Agroindustrial Investment And Operations:

Agroindustrial Investment and Operations James G. Brown, 1994 Identifying developing and servicing markets The selection and evaluation of processing options Raw material supply Financial analysis of agroindustrial investments Managing the agroindustrial enterprise Socioeconomic evaluation of agroindustries Producer Organisations Chris Penrose-Buckley, 2007 The book provides step by step guidance for development practitioners managers and all those interested in how development organisations can help small scale producers build effective collective businesses

Territorial tools for agro-industry development Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-08-09 This sourcebook appraises these instruments and considers their nature and objectives their potential benefits and challenges and the approaches used to implement them It also examines the practices that have led to both successful and unsuccessful outcomes The publication provides a comprehensive review of the potential of these tools to enhance value addition deliver jobs increase exports and provide markets for new and existing producers in the targeted territories It notes however that implementation of these tools poses a number of challenges For example planners and practitioners sometimes use them interchangeably thus ignoring the specificities of the investments policies and processes required and their expected outcomes The sourcebook concludes that these tools have potential for catalytic impact but planners need to make sound choices that respect demonstrated principles and follow good practices for effective design and implementation

The U.S. Presence in Mexico's Agribusiness Christine Bolling, United States. Department of Agriculture. Economic Research Service, 1994 Policies for Agroindustrial Development Latin America and the Caribbean, 1990 Agricultural Transformation Centres in Africa - Practical guidance to promote inclusive agro-industrial development Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-03-14 Over the next ten years the African rural space will be the theatre of profound changes as the activities envisaged for agricultural transformation are drastically scaled up Increased food demand and changing consumption habits driven by demographic factors such as population growth and urbanization are already leading to a rapid increase of net food imports opening a huge opportunity for the agribusiness sector of many African countries Against this backdrop and in line with its mission to spur sustainable economic development and social progress the African Development Bank AfDB in 2016 launched Feed Africa a strategy that is intended to contribute substantially to the transformation of African agriculture by 2025 and to reverse Africa's dependence on imported foods As part of this strategy AfDB is promoting the concept of staple crops processing zones SCPZs which are agrobased spatial development initiatives designed to concentrate agro processing activities within areas of high agricultural potential to boost productivity and integrate the production processing and marketing of selected commodities As essential components SCPZs include an agro processing hub a number of agricultural transformation centres ATCs and agricultural production areas The ATCs are designed to link smallholder farmers to the agro processing hub and are strategically located in high production areas with the aim of serving as aggregation points to accumulate products from the community to supply the hub for further value addition or to send them to centres of great demand for distribution and retail to consumers This study has attempted to assess the feasibility and applicability of the ATC concept to selected regions in Zambia Cote d'Ivoire and the United Republic of Tanzania Findings from the field have demonstrated the potential of ATCs to address community needs and constraints for a range of selected value chains and have helped to identify different ATC models that could work in each specific context

Prioritization of types of investments: Operational tools for MCC agricultural investments Laborde Debucquet, David, Parent, Marie, Piñeiro, Valeria, 2021-11-24 This report answers the question What guidelines can be used to identify the types of agricultural investments that have the highest economic return where agriculture is broadly defined to include primary production handling storage transportation distribution processing and retailing Using the literature and MCC's ERR analyses we explain how agricultural investments fit in a wider development context identify information useful to MCC's decision making that is not provided by the ERR analyses and suggest IFPRI tools for exploratory and ex ante evaluative analysis that MCC can use in their decision making process

Agribusiness Management Freddie L. Barnard, John Foltz, Elizabeth A. Yeager, 2016-03-10 Today's food and agribusiness managers operate in a rapidly changing highly volatile international high technology consumer focused world Agribusiness Management helps prepare students and managers for a successful career in this new world of food and fiber production and marketing This text uses four specific approaches to help readers develop and enhance their capabilities as agribusiness managers First it offers a contemporary focus that reflects the issues that agribusiness managers face today and are likely to face tomorrow Second the book presents conceptual material in a pragmatic way with illustrations and examples that will help the reader understand how a specific concept works in practice Third the book has a decision making emphasis providing contemporary tools that readers will find useful when making decisions in the contemporary business environment Finally Agribusiness Management offers a pertinent set of discussion questions and case studies that will allow the reader to apply the material covered in real world situations This fifth edition of Agribusiness Management has been updated throughout and continues to provide students and adult learners with an essential understanding of what it takes to be a successful agribusiness manager in today's rapidly evolving highly unpredictable marketplace

