernmental organizations NGOs provide relief around the globe and their scope is growing every year Policy makers and activists often assume that humanitarian aid is best provided by these organizations which are generally seen as impartial and neutral In Above the Fray Shai M Dromi investigates why the international community overwhelmingly trusts humanitarian NGOs by looking at the historical development of their culture With a particular focus on the Red Cross Dromi reveals that NGOs arose because of the efforts of orthodox Calvinists demonstrating for the first time the origins of the unusual moral culture that has supported NGOs for the past 150 years Drawing on archival research Dromi traces the genesis of the Red Cross to a Calvinist movement working in mid nineteenth century Geneva He shows how global humanitarian policies emerged from the Red Cross founding members faith that an international volunteer program not beholden to the state was the only ethical way to provide relief to victims of armed conflict By illustrating how Calvinism shaped the humanitarian field Dromi argues for the key role belief systems play in establishing social fields and institutions Ultimately Dromi shows the immeasurable social good that NGOs have achieved but also points to their limitations and suggests that alternative models of humanitarian relief need to be considered

Massacres and Morality Alex J. Bellamy, 2012-09-27 Most cultural and legal codes agree that the intentional killing of civilians whether in peacetime or war is prohibited Yet despite this fact the deliberate killing of large numbers of civilians remains a persistent feature of global political life Genteel Tradition in American Philosophy and Character and Opinion in the United States George Santayana, 2009-10-27 This book brings together two seminal works by George Santayana one of the most significant philosophers of the twentieth century Character and Opinion in the United States which stands with Tocqueville's Democracy in America as one the most insightful works of American cultural criticism ever written and The Genteel Tradition in American Philosophy a landmark text of both philosophical analysis and cultural criticism An introduction by James Seaton situates Santayana in the intellectual and cultural context of his own time Four additional essays include John Lachs on the ways Santayana's understanding of the soul of America help explain the relative peace among nationalities and ethnic groups in the United States Wilfred M McClay on Santayana's life of the mind as it relates to dominant trends in American culture Roger Kimball on Santayana's most uncommon benefice common sense and James Seaton on Santayana's distinction between English liberty and fierce liberty All the essays serve to highlight the relevance of Santayana's ideas to current issues in American culture including education immigration and civil rights

The Thinking Dog Gail Tamases Fisher, 2009 It is such a joy to work with a dog who proactively engages in behaviors while you build a relationship that will surprise you in its depth and versatility Clicker training has proven to be the most effective means of developing a Thinking Dog one who offers behaviors in anticipation of a reward rather than a dog who has been trained only to wait for his owner's commands One of the biggest obstacles the new clicker trainer faces however is his or her own history of training and habits of working with a dog But you can make the transition once you understand how dogs learn and the mechanisms of operant conditioning Learn from author Gail Fisher's crossover experiences as well as those of the hundreds of students she has helped make the change over the past thirteen years You will learn How dog training has evolved over the past 100 years the strengths and weaknesses of various training styles and to what extent you can intergrate your previous methods with clicker training The particular challenges you will face as you crossover from whatever style of training you have used in the past compulsion luring etc to clicker training The detailed nuts and bolts of clicker training0 4from getting a behavior started to methods of rewarding to reducing the need to click and treat over time while still getting the results you want How to work with dogs trained with force or harsh methods and change them into behavior offering dynamos What reviewers are saying MIDWEST BOOK REVIEWWritten by Gail Tamases Fisher a professional dog trainer of over thirty years experience The Thinking Dog Crossover to Clicker Training is a guide to using clicker training to develop a thinking dog who offers behaviors in anticipation of a reward rather than a passive dog trained simply to wait for its owner s commands Someone new to clicker training may find it difficult to break out of familiar routines The Thinking Dog Crossover to Clicker Training teaches one how to surpass one s own ingrained habits while learning the nuts and bolts of operant conditioning By definition LLW loose leash walking means there is no tension in the leash This rule is absolute Your dog may not pull and be successful Any time your dog pulls and gets to move forward pulling is reinforced So from the moment you start training LLW any time your dog is on leash you are either in training or using equipment that prevents pulling such as a front connection harness or head halter Do not use a Flexi or bungi lead as they reward pulling An excellent easy to use manual for amateur and professional dog trainers alike handily illustrated with black and white photographs James A CoxDOG WORLDWhen Gail Tamases Fisher attended her first clicker training seminar in 1996 she was already a skilled trainer and the author of two books She had built a successful career on the Volhard motivational method I was happy with how I trained for the 20 plus years that I had used and taught this approach believing it was by far the best way to train for both dogs and people Fisher writes As her skepticism vanished she began incorporating clicker training into her methodology She explains her decision in a balanced manner Nothing in this book is intended to denigrate any approach or diminish your success with whatever training method you have used The Accidental

Immigrant David Bouchier,2004-06 Transatlantic humorist David Bouchier brings wit wisdom and a touch of philosophy to the everyday dramas of American suburban life This book brings together more than a hundred essays originally broadcast on National Public Radio or published in his Out of Order column in the Sunday New York Times When work and marriage brought David Bouchier to Long Island in 1986 the endless suburbs seemed mysterious and exotic to him He was inspired to begin writing essays and newspaper columns about his life there a personal and public diary of the Resident Alien experience In 1992 a weekly public radio essay was added to the newspaper columns and thousands of listeners still enjoy David s weekly radio broadcasts These are the affectionate and sometimes acerbic observations of an Accidental Immigrant who still finds life in America endlessly stimulating and wonderfully strange David Bouchier s thoughts about love life liberty and the pursuit of happiness in the suburbs will make you smile and make you think Boring suburban rituals like lawn care mall
