Confession And Complicity In Narrative:

Confession and Complicity in Narrative Dennis A. Foster, 1987-05-29 What is the precise relationship between the writer of a text and the reader Contributions to reader response theory have suggested that the reader is relatively passive In this 1987 text Professor Foster argues that the relationship is more complex than that readers enter into complicity with writers and create the illusion of the writer s mastery over meaning in order to imagine themselves as masters and become writers in their own place This dynamic model of the reading process is revealed most tellingly in confessional narratives and so Professor Foster explores the complex patterns of the reader writer symbiosis in texts by Augustine Kierkegaard Henry James Hawthorne Faulkner and Beckett What emerges is a fresh theory of reading literature the engagement between writer and reader as a struggle for power in which the reader is actively complicit and self conscious in his or her interpretations

Confession and Complicity in Narrative Structure Dennis A. Foster, 1982 Confession and Complicity in Narrative Structure Dennis A. Foster, 1982 Modern Confessional Writing Jo Gill, 2006 This collection of essays provides a critique of the popular and powerful genre of confessional writing Contributors discuss a range of poetry prose and drama including the work of John Berryman Anne Sexton Ted Hughes and Helen Fielding Confession Jeremy Tambling, 1990 Male Confessions Björn Krondorfer, 2009-12-03 Male Confessions examines how men open their intimate lives and thoughts to the public through confessional writing This book examines writings by St Augustine a Jewish ghetto policeman an imprisoned Nazi perpetrator and a gay American theologian that reflect sincere attempts at introspective and retrospective self investigation often triggered by some wounding or rupture and followed by a transformative experience Krondorfer takes seriously the vulnerability exposed in male self disclosure while offering a critique of the religious and gendered rhetoric employed in such discourse The religious imagination he argues allows men to talk about their intimate flawed and sinful selves without having to condemn themselves or to fear self erasure Herein lies the greatest promise of these confessions by baring their souls to judgment these writers may also transcend their self imprisonment Companion to Spanish Surrealism Robert Havard, 2004 A comprehensive introduction to Surrealism in Spain with focus on poetry art drama and film

Threshold Time Lene Johannessen, 2008 Threshold Time provides an introductory survey of the cultural social and political history of Mexican American and Chicano literature as well as a new in depth analyses of a selection of works that between them span a hundred years of this particular branch of American literature The book begins its explorations of the passage of crisis with Maria Amparo Ruiz de Burton s The Squatter and the Don continues with Americo Paredes George Washington Gomez Tomas Rivera s And the Earth Did Not Devour Him Richard Rodriguez s Hunger for Memory and ends with Helena Maria Viramontes Under the Feet of Jesus and Benjamin Alire Saenz Carry Me Like Water In order to do justice to the idiosyncrasies of the individual texts and the complexities they embrace the analyses refer to a number of other texts belonging to the tradition and draw on a wide range of theoretical approaches The final chapter of Threshold Time brings the various readings together in a discussion circumscribed by the negotiations of a temporality that is strongly aligned with a sense of memory peculiar to the history of the Chicano presence in the United States of America

Proustian Passions Ingrid Wassenaar, 2000

A la recherche du temps perdu occupies an undisputed place in the unfolding intellectual history of the moi in France There is however a general tendency in writing on this novel to celebrate the wonders of the moi sensible uncritically This effaces all that is morally dubious or frankly experimental about Proust's account of selfhood It denies the rigour with which Proust tries to understand exactly why it is so difficult to explain one's own actions to another The great party scenes for example or the countless digressions read like manuals on how acts of self justification take place Proust however is not merely interested in some kind of taxonomy of excuses hypocrisy disingenuousness and Schadenfreude He wants to know why self justification tends to be interpreted as indicative of moral or psychological weakness He asks himself whether self justification informs isolated moments of everyday existence or whether it endures in an overall conception of self that lasts an individual's lifetime He investigates whether it dictates the functioning of an entire social group Can we decide he asks whether justifying one's self should be written off as morally repugnant or taken seriously as evidence of moral probity

Victims and the Postmodern Narrative or Doing Violence to the Body Mark Ledbetter, 2016-07-27

