Anderson,2009-10-29 This is the true life story of a boy who quit school to become an apprentice on Savile Row home to London s most venerable tailors and wound up owning his own shop on the world famous Golden Mile where he hand cuts exquisite suits for a clientele including royalty politicians literati business tycoons and media stars On a bright bitterly cold and snowy morning in January 1982 17 year old Richard Anderson made his way with his father to an interview at Savile Row s illustrious Henry Huntsman Sons They were late but Richard got the job with its meagre salary of only 2 000 a year and his life was changed forever Huntsman was arguably the world s most prestigious tailoring house and Richard s apprenticeship proved a humbling ordeal overseen by three titans of the trade the formidably debonair Colin Hammick fellow chain smoker and grumpy eccentric Brian Hall and Dick Lakey the company s heroically overworked leg man Training under these men in the arcane art of making trousers and coats that could cost as much as 10 000 was an inspiring but also gruelling game yet Young Richard persisted for 17 more years of rigorous practice in perfectionism and prestige to become at 34 the youngest head cutter in Huntsman s 150 year history Witty and told with great candour Bespoke is a fascinating behind the scenes expos of life on Savile Row from one of the world s most celebrated and successful tailors The Vocational-technical

Core Collection: Books Jack Hall,Victoria Cheponis Lessard,1981 Annotated bibliography comprising a selection guide for librarians of recommended books on vocational training and technical education covers business and office work manuals for maintenance of radio sets and television sets construction techniques printing industry automobile service and repair shops etc and includes a directory of USA publishers Rethinking Luxury Fashion Thomai Serdari,2020-09-01 Using the field of material culture as its methodological departure point this Palgrave Pivot explains the strategic advantages that brands can set in place when their executives are fully in command of how to move from strategy to tactics Specifically it studies the brands their products and signature experiences as well as their relationship with the consumer in an attempt to define the greater powers that have pushed fashion labels in and out of fashion It focuses on case analysis of specific luxury fashion brands and attempts to link those to the greater context of material culture while also elaborating on theoretical discussions Bridging theory and practice this book explores the relationship between creative strategy and cultural intelligence
