Ahmad Al Mansur:

Ahmad al-Mansur Mercedes Garcia-Arenal, 2012-12-01 Sultan Ahmad al Mansur 1578 1603 was one of the most important rulers in the history of Morocco which to this day bears the mark of his twenty five year rule in the sixteenth century Though famed for his cunning diplomacy in the power struggle over the Mediterranean and his allegiance with Britain against Spain in the conquest for the newly discovered Americas he was more than a political and military tactician A descendent of the Prophet Muhammad himself al Mansur was a charismatic religious authority with ambitions to become Caliph and ruler of all Muslims Spanning four continents Dr Garcia Arenal places this fascinating figure in a context of political intrigue discovery and military conquest With insightful analysis a glossary and a guide to further reading this book is the ideal introduction to a multifaceted figure who fully deserves the epithet Maker of the Muslim World Ahmad

Al-Mansur Richard Lee Smith, 2006 This new entry into the Longman World Biography series examines a leading statesman who guided a key country during a pivotal time in history Al Mansur was a man of contradictions whose policies combined a vision of the future with a longing for the past by building one state he destroyed another E.J. Brill's First Encyclopaedia of Islam E. J. Brill, 1993 The Librarian's Atlas Seth Kimmel, 2024-05-06 A history of early modern libraries and the imperial desire for total knowledge Medieval scholars imagined the library as a microcosm of the world but as novel early modern ways of managing information facilitated empire in both the New and Old Worlds the world became a projection of the library In The Librarian's Atlas Seth Kimmel offers a sweeping material history of how the desire to catalog books coincided in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries with the aspiration to control territory Through a careful study of library culture in Spain and Morocco close readings of catalogs marginalia indexes commentaries and maps Kimmel reveals how the booklover's dream of a comprehensive and well organized library shaped an expanded sense of the world itself

The Foreign Relations of Elizabeth I C. Beem, 2011-04-11 This edited volume brings together a collection of provocative essays examining a number of different facets of Elizabethan foreign affairs encompassing England and The British Isles Europe and the dynamic civilization of Islam As an entirely domestic queen who never physically left her realm Elizabeth I cast an inordinately wide shadow in the world around her The essays in this volume collectively reveal a queen and her kingdom much more connected and integrated into a much wider world than usually discussed in conventional studies of Elizabethan foreign affairs Muslim traders, Songhay warriors and the Arma Holst, Christian, 2016 This book looks into the interplay between different social groups that existed on the Middle Niger Bend between 1549 to 1660 The groups mainly under scrutiny are Muslim traders and scholars the Ulema and the worldly lords that ran the polities that had laid claim to the region of the Middle Niger Bend first the Askayas then the Arma The changing relationships between these different groups and of individuals within them are analysed within the wider historical background of the rise and fall of the Songhay Empire and the subsequent takeover of the region by the Moroccan Arma that had conquered the heart of the Middle Niger Bend in 1591 This work explores the interaction between the groups through the framework of honour religion and ancestry and traces the initially successful cooperation between rulers traders and scholars to its breakdown and the final social disintegration of the Middle Niger Bend Britain and the Islamic World, 1558-1713 Gerald MacLean, Nabil Matar, 2011-05-26 Explores the interactions between Britain and the Islamic world from 1558 to 1713 showing how much scholars diplomats traders captives travellers clerics and chroniclers were involved in developing and describing those interactions Islam John Tolan, 2025-05-13 A concise new narrative history of Islam that draws on the transformative insights of recent research to emphasize the diversity and dynamism of the tradition Today's Muslim world is in upheaval legalists and mystics engage in intense debates radical groups invoke Sharia Muslim immigrants in the West face prejudice and discrimination and Muslim feminists advocate new interpretations of the Koran At the same time Islam is mischaracterized as unitary and unchanging by people ranging from right wing Western politicians claiming that Islam is incompatible with democracy to conservative Muslims dreaming of returning to the golden age of the prophet Against this contentious backdrop this book provides an essential and timely new history of the religion in all its astonishing richness and diversity as it has been practiced by Muslims around the world from seventh century Mecca to today Most popular histories of Islam continue to repeat conventional pietistic accounts In contrast John Tolan draws on decades of new historical research that has transformed knowledge of the origins and development of the Muslim faith He shows how the youngest of the three great monotheisms arose in close contact with Jewish Christian and other religious traditions in a mixture of cultures including Arab Greek Persian and Turkish how Islam spread across an enormous territory encompassing hundreds of languages and cultures how Muslims have forged widely different beliefs and practices over fourteen centuries and how Islamic history provides crucial context for understanding contemporary debates in the Muslim world At a time when much talk about Islam is filled with misunderstanding stereotypes and bias this book provides a fresh and lucid portrait of the continuous and ongoing transformations of a religion of tremendous variety and complexity Ethical Issues in Human Stem Cell Research: Commissioned papers United States. National Bioethics Advisory Commission, 2000 Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 A History of the Maghrib in the Islamic Period Jamil M. Abun-Nasr, 1987-08-20 Building on the two previous editions of his History of the Maghrib Professor Abun Nasr has written a completely new history of North Africa within the Islamic period which begins with the Arab conquest and brings the story up to the present day He emphasises the factors which led to the adoption of Islam by practically the entire population the geographical position of the area which made it the main trade link between the Mediterranean world and the Sudan and led to its involvement in the confrontation between the Christian and Islamic worlds In Morocco this confrontation led to the emergence of a distinct religio political community ruled by sharifian dynasties and in the rest of the Maghrib to integration in the Ottoman empire The political and economic developments of the piratical regencies of Algeria Tunisia and Libya the establishment of European colonial rule the nationalist movements and Islamic religious reform are all treated in detail The balance between factual account and interpretation makes the book especially useful to students of African and Islamic history The West and Islam Mishal Fahm al-Sulami,2004-06 This book analyzes the relationship between Western and Islamic political ideas The focus is on the similarities and differences between Western liberal democracy and shura often seen as the Islamic counterpart to Western democracy This is the first work to provide a direct and detailed comparison between the two systems of ideas as given expression in the concrete political systems which have emerged Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri,2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization
