Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts, 2005 Customary International Humanitarian Law, 2005 The Oxford Guide to International Humanitarian Law Ben Saul, Dapo Akande, 2020 This Guide provides a broad authoritative overview of the field of international humanitarian law Highlighting both practice and doctrine it is written by a team of expert academics and practitioners The Law of International Humanitarian Relief in Non-International Armed Conflicts Matthias Vanhullebusch, 2021-10-05 This book comprehensively covers the entire scope of conflicting rights and duties of the fighting parties and international humanitarian relief actors in non international armed conflicts namely from the moment of the initiation of international humanitarian relief actions till their authorisation and throughout the consecutive stages of the delivery of relief From the practice of frontline humanitarian negotiations this book reconceptualizes how those rights and duties are coming into being and how compliance with agreements on humanitarian access and other international humanitarian law and international human rights norms can be ensured and or their normativity can be strengthened Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts, 2005 Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law, Volume 20, 2017 Terry D. Gill, Tim McCormack, Robin Geiß, Heike Krieger, Christophe Paulussen, 2018-12-20 The main theme of this volume of the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is the development and interpretation of international humanitarian law IHL It is elaborated upon in several chapters that examine the role of non state armed groups in the development and interpretation of IHL the impact of international criminal law on the development of IHL the notion of external non international armed conflicts and the regulation of prolonged occupation under international law The second theme of this volume is dedicated to targeting in armed conflicts Specific topics include precautions in attack in urban and siege warfare the targeting of the Islamic State's religious personnel in Iraq and Syria and the targeting of illicit crop through aerial spraying in Colombia Besides the chapters that address both themes this volume also contains a Year in Review describing the most important events and legal developments that took place in 2017 The Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is the world's only annual publication devoted to the study of the laws governing armed conflict It provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this crucial branch of international law Distinguished by contemporary relevance the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars practitioners military personnel civil servants diplomats human rights workers and students

The Companion to International Humanitarian Law Dražan Djukić, Niccolò Pons, 2018-09-24 This important and unique volume begins with seven essays that discuss the contemporary challenges to implementing international humanitarian law Its second and largest section comprises 263 entries covering the vast majority of IHL concepts Written by a wide range of experts each entry explains the essential legal parameters of a particular element of IHL while offering practical examples and where relevant historical considerations and supplying a short bibliography for further research The starting point for the selection were notions arising from the Geneva Conventions the Additional Protocols and other IHL treaties However the reader will also encounter entries going beyond the typical scope of IHL such as those related to the protection of the natural environment and animals and entries that in addition to an IHL perspective discuss relevant issues through the lens of human rights law refugee law international criminal law the law on State responsibility national law and so on The editors have also attempted to take into account certain concepts that have no direct foundation in IHL but that are commonly used in mass media and politics or generate wide interest in contemporary society such as drones economic warfare cyber warfare sniping targeted killings transitional justice terrorism and many other topics The Companion to International Humanitarian Law offers a much needed tool for both scholars and practitioners supplying information accessible enough to enable a variety of users to quickly familiarise themselves with it and sufficiently comprehensive to be a source for reflection and further research for more demanding users Its aim is to facilitate the practical application of IHL and be of use to a wide audience interested in or confronted with IHL ranging from professionals in humanitarian assistance and protection in the field legal officers and advisers at the national and international level trainers academics scholars and students

Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law Volume 19, 2016 Terry D. Gill, Tim McCormack, Robin Geiß, Heike Krieger, Christophe Paulussen, 2017-12-19 The general theme of this volume of the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is armed groups and the challenges arising from the participation of such groups in contemporary armed conflicts It is elaborated upon in several chapters addressing the organisation criterion respect for and compliance with international humanitarian law and international human rights law targeted sanctions and accountability issues among other things Besides these chapters that can be connected to the general theme the book also contains a chapter dedicated to the knock on the roof practice a Year in Review describing the most important events and legal developments that took place in 2016 as well as the final report from the ILA Study Group The Conduct of Hostilities Under International Humanitarian Law Challenges of 21st Century Warfare The Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is the world's only annual publication devoted to the study of the laws governing armed conflict It provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this crucial branch of international law Distinguished by contemporary relevance the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars practitioners military personnel civil servants diplomats human rights workers and students International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights Law Roberta Arnold, Noëlle N. R. Quénivet, 2008 Drawing upon previous theories on the relationship between human rights law and international humanitarian law this book examines on the basis of a series of individual case studies the new theoretical trend arguing for a merge of these two sets of norms Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law Claudie Barrat, 2014-07-24 In Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law Claudie Barrat examines the legal framework applicable to NGOs in situations of armed conflict The author convincingly demonstrates contrary to convention that in addition to the ICRC the National Societies and the IFRC numerous other NGOs referenced in humanitarian law treaties have a legal status in IHL and therefore legitimate claim to employ IHL provisions to respond to current challenges On the basis of clear and thorough definitions of these entities Barrat argues that existing NGOs meeting stringent definition can benefit from customary rights and obligations in both international and non international armed conflict Recognition of Belligerency and the Law of Armed Conflict Robert McLaughlin, 2020 Employing a legal historical approach this book describes the thematic and schematic fundamentals of the doctrine on recognition of belligerency and analyzes some of the more significant challenges to its application In doing so this book seeks to inform debate as to the doctrine's continuity and utility within the modern scheme of the Law of Armed Conflict heralded by the 1949 Geneva Conventions Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law, Volume 23 (2020) Terry D. Gill, Robin Geiß, Heike Krieger, Rebecca Mignot-Mahdavi, 2022-02-02 This volume of the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law takes a close look at the role of so called expert manuals in the interpretation and development of the international law of armed conflict and connected branches of international law relating to military operations While these manuals can and do play an undoubtedly useful role their proliferation raises a number of questions What degree of authority do they have and how much weight should be given to the views expressed in them What is the methodology they employ and how effective is it in ensuring an as objective and impartial interpretation of the law as possible What is their place in the doctrine of sources While there is already a considerable body of literature addressing these and other relevant questions this volume aims to contribute further to this discussion with contributions by three experts involved in one or more of these manuals in one capacity or another Alongside these three contributions on this year's special theme the second part of the book comprises three chapters that address timely and relevant issues of International Humanitarian Law These range from starvation as a method of warfare to emerging technologies of warfare and also includes reflections on humanitarian assistance Lastly the volume concludes with the Year in Review describing the most important armed conflict related events and legal developments that took place in 2020 The Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law is a leading annual publication devoted to the study of international humanitarian law It provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this crucial branch of international law Distinguished by contemporary relevance the Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars practitioners military personnel civil servants diplomats human rights workers and students

Practice Irina Buga,2018 This book explores the process of treaty modification by subsequent practice explaining how such practice can significantly revise treaty obligations or even create new ones allowing evolution of the law

International

Crimes Guénaél Mettraux,2019 This book discusses in detail the law of genocide its definition elements normative status and relationship to the other core international crimes It is the first in a four volume compendium from Judge Mettraux on the four core international crimes

No Time to Lose: Promoting the Accountability of the Afghan National Security

Forces Rebecca Barber,2011 Contemporary Challenges to the Laws of War Caroline Harvey,James Summers,Nigel D.

White,2014-10-16 This book brings together leading experts to explore contemporary issues facing the laws of war Naval Peacekeeping and Humanitarian Operations James J. Wirtz,Jeffrey A. Larsen,2008-10-29 This edited volume explores stability security transition and reconstruction operations SSTR highlighting the challenges and opportunities they create for the US Navy The book argues that SSTR operations are challenging because they create new missions and basing modes and signal a return to traditional naval methods of operation Mission accomplishment requires collaboration with a wide range of actors representing governmental non governmental and commercial organizations which often creates politically and bureaucratically charged issues for those involved However although from a traditional warfighting perspective stability operations might be viewed as having little to do with preparing for high intensity conventional combat these kinds of operations in fact correspond to traditional missions related to diplomacy engagement maritime domain awareness piracy and smuggling and intervention to quell civil disturbances SSTR operations can be therefore depicted as a return to traditional naval operations albeit operations that might not be universally welcomed in all quarters

Killing in a Gray

Area between Humanitarian Law and Human Rights Jan Römer,2010-01-12 Armed forces can be confronted with the problem of correctly classifying a targeted group as one that is or is not party to an armed conflict In particular this happens in a context of a high level of violence where a non international armed conflict is likely occurring at the same time such as in Iraq Afghanistan Brazil or Mexico The difficulty of qualifying the targeted group leads to a legal uncertainty in which it is unclear whether an operation is governed by international humanitarian law or the international law of human rights The problem is of particular interest when lethal force is resorted to as killing might be illegal under one of the two branches. The book attempts to provide guidance on how this uncertainty can be overcome. In order to do so, the requirements to kill under IHL and human rights law are analyzed and compared as well as assessed in concrete operations of the National Police of Colombia who face this problem on a regular basis.
