Agents Unto Ourselves:

Terms of Salvation Grant H. Layton, 2013-07 Why are there so many competing Christian churches in the world today It is because men interpret the same passage of scripture and its terms in different ways If there ever is to be a unity in Christianity it will require a unity of understanding the scriptures It is our personal challenge in life to discover the truth of things For all of us the truth in religion isn't necessarily what we expect or want to find But for those of us who will accept truth when we find it in the scriptures it will be found in the definitions of the terms of salvation that are used consistently by the prophets We find on examination that the terms of salvation in the Bible are fairly consistent in meaning throughout the book even though the Bible was written by many different Prophets The Mormon religion claims to possess other books of scripture This book also compares what is written in their books against what is written in the Bible with very interesting results The reader from any religion will find this book a key to understanding the spirit of the Bible and the details of the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Old Testament Study Guide, Pt. 1 Randal S. Chase, 2010-12-01 Genesis to Numbers This volume is the first of three on the Old Testament It begins with a discussion of the importance of studying the Old Testament and the role of Jesus Christ in the Plan of Salvation and His selection as our Savior in the premortal council in heaven We read concerning the process of creation the placing of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden and their fall into mortality We learn briefly about Cain and Abel followed by brief discussions of all the patriarchs from Adam to Abraham Isaac and Jacob We follow the story of Joseph in Egypt followed by the migration of Jacob's family to that land for survival We read of the rise of Moses the Exodus and the events at Mt Sinai Then we study the rebellion of the children of Israel and their wandering in the wilderness for 40 years The cover features a beautiful image of Abraham's Journey from Ur to Canaan painted by Jozsef Molnar in 1880

Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God

O Wondrous Plan J. Peter Baumgarten, 2025-07-11 The idea of predestination which seems to have a scriptural basis is actually a Trojan horse While appearing to many to be a gift of grace it is actually full of deceptions and completely inconsistent to the plan of salvation holding that man has no free choice and that God has already selected a favored few of his children for salvation while committing the rest most of mankind to damnation regardless of merit To explore this subject with maximum clarity I will present the doctrine of predestination in sharp relief to the true doctrines of the wondrous plan of salvation for all mankind This presentation includes a detailed description of what the doctrine consists of it s origin and history the scriptural authority referenced to support the doctrine its implications and a discussion of how and why the idea of predestination is inconsistent and at odds with the gospel of Jesus Christ To better introduce this subject I begin the first chapter of this book with a personal experience an experience that heightened my own awareness of the issue

Becoming an Agent Larry Cochran, Joan Laub, 1994-01-01 This book is about individuals who have made dramatic changes in their lives In the beginning these people were living as patients or victims of circumstance In the end they were living as agents free to shape the courses of their lives to choose set goals plan to make things happen rather than to experience life as events happening to them The authors describe what is involved in such remarkable transformations They identify a common structure of transformation involving four distinguishable phases They also clarify a progressive dialectic between living the plot of a patient and living the plot of an agent and show how an old plot is destroyed or deconstructed and a new plot is constructed *Angelology.
