Agrarian Problems And Peasant Movements In Latin America:

Agrarian Problems and Peasant Movements in Latin America Rodolfo Stavenhagen, 1970 Agrarian Problems and Peasant Movements in Latin America Rodolfo Stavenhagen, 1970 The agrarian population of Latin America includes some 100 million of the world's most oppressed people. These people are the victims of a rigid stratification system which has existed in that continent for centuries. There has been much talk in recent years about land reform in Latin America but few analysts have come to grips with the fact that effective reform must involve revolutionary institutional change not simply modernization of agricultural techniques. In an attempt to explore all the ramifications of this vital subject Rodolfo Stavenhagen has collected papers by anthropologists, economists, political scientists and sociologists. The author of the selections represent a wide range of nationality including Latin American, North American and European. Many of the selections appear here in English for the first time and several are original contributions to this volume. Back cover

Agrarian Problems and Peasant Movement in Latin America Rodolfo Stavenhagen, 1970 The Agrarian Question and Reformism in Latin America Alain de Janvry, 1981-12-01 The Agrarian Question and Reformism in Latin America epitomizes the emerging tradition of conflict oriented approaches to problems of economic, agricultural and rural development in Third World nations. Drawing on firsthand observations of the agrarian crises in Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Peru and ten other Latin American nations, Alain de Janvry effectively blends Marxist theories of world wide economic development with empirical analysis and policy recommendations. De Janvry offers both a careful examination of the conditions of underdevelopment in Latin America and detailed discussions of the achievements and limits of technological change, land reform, integrated rural development and basic needs program. The Agrarian Question and Reformism in Latin America is written for both practitioners and academicians. Students of economic development will benefit especially from its intelligent explication of conflict oriented theory and technique. Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization Saturnino M. Borras, Jr., Marc Edelman, Cristóbal Kay, 2009-02-23 Readers of this book will encounter peasants and farmers who struggle at home and traverse national borders to challenge the World Trade Organization and other powerful global institutions. Studies the activists in Brazil who uproot plots of genetically modified soybeans, forest dwellers in Indonesia who chop down rubber plantations to cultivate rice to feed their families, runaway villages in China that take up arms to resist corrupt officials and Mexican migrants who, having exited in desperation, return from abroad to transform their communities. Little known transnational agrarian movements of the early twentieth century share the stage with more recent high profile global alliances such as Vía Campesina. Celebrates a dynamic sector of international civil society and tackles the thorny questions of successes and failures, ethical and political dilemmas, troubled alliances with NGOs, protest repertoires and representation claims. Analyzes contemporary collective action in all its complexity, acknowledging ambiguities and contradictions, posing challenging questions and providing concrete strategies for scholars and activists. The Oxford Handbook of Latin American

