The Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior, 1400-1700 Erin J. Campbell,Stephanie R. Miller,Elizabeth Carroll Consavari,2016-03-23 Emphasizing on the one hand the reconstruction of the material culture of specific residences and on the other the way in which particular domestic objects reflect shape and mediate family values and relationships within the home this volume offers a distinct contribution to research on the early modern Italian domestic interior Though the essays mainly take an art historical approach the book is interdisciplinary in that it considers the social implications of domestic objects for family members of different genders age and rank as well as for visitors to the home By adopting a broad chronological framework that encompasses both Renaissance and Baroque Italy and by expanding the regional scope beyond Florence and Venice to include domestic interiors from less studied centers such as Urbino Ferrara and Bologna this collection offers genuinely new perspectives on the home in early modern Italy Lived Religion and Everyday Life in Early Modern Hagiographic Material Jenni Kuuliala, Rose-Marie Peake, Päivi Räisänen-Schröder, 2019-10-22 This book discusses the ways in which early modern hagiographic sources can be used to study lived religion and everyday life from the fifteenth to the seventeenth century For several decades saints lives other spiritual biographies miracle narratives canonisation processes iconography and dramas have been widely utilised in studies on medieval religious practices and social history This fruitful material has however been overlooked in studies of the early modern period despite the fact that it witnessed an unprecedented growth in the volume of hagiographic material The contributors to this volume address this and illuminate how early modern hagiographic material can be used for the study of topics such as religious life the social history of medicine survival strategies domestic violence and the religious experience of slaves Everyday Crime, Criminal Justice and Gender in Early Modern Bologna Sanne Muurling, 2020-12-15 Female protagonists are commonly overlooked in the history of crime especially in early modern Italy where women s scope of action is often portrayed as heavily restricted This book redresses the notion of Italian women s passivity arguing that women s crimes were far too common to be viewed as an anomaly Based on over two thousand criminal complaints and investigation dossiers Sanne Muurling charts the multifaceted impact of gender on patterns of recorded crime in early modern Bologna While various socioeconomic and legal mechanisms withdrew women from the criminal justice process the casebooks also reveal that women as criminal offenders and savvy litigants had an active hand in keeping the wheels of the court spinning Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior Erin J. Campbell, 2016-03-09 Though portraits of old women mediate cultural preoccupations just as effectively as those of younger women the scant published research on images of older women belies their significance within early modern Italy This study examines the remarkable flowering largely overlooked in portraiture scholarship to date of portraits of old women in Northern Italy and especially Bologna during the second half of the sixteenth century when as a result of religious reform the lives of women and the family came under increasing scrutiny Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior draws on a wide range of primary visual sources including portraits religious images architectural views prints and drawings as well as extant palazzi and case furnishings and domestic objects created by the leading artists in Bologna including Lavinia Fontana Bartolomeo Passerotti Denys Calvaert and the Carracci The study also draws on an array of historical sources including sixteenth century theories of portraiture prescriptive writings on women and the family philosophical and practical treatises on the home economy sumptuary legislation books of secrets prescriptive writings on old age and household inventories to provide new historical perspectives on the domestic life of the propertied classes in Bologna during the period Author Erin Campbell contends that these images of unidentified women are not only crucial to our understanding of the cultural operations of art within the early modern world but also by working from the margins to revise the center provide an opportunity to present new conceptual frameworks and question our assumptions about old age portraiture and the domestic interior
