Play Sally Featherstone,2013-04-11 Heuristic Play is a tightly described but freely accessed activity using a specific range of found or everyday objects and in its pure sense is only really applicable to a specific age range from 12 months to about two and a half However there is now plenty of evidence that heuristic play has continuing value for children throughout the Foundation Stage and well into the primary years Collections of objects carefully selected and offered in both adult led and child initiated sessions indoors and outside can build on the experience of treasure baskets In this informative and helpful book you will find further information on the process of using both treasure baskets and heuristic play with babies and young children You will also find chapters which explore the benefits of heuristic play with objects for children throughout the early years from six months to seven years Of course the materials the provision and the adult role will develop and change as children mature so this book also gives guidance on how heuristic play itself should change to meet the needs of children at different stages of development

Developing Play for the Under 3s Anita M. Hughes,2015-07-30 We currently live in a two dimensional world of tapping and sliding fingers on screens but babies and young children need to touch taste smell shake and bang three dimensional objects in order to develop thinking and learning skills The Treasure Basket and Heuristic play approach is all about offering natural and household objects to babies and young children to play with This simple approach promotes extraordinary capacities of concentration intellectual curiosity and manipulative mastery Full of resource ideas and activities this book offers accessible explanations of how the under 3 s think and learn step by step guidance for setting up play sessions and descriptions of the best materials to offer Featuring original interviews between the author and Elinor Goldschmied who was the pioneer of the Treasure Basket and Heuristic Play this third edition of Developing Play for the Under 3s has been thoroughly updated to include A new chapter with case studies to show how Heuristic Play can be offered to the 2 4 year olds A new chapter exploring the myths and misunderstandings of this approach Links to the Forest School movement Research evidence supported by case studies The characteristics of effective learning and how the Treasure Basket and Heuristic Play promote these Information about the Froebel Archive project bringing the story of Elinor Goldschmied s work alive through film Based on a wealth of research into how babies learn and the principles of learning together with the author s own personal experience of working with the under 3s this book will be indispensable for anyone involved in the care and development of children in this age group

The Treasures We Leave Behind Joy P. Gage,2001-03 Our home is filled with keepsakes that we display in every room Perhaps because of our collection I become fascinated with artifacts in the Bible We don t know that nay of the men and women in Scripture left behind their keepsakes But if they did Would Ruth have kept her shawl Would David have passed his harp on to his children Some objects were used by God in a miraculous way All were on the scene when some momentous event took place And all remind us how God uses that which is common and ordinary to accomplish His uncommon extraordinary purposes
