Intimacy on the Internet Lauren Rosewarne,2016-04-14 The focus of this book is on the media representations of the use of the Internet in seeking intimate connections be it a committed relationship a hook up or a community in which to dabble in fringe sexual practices Popular culture film narrative television the news media and advertising present two very distinct pictures of the use of the Internet as related to intimacy From news reports about victims of online dating to the presentation of the desperate and dateless the perverts and the deviants a distinct frame for the intimacy Internet connection is negativity In some examples however a changing picture is emerging The ubiquitousness of Internet use today has meant a slow increase in comparatively more positive representations of successful online romances in the news resulting in more positive spin advertising and a more even handed presence of such liaisons in narrative television and film Both the positive and the negative media representations are categorised and analysed in this book to explore what they reveal about the intersection of gender sexuality technology and the changing mores regarding intimacy A Practical Abridgment of American

Confessional Subjects Susan David Bernstein,2000-11-09 Susan Bernstein examines the gendered power relationships embedded in confessional literature of the Victorian period Exploring this dynamic in Charlotte Brontë's Villette Mary Elizabeth Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret George Eliot's Daniel Deronda and Thomas Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles she argues that although women's disclosures to male confessors repeatedly depict wrongdoing committed against them they themselves are viewed as the transgressors Bernstein emphasizes the secularization of confession but she also places these narratives within the context of the anti Catholic tract literature of the time Based on cultural criticism poststructuralism and feminist theory Bernstein s analysis constitutes a reassessment of Freud s and Foucault s theories of confession In addition her study of the anti Catholic propaganda of the mid nineteenth century and its portrayal of confession provides historical background to the meaning of domestic confessions in the literature of the second half of the century Originally published in 1997 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Volume 58, 1904 New England Genealogy Society Staff,1999-02 The New England Historical and Genealogical Register Volume 58 1904 New England Historic Genealogical Society 1904 reprint indices illus 412 pp AFI Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute,1971

The Communicator Pennsylvania State Police,2001 Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V.
