Agricultural Research in an Era of Adjustment Steven R. Tabor, 1995-01-01 Where does theory lead us Structural adjustment and agriculture Structural adjustment and institutional change Learning from experience Managing the reform process Technical progress and structural change in OECD agriculture Policy conditionality in agricultural research projects Action planning adjustment and research system reform Structural and agricultural research summing up Transforming Agricultural Research Systems in Transition Economies Mohinder S. Mudahar, Robert William Jolly, Jitendra Srivastava, 1998-01-01 This report examines the current state of Russian agriculture and agricultural research systems It develops a conceptual framework for managing the transformation and rehabilitation of agricultural research systems in transition economies Chapters examine the strategic importance of agricultural research the status and importance of the agricultural sector the status of the agricultural knowledge system and challenges facing the system as well as ways to transform it This book is aimed toward agricultural scientists research administrators public officials and agricultural leaders interested in the transformation of agricultural research systems in the transition economies Impact of Foreign Assistance on Institutional Development of National Agricultural Research Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Gora Beye, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2002-01-01 This study is the analysis and assessment of foreign assistance provided by 36 agricultural research projects in seven selected countries of sub Saharan Africa It traces the evolution of national agricultural research systems NARS from independence to the present It highlights the development of the NARS with regard to infrastructure human resources and funding as a consequence of foreign assistance The constraints to NARS institutional development are identified and recommendations made Annual Report International Service for National Agricultural Research, 1995 Strengthening national programmes for plant genetic resources for food and agriculture, 1999 Agricultural Extension and Research Dennis Purcell, Jock R. Anderson, 1997-01-01 Environmentally Sustainable Development Studies and Monograph Series No 17 A 1995 publication from the World Bank Monitoring Environmental Progress A Report on Work in Progress generated great interest in the use of indicators to measure the pace and direction of change in environmentally sustainable development In particular the attempts to define what it means to be wealthy or poor by recognizing that a countrys wealth is the combination of various forms of capital produced natural and human resources led to new thinking on what constitutes wealth and how it might be measured The current document Expanding the Measure of Wealth Indicators of Environmentally Sustainable Development extends the earlier analysis by highlighting portfolio indicators for tracking a countrys progress toward sustainable development These include new estimates of national wealth and genuine savings a detailed analysis of changes in subsidies that have environmental consequences and progress on the conceptual foundations of social capital The new estimates reinforce the importance of the natural resource base of all economies as well as the fundamental role of human resources including both human capital and the more difficult to define concept of social capital

Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector's potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research
