This Ain't No Lie Jackie S. Fisher, 2024-01-15 About the Book Jackie S Fisher shares the story of her husband Carrol Lee Fisher During his lifetime he endured many sorts of bad experiences and went through many sufferings However during life s different hardships Lee Fisher always kept his faith and was an inspiration to many others His life story is sure to encourage and inspire others About the Author Jackie S Fisher is a former member of the Burlington Artists League and the BAL Gallery She loves animals and owns many herself During her spare time when she is not involved in the Seventh Day Adventist Church Fisher likes to read sew and drive her 1949 Hudson Super Six There Ain't No Justice - Just Us Gregory

Norton, 2001-07-19 Based on an actual wildcat strike that occurred in 1979 There Ain't No Justice Just Us tells the story of a middle aged college professor and former seventies radical who finds himself caught in the web of a mid life crisis and a decaying marriage In his search for a more authentic identity he winds up leading a wildcat strike in a gritty South Chicago factory Along the way he encounters a variety of leftists and African American and Mexican industrial workers who lead genuine if impoverished lives The wildcat strike becomes the psychological gauntlet through which the characters must pass to achieve personal integration The professor s quest for internal wholeness leads to a love affair with a radical feminist attorney and activist In the end the professor must choose between authenticity and love or continuing his sedate middle class life Ancillary characters including Cecelia Sanchez a Mexican American college student find themselves drawing psychological strength from the unfolding battle and engaging in their own liberation struggles in her case trying to find the inner spirit to move out on her own away from her patriarchal family This Ain't No Promised Land Tina

Shelton, 2024-03-19 No matter how far you run you can't escape yourself or outrun the love of God When her husband dies Charlotte can't face the things she's done things that could tear her family apart So she drops a goodbye letter in the cookie jar and flees south to escape everything her life her three daughters the mistakes she's made and the secrets that have been eating her alive She's desperate to find the peace she's looking for somewhere out there Now Gracey and her sisters are alone on Chicago's South Side with nothing but their home and their belongings not a parent to be seen They're doing everything they can to stay together as a family But three young girls sixteen fourteen and twelve aren't meant to parent themselves The close knit community gathers around them to keep them fed and clothed with the utilities on but it isn't enough The girls are struggling and making destructive decisions as a way of coping with abandonment Hundreds of miles away Charlotte is trying to keep her own head above water She's made a close friend who talks to her about God in a way Charlotte's never heard before But when her demons catch up to her she must face her past head on Will she be able to find the courage to embrace motherhood And will that be enough not to lose her family altogether Debut author Tina Shelton drops readers straight into 1980s South Side Chicago Her raw authentic writing welcomes those who are willing to come alongside characters dealing with generational trauma abandonment hidden abuse destructive choices and the desire to be
