Confession The Lutheran Difference Series:

The Lutheran Confessions Charles P. Arand, James Arne Nestingen, 2012-04 In this important new volume Arand Kolb and Nestingen bring the fruit of an entire generation of scholarship to bear on these documents making it an essential and up to date class text The Lutheran Confessions places the documents solidly within their political social ecclesiastical and theological contexts relating them to the world in which they took place Though the book is not a theology of the Confessions readers will clearly understand the issues at stake in the narratives both in their own time and in ours The Fragmentation of the Church and Its Unity in Peacemaking Jeffrey Gros, John D. Rempel, 2001 The Gospel Places Peacemaking at the center of Christian identity Over the centuries however churches have divided over the role and place of the peacemaking imperative in their lives and teachings This volume offers deep ecumenical discussion of the relationship of the church to its peacemaking mission from the standpoints of history and the contemporary context Contributors representing ten major faith traditions Lois Y Barrett Alexander Brunett Murray W Dempster Donald F Durnbaugh John H Erickson Eric W Gritsch Jeffrey Gros Paul Meyendorff Lauree Hersch Meyer Thomas H Olbricht Thomas D Paxson Jr James F Puglisi John D Rempel Alan P F Sell and Glen H Stassen address this crucial topic from the perspective of their own churches and explore paths that could lead to the reconciliation of existing differences The Church's Confession Under Hitler Arthur C. Cochrane, 1976-01-01 THEOLOGICAL PUBLISHERS 2 PICKWICK PRESS 1974 1980 PICKWICK PUBLICATIONS 1982 by Dikran Y Hadidian Upon my return in September of 1973 from my sabbatical year in Beirut where I had time to think through the initial plan of publishing dissertations I approached the president of a local commercial printing company who also happened to be a friend He after several days of consideration gave me the green light to go ahead and plan publications of theological monographs at the company's expense I served as general editor fully responsible in all decisions to negotiate with authors translators and editors of collected essays on the possible publication of their works Thus BULLETIN ABTAPL VOL 2 NO 7 13 MARCH 1990 in 1974 the Pickwick Morcroft Company began to publish monographs under the name of Pickwick Press The first series was called the Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series together with two other series namely Pittsburgh Reprint Series and Pittsburgh Original Texts and Translations Series These continued until 1980 when the president of Pickwick Morcroft suffered a stroke and his successor was not interested in continuing the previous arrangement Dikran Y Hadidian Editor and Publisher Pickwick Publications The American Church History Series: A history of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, by H.E. Jacobs Philip Schaff, Henry Codman Potter, Samuel Macauley Jackson, 1899 The Quarterly Review of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, 1871 First-[second] Free Lutheran Diet in America Free Lutheran Diet in America, 1878 First Free Lutheran Diet in America, Philadelphia, December 27-28, 1877 Henry Eyster Jacobs, 1878 Apostolic and Prophetic Gesa Elsbeth Thiessen, 2012-07-26 Apostolic ecumenical and radical these are the ecclesial characteristics highlighted by Gesa E Thiessen while explaining her vision of the church The author focuses on the meaning of each of these marks as well as on their intrinsic connections an approach that leads her to delve deep into the history of the church and to draw a wide span between the apostolic past and a radical perspective on the present and future ecumenical church Apostolic and Prophetic studies the concept of apostolicity emerging in patristic theology and examines this concept as it has been developed in select Lutheran Roman Catholic and Anglican ecumenical documents Doctrine and Defense. Theological and Ecclesiastical Contemporary History. issues and that the Lutheran scholastic doctrine of the law as God's eternal will remains a necessary concept for the contemporary church

Jacobs Philip Schaff, Henry Codman Potter, Samuel Macauley Jackson, 1907 Sober, Strict, and Scriptural Johan De Niet, Hermann Paul, Bart Walle, 2009 Calvinism's influence and reputation have received ample scholarly attention But how John Calvin himself his person character and deeds was remembered commemorated and memorialized is a question few historians have addressed Focussing on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries this volume aims to open up the subject with chapters on Calvin's monumentalization in statues and museums his appearance in novels children's books and travel writing his iconic function for Hungarian nationalists and Presbyterian missionaries to China his reputation among Mormons and freethinkers and his rivalry with Michael Servetus in French Protestant memory The result is a fresh contribution to the field of religious memory studies and an invitation to further comparative research Contributors include R Bryan Bademan Patrick Cabanel R Scott Clark Thomas J Davis Stephen S Francis Joe B Fulton Botond Gal Stefan Laube Johan de Niet Herman Paul James Rigney Michèle Sacquin Jonathan Seitz Robert Vosloo Bart Walle and Valentine Zuber

The Megachurch and the Mainline Stephen Ellingson, 2008-09-15 Religious traditions provide the stories and rituals that define the core values of church members Yet modern life in America can make those customs seem undesirable even impractical As a result many congregations refashion church traditions so they may remain powerful and salient How do these transformations occur How do clergy and worshipers negotiate which aspects should be preserved or discarded Focusing on the innovations of several mainline Protestant churches in the San Francisco Bay Area Stephen Ellingson's The Megachurch and the Mainline provides new understandings of the transformation of spiritual traditions For Ellingson these particular congregations typify a new type of Lutheranism one which combines the evangelical approaches that are embodied in the growing legion of megachurches with American society's emphasis on pragmatism and consumerism Here Ellingson provides vivid descriptions of congregations as they sacrifice hymns in favor of rock music and scrap traditional white robes and stoles for Hawaiian shirts while also making readers aware of the long history of similar attempts to Americanize the Lutheran tradition This is an important examination of a religion in flux one that speaks to the growing popularity of evangelicalism in America

Denomination Paul M. Collins, Barry A. Ensign-George, 2011-06-16 The term denomination is now widely used to describe a Christian community or church But what is a denomination In this highly creative collection of essays representatives of all major Christian traditions give an answer to this question What does the term mean in their own tradition And does that tradition understand itself to be a denomination If so what is that understanding of denomination and if not how does the tradition understand itself vis vis those churches which do and those churches which do not understand themselves as denominations In dialogue with the argument and ideas set forth in Barry Ensign George's essay each contributor offers a response from the perspective of a particular church tradition. Each essay also considers questions concerning the current landscape of ecumenical dialogue, ecumenical method, and the goals of the ecumenical movement, as well as questions of Christian identity and belonging. The Care of Souls Harold L.

Senkbeil, 2019-06-26 Drawing on a lifetime of pastoral experience, The Care of Souls is a beautifully written treasury of proven wisdom which pastors will find themselves turning to again and again. Harold Senkbeil helps remind pastors of the essential calling of the ministry: preaching and living out the Word of God while orienting others in the same direction. And he offers practical and fruitful advice born out of his five decades as a pastor that will benefit both new pastors and those with years in the pulpit. In a time when many churches have lost sight of the real purpose of the church, The Care of Souls invites a new generation of pastors to form the godly habits and practical wisdom needed to minister to the hearts and souls of those committed to their care.
