Aging And Leisure Vitality In Later Life:

Aging and Leisure Michael L. Teague, Richard D. MacNeil, 1992 A Handbook of Leisure Studies C. Rojek, S. Shaw, A. Veal, 2006-06-20 A unique international resource for Leisure Studies in one volume the history organization and central debates in the field of Leisure Studies are defined providing a one stop shop for students and an agenda for future debate and research academics Leisure and Aging Heather Julie Gibson, Jerome F. Singleton, 2012 Leisure and Aging Theory and Practice provides students and professionals with a balanced perspective of current knowledge as it presents cutting edge research in both fields Supplemented by online ancillaries this text offers a wealth of knowledge on various aspects of life for older people and the role of leisure in their lives Tourism and Leisure Behaviour in an Ageing World Ian Patterson, 2017-12-21 Tourism and Leisure Behaviour in an Ageing World based on Ian Patterson s previously published Growing Older provides an overview of the latest research concerning tourist behaviour and leisure needs of baby boomers seniors and older adults With an increasingly ageing population industry interest has intensified and there has been a corresponding explosion in related research activity Aging Carole Bernstein Lewis, 2002-04-15 This classic textbook provides practitioners and students working in geriatric rehabilitation an interdisciplinary approach to the assessment and rehabilitative management of older persons Clinically focused the 4th edition reviews crucial information about the elderly people and suggests strategies for implementing practical rehabilitation goals in a variety of care settings Time Use Research in the Social Sciences Wendy E. Pentland, M. Powell Lawton, Andrew S. Harvey, Mary Ann McColl, 2007-05-08 Despite the fact that for most of us time is a central focus of our lives the examination of what we do with our time and why has received limited attention as a method for understanding human behavior in the social sciences Humans view and use of time shows tremendous variation including across cultures and with age lifestyle and gender For many of us a sense of time is ever present We speak of time as a commodity a resource an ally an enemy and a gift It maybe on our side on our hands with us or against us We perceive it to change speeds dragging vs flying vs standing still and lest it get away on us we attempt to harness and control it with clocks schedules and deadlines We describe our use of time in a myriad of ways we spend it save it waste it kill it give it take it and grab it The impetus for this book grew from a three day research symposium where established time use researchers from a variety of disciplines from Canada the United States Finland Australia and New Zealand gathered together to merge their knowledge and resources to collaborate in examining the relationship between human time utilization and health and well being We gratefully acknowledge the financial support for the symposium received from the Government of Canada s Program for International Research Linkages and M Powell Lawton without whose support and encouragement this book would likely not exist Ageing in Everyday Life Stephen Katz, 2019-10-09 Applying interdisciplinary perspectives about everyday life to vital issues in the lives of older people this book maps together the often taken for granted aspects of what it means to age in an ageist society Part of the Ageing in a Global Context series the two parts address the materialities and the embodiments of everyday life respectively Topics covered include household possessions public and private spaces older drivers media representations dementia care health tracking dress and sexuality This focus on micro sociological conditions allows us to rethink key questions which have shaped debates in the social aspects of ageing International contributions including from the UK USA Sweden and Canada provide a critical guide to inform thinking and planning our ageing futures