The Multi-level Perspectives Of Agribusiness Walter Amedzro St-hilaire, 2018-05-25 What are the business configurations in an agribusiness system Is not the power likely to focus on a restricted number of big manufacturers and on a much more limited number of distributors How to design the future role of the SME and producers The book identifies the challenges of modern agribusiness in their globalities The author anticipates stakeholder strategies and addresses socio economic political and management challenges the changing environment of Agribusiness the sectoral structure challenges and the requirements for successful execution of Agriproduction or changing strategies for existing the food distributors as well as provides some recommendations Globally The Multi Level Perspectives of Agribusiness is a guide to sectoral perspectives knowledge for the future leaders of Agribusiness It brings us to understand that the attraction of investors is not due to the typical averages of the sector but to the characteristics of its specific actors The winners are the well informed companies in this sector which the Competitive Intelligence Approach and Industrial Planning make the difference Growth and Productivity in Agriculture and Agribusiness ,2011 The report assesses the World Bank Group s support for growth and productivity in the agriculture sector Enhancing agricultural growth and productivity is essential to meeting the worldwide demand for food and to reducing poverty particularly in the poorest developing countries Between 1998 and 2008 the period covered by this evaluation the World Bank Group WBG provided 23 7 billion in financing for agriculture and agribusiness in 108 countries roughly 8 percent of total WBG financing spanning areas from irrigation and marketing to research and extension However this was a time of declining focus on agricultural growth and productivity by both countries and donors The cost of inadequate attention to agriculture especially in agriculture based economies came into focus with the food crisis of 2007 08 The crisis added momentum to an emerging renewal of attention and stepped up financing to agriculture and agribusiness at the World Bank and International Finance Corporation IFC as well as at several multilateral and bilateral agencies World Bank financing rose two and a half times from 2008 to 2009 though that increase in lending seems to have been accompanied by a decline in analytical work which this review finds valuable for results This evaluation seeks to provide lessons from successes and failures to help improve the development impact of the renewed attention to the sector Ratings against the World Bank s stated objectives and IFC s market based benchmarks for agriculture and agribusiness projects have been equal to or above portfolio averages in East Asia Latin America and the transition economies in Europe with notable successes over a long period in China and India But performance of WBG interventions has been well below average in Sub Saharan Africa where IFC has had little engagement in agribusiness Inconsistent client commitment and weak capacity have limited the effectiveness of WBG support in agriculture based economies particularly in Sub Saharan Africa and constraints on staffing and internal coordination within the WBG have also hurt outcomes Financial sustainability has been constrained by insufficient government funding and the difficulty of maintaining agricultural services and infrastructure The WBG has a unique opportunity to match the increases in the financing for agriculture with sharper focus on improving agricultural growth and productivity in agriculture based economies notably in Sub Saharan Africa Greater effort will be needed to connect sectoral interventions and achieve synergies from public and private sector interventions to build capacity and knowledge exchange to take stock of experience in rain fed agriculture to ensure attention to financial sustainability and to cross cutting issues of gender environmental and social impacts and climate and to better integrate WBG support at the global and regional levels with that at the country level Development Co-operation Report 2016 The Sustainable Development Goals as Business Opportunities OECD,2016-07-18 The face of development has changed with diverse stakeholders involved and implicated in what are more and more seen as global and interlinked concerns At the same time there is an urgent need to mobilise unprecedented resources to achieve the ambitious Sustainable Development Goals Cooperatives in Agribusiness C. H. Kirkman,1981

Southern African Agribusiness Steven Jaffee,1999-01-01 Recent economic reforms and political changes within Southern Africa have opened up new opportunities for intra regional agricultural trade and other forms of agribusiness collaboration This collaboration is vital given the relatively small size of individual country markets and the fact that no single country in the region has the resources and capacity to mount a sustained drive to achieve international market prominence and competitiveness This study examines private sector perceptions regarding the agribusiness investment environment and the scope for regional collaboration in Southern Africa It then presents a series of case studies highlighting experiences in such collaboration as well as additional opportunities and constraints The case studies illustrate the varied forms that this intra regional collaboration has or could take including the transfer of technologies and management systems joint logistics and international marketing cross border investment product research and development human resource development raw material sourcing and regional trade in inputs and consumer products Both the agribusiness company survey and the industry case studies include recommendations for policymakers agribusiness managers representatives and agricultural and private sector development practitioners Proceedings of the Seminar on Agricultural Policy ,1975 Catalog of Publications World Bank Group,2000 Complete current catalog of all print and online journals and monographs
