spiritual master Henri Nouwen's principles of aging and his approaches to caring for older people an interview study on elders spirituality and the changes manifested in their views of religion Religion Spirituality and Aging is a remarkable reminder that elders are our future selves This erudite well reasoned examination of aging and spirituality from a social work perspective is crucial reading for social workers human service professionals who work with the aged and gerontology scholars

Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Robert H. Binstock, Linda K. George, Stephen J. Cutler, Jon Hendricks, James H. Schulz, 2011-05-05 The Handbook of Aging and the Social Sciences Sixth Edition provides a comprehensive summary and evaluation of recent research on the social aspects of aging The 25 chapters are divided into four sections discussing Aging and Time Aging and Social Structure Social Factors and Social Institutions and Aging and Society Within this context aging is examined from the perspectives of many disciplines and professions including anthropology bioethics demography economics epidemiology law political science psychology and sociology The Sixth Edition of the Handbook is virtually 100% new material Seventeen chapters are on subjects not carried in the previous edition Seven topics were carried over from the previous edition but written by new authors with fresh perspectives and brought up to date Some of the exciting new topics include social relationships in late life technological change and aging religion and aging lifestyle and aging perceived quality of life economic security in retirement and aging and the law There is also a greater emphasis on international perspectives particularly in chapters on aging and politics diversity and aging and immigration The Handbook will be of use to researchers and professional practitioners working with the aged It is also suitable for use as a course text for graduate and advanced undergraduate courses on aging and the social sciences

Methods in Religion, Spirituality & Aging James W. Ellor, 2013-10-18 Since the 1971 White House Conference on Aging in the United States the need to move from religiosity into new areas such as Spiritual Assessment and Spirituality has emerged This movement has picked up momentum among scholars particularly in terms of research in the area of Spirituality While spirituality as a term is employed in many new studies this term continues to defy the quest for a single definition and method This book is divided into three sections In the first the authors reflect on the philosophical and theological issues presented by these terms from a variety of both cognate and practical methodological approaches The second section offers insights from the major professions of sociology psychology public health nursing and social work The final section offers insight and assistance to researchers and authors on specific religious traditions This book will be important for anyone working to develop such practical tools as spiritual assessment forms to those who engage in more formal scholarly investigation

Aging, Spirituality and Palliative Care Rev Elizabeth Mackinley, 2006-10-24 Gain greater depth of understanding of end of life spiritual issues for older adults The period of time when a person approaches death is always difficult both for the patient and the caregiver Aging Spirituality and Palliative Care discusses best practices in aged and palliative care while addressing patients diverse spiritual

Religious Influences on Health and Well-Being in the Elderly K. Warner Schaie, PhD, Neal

Krause, PhD, Alan Booth, PhD, 2004-06-15 What makes the book's approach so captivating is that each chapter is written by a different researcher in the study of religion and health. These researchers are responsible for significant portions of the existing literature and methodologies found in this field today. The versatility of the book warrants special mention. It is effective as a survey of work that has already been done on this topic. At the same time, it serves as a wellspring of ideas for new research. This work makes a valuable contribution to the present understanding of research on religion and health. It also serves as a road map to help chart directions for future endeavors in the field.

Sociology of Religion This volume focuses on the ways in which religious institutions, religious practices, and religious organizations impact the health and well-being of older persons. Topics examined include the conceptualization and measurement of religion in late life, the relationship between religious coping and possible stress reduction, the role of forgiveness as an alternate mediator, how social class, gender, and race can influence the specific effect of religion, and religious institutions in a diverse aging society. Contributors include L. Chatters, K. Ferraro, L. K. George, E. Idler, S. McFadden, and K. Meador.

Ageing and Spirituality Across Faiths and Cultures Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2010 This book examines ageing in the context of the many faiths and cultures that make up Western society and provides carers with the knowledge they need to deliver appropriate care to people of all faiths. Chapters are written by authoritative figures from each of the world's major faith groups about the beliefs and practices of their older people.

Spiritual Growth and Care in the Fourth Age of Life Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2006-02-08 This book explores the spiritual dimension of ageing and investigates the role of pastoral and spiritual care in helping the frail elderly cope with end-of-life issues. Focusing on the experience of nursing home residents and anecdotes gathered in interviews, MacKinlay sensitively presents the struggles facing older people in need of care.

Ageing, Disability and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2008-02-15 This collection examines theological and ethical issues of ageing, disability, and spirituality with an emphasis on how ageing affects people who have mental health and developmental disabilities. The book presents ways of moving towards more effective relationships between carers and older people with disabilities.

Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly. By 2030, 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well-being. Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach, instead presenting a step-by-step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation. This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations, both large and small, to create a focused older adult ministry. No two congregations are alike. The resources, perspectives, and skills of each congregation are different, as are the needs of its members. Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition. The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries

Aging Together Susan H. McFadden, John T. McFadden, 2014-03-15 Drawing on medicine social science philosophy and religion to provide a broad perspective on aging Aging Together offers a vision of relationships filled with love joy and hope in the face of a condition that all too often elicits anxiety hopelessness and despair

Palliative Care, Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2012-02-15 This sensitive and compassionate book provides older people who are nearing the end of life and their loved ones as well as the professionals who work with them with a greater depth of understanding of spiritual issues surrounding death and dying

Oxford Textbook of Spirituality in Healthcare Mark Cobb, Christina Puchalski, Bruce Rumbold, 2012-08-09 The relationship between spirituality and healthcare is historical intellectual and practical and it has now emerged as a significant field in health research healthcare policy and clinical practice and training Understanding health and wellbeing requires addressing spiritual and existential issues and healthcare is therefore challenged to respond to the ways spirituality is experienced and expressed in illness suffering healing and loss If healthcare has compassionate regard for the humanity of those it serves it is faced with questions about how it understands and interprets spirituality what resources it should make available and how these are organised and the ways in which spirituality shapes and informs the purpose and practice of healthcare These questions are the basis for this resource which presents a coherent field of enquiry discussion and debate that is interdisciplinary international and vibrant There is a growing corpus of articles in medical and healthcare journals on spirituality in addition to a wide range of literature but there has been no attempt so far to publish a standard text on this subject Spirituality in Healthcare is an authoritative reference on the subject providing unequalled coverage critical depth and an integrated source of key topics Divided into six sections including practice research policy and training the project brings together international contributions from scholars in the field to provide a unique and stimulating resource