Organizations and the State in Latin America Anthony Bebbington, Graham Thiele, 2023-06-16 This presents twenty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation initiated by NGOs in Latin America Beginning with a broad review of institutional activity at the grassroots the authors set the case material within the context of NGO relations with the State and their contribution to democratisation and the consolidation of rural civil society Specific questions are raised how good bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in present agriculture how effective are NGOs at strengthening grassroots organizations and how do will donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State This title is part of a series on Non Governmental Organizations co ordinated by the Overseas Development Institute To complete this comprehensive review and critique there are two other regional case study volumes on Asia and Africa and an overview volume Reluctant Partners Imperialism and Capitalism in the Twenty-First Century James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, Humberto Márquez, 2016-05-13 We live in a time of dynamic but generally regressive regime change a period in which major political transformations and a rollback of a half century of legislation are accelerated under conditions of a prolonged and deepening economic crisis and a worldwide offensive against the citizenry and the working class Written by two of the world s leading left wing thinkers Imperialism and Capitalism in the Twenty First Century takes the form of a number of analytical probes into some of the dynamics of capitalist development and imperialism in contemporary conditions of a system in crisis It is too early to be definitive about the form that capitalism and imperialism and socialism might be or is taking as we are in but the early stages of a new developmental dynamic the conditions of which are too complex to anticipate or grasp in thought they require a closer look and much further study from a critical development and Marxist perspective The purpose of this book is to advance this process and give some form to this perspective The Latin American Revolutionary Movement Marc Becker, 2023-07-31 This volume collects the proceedings of the First Latin American Communist Conference organized in Buenos Aires Argentina in June 1929 by the South American Secretariat of the Moscow based Communist International Comintern The Conference was the first and in some ways only opportunity that communists in Latin America had to engage in a broad discussion of the most important problems and challenges that they faced The topics that the assembled delegates addressed including militarism anti imperialism trade union issues and racial discrimination were all central to the question of how to organise a strong revolutionary movement This major documentary collection of the Latin American Communist movement newly translated into English and with a substantial introduction remains surprisingly relevant to our world today With an introduction by Victor Jeifets and Lazar Jeifets Rural Transformations and Development - China in Context Norman Long, Jingzhong Ye, Yihuan Wang, 2010-01-01 Rural Transformations and Development China in Context is a thoughtful book in both senses penetrating and packed with ideas True to its title it takes the reader through the main socio economic and political changes of Chinese rural society The book brings together a selected group of authoritative international experts on agricultural development with particular reference to China It is a good read for everyone and an eminently recommendable text for professionals and students interested in issues of China s rural change Peter Ho University of Groningen The Netherlands This is an insightful and excellent theoretical and empirical collection about China s contemporary agrarian transformation critically studied not in isolation from either the urban sector or the broader world but in relation to these It is a must read for academics and development policy practitioners who are interested in agrarian and development issues in China in particular and the world more generally Saturnino M Borras Jr Saint Mary s University Canada Bringing together contributions by some of the leading Western scholars working on paths of rural transformation with studies by their counterparts in China this book examines the value of contemporary development theories for understanding the specificities of China s trajectory of change It is a first class contribution both to Modern China studies and to the renaissance of international research on agrarian change that is now going on It deserves a wide readership John Harriss Simon Fraser University at Vancouver Canada Interesting comparative perspectives are coupled to extensive on the ground research in this exploration of the vast changes underway in China s villages This book by 19 specialists pushes forward our knowledge of the circumstances and challenges faced by an eighth of humankind Jonathan Unger Australian National University This unique book explores the varied perspectives on contemporary processes of rural transformation and policy intervention in China The expert contributors combine a critical review of current theoretical viewpoints and global debates with a series of case studies that document the specificities of China s pathways to change Central issues focus on the dynamics of state peasant encounters the diversification of labour and livelihoods out migration and the blurring of rural and urban scenarios the significance of issues of value and capital and their gender implications land ownership and sustainable resource management struggles between administrative cadres and local actors and the dilemmas of participatory development Rural Transformations and Development China in Context will prove a fascinating and stimulating read for academics and researchers in the areas of Asian studies development and agriculture and public policy

Peasants and Proletarians Robin Cohen, Peter C. W. Gutkind, Phyllis Brazier, 2023-07-07 Originally published in 1979 this book examines differing forms of international interracial working class action and the relationship between workers struggles in the periphery and those in advanced capitalist countries It analyses the nature of class alliances forged in the countryside and the urban sprawls of the developing world among workers students and the unemployed The volume draws on theoretical debates and detailed empirical studies dealing with a wide range of countries in Asia Latin America Africa and the Caribbean Each of the sections is preceded by a linking editorial comment and the editors also provide an introductory overview Reviews of the original edition of Peasants and Proletarians This is an important book both for historians and for social scientists It draws attention to a previously underestimated labour force that has grown into a significant indeed indispensable part of the international economic structure Lynda Shaffer Journal of Asian Studies 39 4 1980 This book offers a truly impressive and solid compilation of material on labour in the Third World The sheer range of scholarship concerning many different types of workers over a timescale of nearly 100 years in countries and political situations as various for example as Lagos in the 1890s Jamaica in the 1930s and socialist Algeria or Chile under Allende is sometimes bewildering but never fails to stimulate and absorb the reader Paul Kennedy Journal of Modern African Studies 19 4 1981 Peasants and Proletarians is a very major contribution The editors introduction though brief successfully raises many of these issues and outlines an approach to them The twenty one readings concerned with early forms of resistance rural workers strategies of working class action migrant workers in advanced capitalist states and contemporary struggles offer geographical and intellectual breadth in their exploration of the diversity of Third World experience Joel Samoff ASA Review of Books Vol 6 1980

Development and the Environmental Crisis Michael Redclift, 2010-11-26 First published in 1984 Michael Redclift's book makes the global environmental crisis a central concern of political economy and its structural causes a central concern of environmentalism Michael Redclift argues that a close analysis of the environmental crisis in the South reveals the importance of the share of resources obtained by different social groups The development strategies based on the experiences and interests of Western capitalist countries fail to recognise that environmental degradation in the South is a product of inequalities in both global and local economic relations and cannot be solved simply by applying solutions borrowed from environmentalism in the North The key to understanding the South's environmental problems lies in the recognition that structural processes markets technology state intervention are also a determining influence upon the way natural resources are used Through his review of Europe's Green Movement contemporary breakthroughs in biotechnology and information systems and recent feminist discourse Michael Redclift has enlarged the compass of the environmental debate and produced a book which should serve as a benchmark in future discussions of development and the environment It will be of importance to students in a range of disciplines within development studies geography ecology and the social sciences
