United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly, 1973 Making Sense of Human Life Catherine M. Rakow, 2022-07-29 Drawing from rich archival material this book provides unprecedented access to the professional documents and historical context surrounding the life s work of Dr Murray Bowen 1913 1990 medical doctor psychiatrist and pioneering researcher of Family Systems Theory To understand the origins and evolution of this theory Catherine Rakow explores Bowen s early years as a psychiatrist at the Menninger Foundation at which time he became curious about the possibility of determining a factual basis for psychoanalytic theory and explains how this research would foreground Bowen s lifelong study of the family unit at the National Institute of Mental Health From those seminal years of study and observation Rakow explains how Bowen developed Family Systems Theory A theory of human functioning that conceives of family as a naturally occurring regenerating system Rakow's close engagement with Bowen's practice and influences at this time allows for a fulsome account of the research process that Bowen undertook to develop this innovative approach In this book Rakow demonstrates the value of Bowen's work as a model and research methodology for those exploring the role of theory in improving family relationships making it essential reading for marriage and family therapists mental health professionals students those interested in the history of medicine and curious individuals alike
