Baptists and Business Paul R. Wilson, 2025-05-08 This study of Baptist businessmen from Jarvis Street Baptist Church in Toronto breaks new ground The challenges to faith exerted by the arrival of a new materialistic social ethic and a business dominated culture in the last half of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries has received little attention from Canadian historians Instead historians have primarily focused on religious leaders and intellectual challenges to faith This study examines the sociocultural challenges that confronted one group of central Canadian Baptist businessmen from 1848 to 1921 Essentially the findings offered here are used to sustain the argument that the rise of business and consumerism helped to secularize the beliefs values and practices of Baptist businessmen Furthermore the effects of secularization were profound on both the personal and church community levels

Have you ever wondered where religion is concerned what you really believe In FAITH REASON COMMON SENSE the interdependence of religion and culture is examined with care and insight Readers with strong religious convictions may be surprised to discover that the history of religion every religion is both a chronicle of heresy and a reconfiguration of belief In his examination of the relationship between Faith and Reason the author rejects the familiar premise that a life guided by one must exclude the other Although he stresses the importance of examining the faith of our fathers he is respectful of those who in a world dominated by science find guidance and reassurance in their religion Far ranging and insightful drawing on a wealth of sources and opinions there is something for everyone in this challenging and though provoking study
