Communication Management František Pollák, Jakub

Soviar, Roman Vavrek, 2022-01-07 Communication Management is an edited volume of chapters written by scholars researching various areas of marketing and management sciences It presents several issues of marketing management within the limits of marketing communication Starting from the issue of communication channels and basic sensory apparatus for processing information and stimuli the book continues with a description of the issue of social media in the time of accelerated digitization The last chapter introduces the reader to the issue of marketing communication in a sharply non standard environment The topic itself creates the opportunity to seek qualitative knowledge for future in depth research into the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on both national and transnational economies

Retail Design Ann

Petermans, Anthony Kent, 2016-12-01 The late twentieth century saw rapid growth in consumption and the expansion of retailing and services This was reflected in the number and type of stores and locations from regional shopping malls and out of town superstores to concept and flagship stores Retail design became an essential part of its success by creating distinctive brands and formats However the economic recession in the developed world and competition for consumer goods from the developing world has led to a reassessment of the growth led conventions of the retail industry In addition the rapid advance of e commerce and online shopping has created new challenges for physical stores and the communication and distribution of retail brands The book will provide students researchers and practitioners a detailed assessment of retail design taking a distinctive global approach to place design practice and theory in context Chapters are devoted to key issues in the visual and structural contribution of design to retail brands and format development and to the role of design in communication In the course of the book the authors engage with problems of convergence between retailing and other services and between the physical and virtual worlds and also changing patterns of use reuse and ownership of retail spaces and buildings Retail Design concerns designers and organisations but also defines its broader contribution to society culture and economy
