Life's Reflections Delores J. Garland, 2008-06 Thousands of books have been written about World War II Most have dealt with the War's historical aspects strategies or the heroism and outstanding acts of the men who did the fighting 1945 is not about heroes In fact it is not about men its primary characters are boys By 1944 every man in his twenties or thirties had already been conscripted Subsequently almost all draftees at this stage of the war were eighteen years of age To put this in perspective in today's world they would not be considered sufficiently mature to buy a can of beer or pack of cigarettes No parent likes to see his son go to war but these were children In January 1945 everyone knew the war didn't have long to go and just as tension mounts towards the end of a race anxiety and impatience became people's primary reactions to the news each day Readers of this book will gain insight of the heretofore little told and appreciated emotions of the men in the Armed Forces and their families at home hope fear and prayers that it all would end before something tragic happened to a loved one who had been lucky enough to survive to this point Book Review Index, 2004 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
