

A historical painting depicting a battle scene, likely the Battle of Tewkesbury. In the foreground, soldiers in red tunics and blue hose are engaged in combat. A large tree stands in the center. In the background, a church with a white steeple is visible. The sky is filled with smoke and the colors of a sunset or sunrise.

Cutter And Bone A Novel:

Cutter and Bone Newton Thornburg, 2015-04-05 A thriller and a whacking good thriller too shows how much can be done within a classic form by a writer who knows his business The New York Times Alex Cutter is a scarred and crippled Vietnam veteran obsessed with a murder he is convinced his buddy Richard Bone witnessed That it was committed by the powerful tycoon JJ Wolfe only makes Cutter even surer that Bone saw the unthinkable Captivated by Cutter's demented logic Bone is prepared to cross the country with Cutter in search of proof of the murder Their quest takes them into the Ozarks home base of the Wolfe empire where Bone discovers that Cutter is pursuing both a cold blooded killer but also an even bigger and more elusive enemy Tense funny and despairing charged with a passion that makes even grotesques seem likeable and more important credible right up to the last startling sentence Time May be the quintessential cult crime classic continues to be cited by other writers as groundbreaking The ending is pure Chinatown with a dose of Easy Rider and it leaves us reeling Booklist starred review Praise for Newton Thornburg A commanding writer of unusual delicacy and power The New Yorker A born storyteller St Louis Post Dispatch One of the truly great American writers of the 20th century The Guardian Books to Die For John Connolly, Declan Burke, 2016-10-25 An anthology featuring the world's greatest mystery authors writing about the world's greatest mystery novels The Scar That Binds Keith Beattie, 2000-07 In The Scar That Binds Keith Beattie examines the central metaphors of the Vietnam War and their manifestations in American culture and life Blending history and cultural criticism in a lucid style this provocative book discusses an ideology of unity that has emerged through widespread rhetorical and cultural references to the war A critique of this ideology reveals three dominant themes structured in a range of texts the wound the voice of the Vietnam veteran and home The analysis of each theme draws on a range of sources including film memoir poetry written and oral history journalism and political speeches Men After War Stephen McVeigh, Nicola Cooper, 2013 This book is an innovative collection of original research which analyzes the many varieties of post conflict masculinity Exploring topics such as physical disability and psychological trauma and masculinity and sexuality in relation to the feminizing contexts of wounding and desertion this volume draws together leading academics in the fields of gender history literature and disability studies in an inter and multi disciplinary exploration of the conditions and circumstances that men face in the aftermath of war From Hanoi to Hollywood Linda Dittmar, Gene Michaud, 1990 This volume is about power It is about the power to make war and to destroy lives It is also about another kind of power the power to make images that may distort displace and destroy knowledge of the times in which those lives were lived Many of the nineteen essays gathered in this volume are about the interrelationships between these two types of power They demonstrate as well yet another type of power the power of critical thinking to challenge dangerous myths and to confront prevailing ideologies The title of this anthology calls attention to the process whereby aspects of the Vietnam War have been appropriated by the American cultural industry Probing the large body of emotion laden controversial films From Hanoi to

Hollywood is concerned with the retelling of history and the retrospection that such a process involves In this anthology an awareness of film as a cultural artifact that molds beliefs and guides action is emphasized an awareness that the contributors bring to a variety of films Their essays span over one hundred documentary and fiction films and include in depth analyses of major commercial films ranging from Apocalypse Now to Platoon Rambo First Blood Part II and Full Metal Jacket and documentaries from In the Year of the Pig to Dear America Letters Home from Vietnam The essays in this volume deal with representations of the Vietnam war in documentary film and television reporting examining the ways the power of film is used to deliver political messages There are surprises here new readings and important insights on the ways we as a society have attempted to come to terms with the experiences of the Vietnam era The book also contains two appendixes a detailed chronology charting the relationship between major historical events and the release of American war films from 1954 through 1988 and a filmography listing information on over four hundred American and foreign films about the Vietnam War
