Ahoy Uncle Roy:

Ahoy, Uncle Roy! Sarah Albee, 2001 Although it makes his parents a little uneasy Walter's favorite person is his Uncle Roy a pirate The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 2002 The Cuban Club Barry Gifford, 2017-10-24 A masterpiece of mood and setting character and remembrance The Cuban Club is Barry Gifford's ultimate coming of age story told as sixty four linked tales a creation myth of The Fall as seen through the eyes of an innocent boy on the cusp of becoming an innocent man Set in Chicago in the 1950s and early 60s against the backdrop of small time hoodlums in the Chicago mob and the girls and women attached to them there is the nearness of heinous crimes and the price to be paid for them To Roy and his friends these twists and tragedies drift by like curious flotsam The tales themselves are koan like often ending in questions with rarely a conclusion One story a letter from Roy to his father four years after his father's death is written as if the older man were still alive Indeed throughout The Cuban Club Roy is in some doubt whether divorce or even death really exists in a world where everything seems so alive and connected Barry Gifford has been writing his Roy stories on and off for over thirty years and earlier Roy stories have been published in Wyoming Memories from a Sinking Ship and The Roy Stories But it is in The Cuban Club that he brings the form he has created in these stories to its crystallization Indeed to find precedents for The Cuban Club we must look not to other story collections but to other creation myths to Gilgamesh or the Old Testament or Eduardo Galeano's Memory of Fire trilogy Roy's age here wends back and forth between six and nineteen and back to twelve He sees with the ageless eyes of a seer and knows not to judge the good or the bad in circumstances or people or even to question why things are as they are instead gathering to himself the romance of a world that teeters on catastrophe always even as it abounds in saving graces Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction, 2003 American Book Publishing Record, 2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001-08 Children's Book Review Index Gary C. Tarbert, 2003 Television Age, 1958 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 Secrets of Mystery Island John Snellings, 2020-12-30 During the eighteenth century many men died young trying to provide for their families Working on merchant ships was a common way of life Sailors took all the risks while the merchants claimed the profits Grandpa wanted a better way of life for his family He bought a seaworthy 150 foot galleon to start his own business With a crew of thirty nine comprised entirely of family members he chose to sail to uncharted islands in search of trade items Tribute is given to all females Special ceremonies are created to honor them The young women mature both mentally and physically Even the little girls seem to know things the men do not On the voyage into the uncertain coconuts bananas spices nuts oysters and many other trade items were gathered A not so friendly meeting with a band of pirates hinted that there might be buried treasure on the island With the help of friendly dolphins a treasure is uncovered The crew of the Samtilla witness a strange light floating over a bog at night and a cave that hums Old sea tails are told and some seem to come true when believed in strong enough Hazards and tense moments await the crew Mystery and near tragedy occurs throughout the voyage Children's Books in Print, 2007 from the Story It was the morning of their fourth day at sea and Nathan awakened suddenly sat up something was different He threw on a few clothes and ran out on deck It didnt take long to figure out what was different The Catherine Ross was running with full sail aloft filled by a strong gale and Captain Stuart was making good use of the wind while it lasted Thus far the passengers had been spared the usual scourge of new seafarers seasickness However on the fifth day it caught up with Reverend Wolde The cook took charge fed him special food and said it would run its course in a day or so However Nathan was not reassured and felt certain he would be buried at sea Two days later hed made it out on deck with his wife and was enjoying the fresh air when a call came from the Crows Nest Ship Ahoy Well now this was something new and they quickly scanned the horizon But there was nothing there to see A crew member who saw them looking walked over and said nothing would be visible from deck level until late the next day That evening Ian said it might be the MacTavish clipper Anne Ross bound for Newfoundland but they would have to wait until the two ships got closer to be sure Nathan and Mary Catherine were sitting underneath their hammocks discussing the events of the day Nathan dont you think its a bit odd for two ships to meet in the middle of the ocean like this I doubt the Captains just want to say howdy to each other I believe theres more to it Well my dear Nathan replied I know you pretty well Youre not thinking its some sort of conspiracy so it must be one of your premonitions All right Mary Catherine lets hear it Its the weather Nathan The other Captain is going to warn us were sailing into a storm The carriages stopped on top of a hill overlooking the Firth of Tay and the family got out to look Directly opposite them atop a high bluff was The Barony Mary Catherine gasped Oh my God Nathan surely that cant be where were going can it I believe thats got to be your fathers place my dear Youre almost home now She grabbed the front of his coat with both hands and shook him Reverend Wolde that is not my home My home is across that ocean in the mountains of Virginia where I live happily with my family Look at me Nathan help me I cant do this alone She believed him to be sleeping in his chair but the Baron heard the door close and stood on trembling leg Father was all she got out before the tears came and she was folded into his arms My beautiful daughter how lovely you are If only your mother could see you now he sobbed