Victims and the Postmodern Narrative suggests that reading and writing about literature are ways to gain an ethical understanding of how we live in the world Postmodern narrative is an important way to reveal and discuss

who are society's victims inviting the reader to become one with them A close reading of fiction by Toni Morrison Patrick Suskind D M Thomas Ian McEwan and J M Coetzee reveals a violence imposed on gender race and the body politic Such violence is not new to the postmodern world but merely reflects Western culture's religious traditions as the author demonstrates through a reading of stories from the Hebrew Bible and the Christian New Testament Unruly Penelopes and the Ghosts Eva Darias-Beautell, 2012-08-06 This collection of essays studies the cultural and literary contexts of narrative texts produced in English Canada over the last forty years It takes as its starting point the nationalist movement of the 1960s and 70s when the supposed absence or weakness of a national sense became the touchstone for official discourses on the cultural identity of the country That type of metaphor provided the nation with the distinctive elements it was looking for and contributed to the creation of a sense of tradition that has survived to the present In the decades following the 1970s however critics artists and writers have repeatedly questioned such a model of national identity still fragile and in need of articulation by reading the nation from alternative perspectives such as multiculturalism environmentalism neo regionalism feminism or postcolonialism These contributors suggest that the artistic and cultural flowering Canada is experiencing at the beginning of the twenty first century is to a great extent based on the dismantlement of the images constructed to represent the nation only forty years ago Through their readings of representative primary texts their contextual analysis and their selected methodological tools the authors offer a tapestry of alternative approaches to that process of dismantlement Together they read as an unruly Penelopiad their unravelling readings self consciously interrogating Canada's lack of ghosts

Timothy Findley and the Aesthetics of Fascism Anne Elizabeth Bailey, 1998 Investigates the troubling relationship between narrative meaning and representations of violence within Timothy Findley's novels Queer Gothic George E. Haggerty, 2006 George Haggerty examines the ways in which gothic fiction centers on loss as the foreclosure of homoerotic possibility and the relationship between transgressive sexual behaviors and a range of religious behaviors understood as Catholic Journal of Narrative Theory, 2000 Cultural studies critical theory poststructuralism feminist theory new historicism Complicity in Fin-de-siècle Literature Helen Craske, 2025-05-17 Complicity in Fin de si cle Literature examines late nineteenth century French understandings of literature as a morally collusive medium which implicates readers writers and critics in risqué or illicit ideas and behaviour It considers definitions of complicity from the period's evolving legal statutes critical debates about literary bad influence and modern theories of reader response in order to achieve a deeper understanding of how cultural production of the period forged relationships of implication and collusion While focusing on fin de si cle French culture the book's theoretical discussions provide a new terminology and conceptual framework through which to analyse literary influence and reception applicable to different historical periods and national settings Interdisciplinary in nature the study draws on methods associated with close reading literary history law and literature studies cultural studies and sociology of literature Each of the book's chapters highlights how particular literary themes or techniques encouraged readers identification with transgression and facilitated alternative forms of solidarity The analysis draws on a range of case studies from different media forms including Naturalist Decadent and psychological novels biographically revealing fiction romans clef little magazines petites revues and saucy magazines revues l g res Texts written by well known literary figures such as mile Zola Octave Mirbeau and Rachilde appear alongside previously overlooked periodical and archival sources The book s varied corpus reveals the widespread appeal of risqu topics and illicit solidarity across the literary spectrum

Marcel Proust Harold Bloom,2004 A collection of essays written by various scholars critically analyzing the life and works of French author Marcel Proust Includes analyses of characters themes and symbolism in Proust s major works Also contains an annotated bibliography that can be used for finding further information

The Confessions of Saint Augustine Richard Severson,1996-11-25 The modern scholarly verdict about the Confessions has been nothing short of sensational This work documents the story of 20th century criticism and praise for Augustine s classic an ancient text that has grown in stature like few other Western classics Disciplines such as psychology literature and religion plus many others all claim it as their own The first chapter of this study puts modern Confessions scholarship into historical context The other chapters are devoted to autobiographical studies literary influences philosophical interpretations psychology spirituality and theological themes Of interest to scholars and students in many disciplines At the end of the 19th century a new critical spirit of inquiry and scholarship helped to change how we think about religious texts The new criticism uncovered problems with Augustine s Confessions he may have dramatized events concerning his conversion to Christianity for example Yet this work has proved to be relevant in the 20th century like few other ancient texts That such variegated attention has been devoted to it is testimony to Augustine s enduring legacy His stature in Western civilization is of the first order comparable to Homer and Virgil Plato and Aristotle Moses and Paul
