Unfolding Creativity John Howlett,Amy Palmer,2021-10-28 This book presents a selection of case studies of pioneers in arts education who were working in the United Kingdom in the period 1890 to 1950 Focusing on music drama and visual arts and crafts the editors and contributors examine the impact these individuals had on developing innovative approaches to these subject areas and how they drew on perspectives that emphasised the need for children s self expression The chapters offer an analysis of the pioneers beliefs and values with a particular emphasis on their ideological positions about identity nation and what constituted good taste The book further examines how their ideas were disseminated in so doing interrogating the concept of influence in educational theory and practice      Central Library in War-time Sheffield (England). Education and Libraries, Art Galleries and Museums Joint Sub-committee,1956      Education through the Arts for Well-Being and Community Catherine Burke,Peter Cunningham,Lottie Hoare,2020-12-30 Education through the Arts for Well Being and Community examines Sir Alec Clegg s distinctive contribution to education reform Revisiting the significance of Clegg s principles for education in the 21st century the book investigates the impact of his innovative approach to education and his advocacy of an arts based curriculum to promote physical and mental health The book explores a variety of perspectives on Clegg s working relationships career and achievements Sir David Attenborough s foreword remembers his uncle Alec as a lively young teacher and Sir Tim Brighouse considers Clegg as a model for his own leadership in educational reform Eight authors in all bring a range of academic and professional insights to this study of an exceptional educationalist Clegg s national influence as Chief Education Officer in Yorkshire and his impact on schools teacher education and wider communities through an integrated approach to the arts are richly illustrated in text and pictures Two aspects of his work have particular topical relevance Clegg s emphatic concern for children in distress and his encouragement of creativity through teacher education This book will be of great interest for academics scholars and students in the field of the history of education educational policy and reform and all concerned with the role of schools in young people s development      The Studio ,1941      Education and the Social Order, 1940-1990 Brian Simon,1999 The fourth and final in the Studies in History of Education in England this volume examines the changes and developments in the British education system from the Second World War to the eve of the millennium Education has always been a battlefield and never more so than in Britain in the second half of the twentieth century Simon argues that educational policy usually reflects the outcome of a struggle between progressives who see reform as a first step towards social change and conservatives who prefer a stratified system which reflects existing social divisions It documents the changes that took place as the result of these battles it begins with the 1944 Education Act and the massive extension of educational opportunity that took place in the postwar period it then deals with the subsequent prolonged debates about comprehensive education and other measures of liberalisation during the 1960s and 1970s and it ends with the years of Conservative government the 1980s and 1990s when systematic attempts were made to reverse the advances that had been made during the earlier period Winner of the History of Education Society Prize 1991 92 Winner of the Standing Conference for Studies in Education Prize 1991 92 Studio, 1941 The Euston Road School Bruce Laughton, 1986 Education, 1953 Painting the Visible World Austin/Desmond Fine Art (Gallery), 1989 Bell Graham Buhler Robert Carter B A R Coldstream William Daniels Leonard Darwin Robin Dawnay Denis Eyton Anthony Feild Maurice Frost Terry Gowing Lawrence etc Mass-Observation and Visual Culture LucyD. Curzon, 2017-07-05 Mass Observation and Visual Culture Depicting Everyday Lives in Britain critically analyses the role that visual culture played in the early development of Mass Observation the innovative British anthropological research group founded in 1937 The group's production and use of painting collage photography and other media illustrates not only the broad scope of Mass Observation's efforts to document everyday life but also more specifically the centrality of visual elements to its efforts at understanding national identity in the 1930s Although much interest has previously focused on Mass Observation's use of written reports and opinion surveys as well as diaries that were kept by hundreds of volunteer observers this book is the first full length study of the group's engagement with visual culture Exploring the paintings of Graham Bell and William Coldstream the photographs of Humphrey Spender the paintings collages and photographs of Julian Trevelyan and Humphrey Spender's photographs and widely recognized Mass Observation film Spare Time among other sources Mass Observation and Visual Culture Depicting Everyday Lives in Britain positions these works as key sources of information with regard to illuminating the complex character of British identity during the Depression era Vanessa Bell Frances Spalding, 2021-04-01 The definitive and authorised biography of the artist Vanessa Bell Even through the lens of the twenty first century the story of Vanessa Bell's life is unorthodox A powerful magnetic figure Bell lived at the heart of the Bloomsbury Group and was often the core figure around which the disparate individuals of the movement revolved Her art and designs so often overshadowed by her sister Virginia Woolf's writings and fame and by the interest in her own unconventional life made a significant contribution to the history of the Bloomsbury Group Yet until this authorised biography was written she has remained a largely silent and enigmatic figure In this captivating account acclaimed art historian and biographer Frances Spalding restores Bell to the heart of the Bloomsbury Group illuminating an exceptional life and the free spirited circle among which she lived The Artist, 1987 London in Paint Museum of London, Mireille Galinou, John Hayes, 1996 The Triple Cord Or A Treatise Prouing the Truth of the Roman Religion, by Sacred Scriptures, Etc.
