The World News Prism William A. Hachten, James F. Scotton, 2015-05-26 Now available in a fully revised and updated ninth edition World News Prism provides in depth analysis of the changing role of transnational news media in the 21st century Includes three new chapters on Russia Brazil and India and a revised chapter on the Middle East written by regional media experts Features comprehensive coverage of the growing impact of social media on how news is being reported and received Charts the media revolutions occurring throughout the world and examines their effects both locally and globally Surveys the latest developments in new media and forecasts future developments

Non-Traditional Security in Asia Mely Caballero-Anthony, Alistair D.B. Cook, 2013 Non Traditional Security in Asia examines the critical security challenges faced by states and societies in Asia including health food water natural disasters internal conflict forced migration energy transnational crime and cyber security Through the development of a comprehensive analytical framework that establishes the key ingredients to policy evaluation the editors draw on a wide variety of experts to collaborate in investigating these crucial issues This inclusive framework ensures that all voices are heard including those oftentimes under represented and marginalized in society to ensure that academic and policy debates are well informed about the often complex and nuanced nature of these non traditional security challenges Through an investigation into these specific non traditional security threats Non Traditional Security in Asia documents and evaluates many of the most pressing challenges faced by Asia today The authors analyse the ways in which particular issues are addressed by the many stakeholders involved in the policy making process both within governments and across societies The question of how these challenges are addressed across and between the different levels of global governance highlights the strengths and weakness that are directly attributable to policy successes and failures It is through this layered and comprehensive approach together with an evaluation of the role of stakeholders which binds together the chapter contributions to this collection The book undertakes an issue specific chapter study of how Asian states and societies address these non traditional security concerns from environmental adaptation and mitigation measures to conflict resolution For each issue area it identifies and explains the concerns of various policy communities identifying the motivations behind some of the key decisions made to affect change or stabilize the status quo Essentially it questions not only what a security issue is but also for whom the issue is important and the interaction this has with policy outcomes With a focus on regional and global institutions as well as national and local ones this collection illustrates the variety of stakeholders involved in non traditional security concerns and reflects on their relative importance in the decision making process Through a systematic evaluation of these non traditional security issues by employing a comprehensive analytical framework critical appreciation of the dynamics of the policy making process surrounding issues of crucial national regional and international significance in Asia are made As a result of sharing these insights the contributors provide the tools as well as a selection of issue specific stakeholders to illuminate the key but complex characteristics of non traditional security in Asia
