Jarvis, 2005-12-01 Community Service-Learning for Spanish Heritage Learners Kelly Lowther Pereira, 2018-12-15 This book proposes community service learning as a critical pedagogy that connects learners and communities to address key challenges in heritage language education The book s purpose is two fold to fill a crucial gap in empirical research on community service learning in the heritage language context as well as to provide language educators and practitioners essential guidelines for designing community service learning courses with particular attention paid to the characteristics and needs of Spanish heritage language learners This book presents compelling evidence demonstrating the central role community service learning plays in developing heritage language learners identities connections to the heritage language community language attitudes and social cultural and sociolinguistic awareness Importantly this book also addresses the often overlooked perspectives of community partners and liaisons As the first original research monograph on community service learning for Spanish heritage language learners this pioneering book will undoubtedly aid students instructors and administrators across all levels of language education Retirement Migrants and Dependency Inés Calzada, 2024-11-18 This book tells the story of what happens when the adventure of living in Spain turns complicated due to the emergence of care needs derived from loss of autonomy It investigates the care strategies of retirement migrants that must navigate a foreign welfare system and a different culture of care and how the COVID 19 pandemic exacerbated the difficulties they experience accessing care services and information The book condenses the results of a 4 year 2019 2022 research project funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science under the title Retirement migration and the Social Services and applies a mixed methods approach that combined statistical analysis of secondary data telephonic interviews with the coordinators of Social Services in more than 80 Spanish municipalities with a high presence of retirement migrants ethnographic case studies in four municipalities observation interviews focus groups and an online survey with social workers

Family Care of Older People in Europe Ian Philp, 2001 Developing appropriate responses to an ageing population is recognized by policy makers throughout the developed world as a top priority as is the vital contribution made by family caregivers However cultural demographic and organizational differences between countries have encouraged diverse patterns of response to this common challenge This book provides a systematic cross cultural analysis of contemporary patterns and future trends in all major countries of the European Union Additional interest is provided by including Poland emerging from the post Communist block as the country at the forefront for joining the European Union The book should be useful to European policy makers and academics involved in studying the health and social care needs of older people and the capacity contribution and needs of family caregivers who provide care to older people The book is also relevant for policy makers and researchers in other countries mostly in North America and Australia who wish to study European approaches to supporting older people and family caregivers
