

Seven Key Components of a Christian Education

"God has so conditioned us that in living and caring for our own children, the richest and best things in our nature are drawn out. Many of the deepest and most valuable lessons ever learned are read from the pages of unfolding child life." ~ J. A. Miller

Spiritual Health

- Pray daily for your children.
- Continuously teach Christian principles to them.
- Act in the spirit of the Gospel toward them.
- Watch over their friendships with others.
- Teach them to govern their tongues.
- See that they make diligent use of the means of grace.
- Be on guard against Satan's insistent activity and wiles.

Physical Health

- Exercise should be regularly taken.
- Temperance in diet should be observed.
- Things that are injurious to health should be avoided.
- "Early to bed and early to rise."

Good Manners

- Kindness should run through everything your children do and say.
- Kindness must have its true foundation in Christian principles.
- Kindness to others is evidence of our natural selfishness.
- Encourage them to endeavor to promote the happiness of everyone around them.

The All-Sufficiency of the Savior

- Let your children see Christ on every page of the Scriptures. He is the root of spiritual prosperity. He is the Physician of both body and soul. He is the Giver of all our blessings. He is altogether lovely in all His ways. He is full of gifts and full of grace.
- Let everything in your family's daily life turn your children's minds to Jesus. In every walk, in every house, in every deed, in every job, and in every thing — speak of the Savior.
- Let the Lord Jesus be the sun and the glory of every day.

"Christ Jesus is the only true source of life. He is the only one who can give us a permanent, lasting, and unchangeable life. He is the only one who can give us a life that is not subject to the changes of this world. He is the only one who can give us a life that is not subject to the changes of this world. He is the only one who can give us a life that is not subject to the changes of this world." ~ J. A. Miller

Mental Cultivation

- Do not grasp your children's minds excessively above their capabilities.
- Strengthen their minds with the reading of wholesome books.
- Encourage them to form habits of taking time for reflection.
- Make sure they understand their lessons.
- Teach them to become accustomed to the exercise of self-denial.
- Be sure that their minds are occupied with useful things.

Accomplishments and Amusements

- Remember that worldly accomplishments are of a secondary value.
- Even doses of education may often be mixed with profitable activities.
- Take care that your activities make God's love beautiful to others.
- Be sure that the amusements your family engages in are innocent.
- Guard against those diversions which will steal your children to love the world.

God's Promises for Parenting

- "My grace is sufficient for you."
- "He will give his holy Spirit to those who ask."
- "I am your God. I will strengthen you, and I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness."

Mysteries of Gods and Symbols Seven Star Hand,2010-09-17 Here is comprehensive proof that the symbolism of many ancient texts canons and concepts is an advanced and extremely ancient spiritual and philosophical technology that predates all extant religions and mystery schools Consequently here is proof beyond disproof that all three so called Faiths of Abraham are purposeful deceptions Accordingly related esoterica mystery schools and the New Age are rife with error caused by undue reliance upon the assertions of these religions and their leaders Throughout this book I present verifiable proof that ancient sages and prophets opposed religion and wisely never trusted religious leaders As comprehensive validation of this they redundantly encoded stunning proof of why throughout pivotal symbolic narratives and related concepts The ancient sages and prophets hid vital secrets from religious leaders throughout the previous several millennia When these decoded details are compared to the history words and deeds of these religions and their leaders they finally prove the truth about many long hidden things These religions have always purposely imposed ignorance based on the deceptive recasting of earlier symbolic concepts and narratives that also expertly encoded the keys to ancient wisdom as redundant proofs of the truth Arrogant religious leaders while hypocritically lecturing others about morality have long overlooked that the ancient sages and prophets were painfully aware of their then current and future misdeeds and deceptions and patiently and expertly prepared for them Christ Identity Sergio Rosell Nebreda,2011-03-09 Sergio Rosell Nebreda focuses on how the Philippian Christ followers received Paul s letter The social historical literary rhetorical anthropological and theological elements are dealt with in order to understand the effect Paul wanted to achieve The main thesis of the book is that the apostle Paul who greatly suffered at Philippi and writing from a prison desires to affect the Philippians believers to acquire a Christ orientation based on the values expressed in the Christ hymn Phlp 2 5 11 forms the core of Paul s theological narrative that aims at constructing a sense of imitatio and conformatio in the Christ following community Paul uses a friendly style in his letters in order to produce rapport and trust in the community presenting himself as exemplum ad imitando after that of Christ It is because Paul so fully identifies with Christ s orientation in life that the apostle presents himself as a slave of Jesus Christ In the midst of a society ill with the desire for honour and power the Christ narrative stands as a radical call for an alternative life style based on the exercise of humility which seeks the interest of others rather than focusing on one s own needs and desires Paul insists on the basis of the Christ hymn that such a life style reveals God's character and it is therefore a life rewarded Through the use of Social Identity Theory this book evaluates how ancient people constructed their group identity in daily life and how through a seemingly inferior model that of Christ's kenosis in 2 5 11 the community receives a re definition of values which are according to God's values and who has the last word in history Paul thus presents an alternative and viable way of life in the midst of a society he knows well

Dark Figures in the Desired Country Gerda S. Norvig, William Blake, 1993-01-01 Gerda Norvig has written a book on Blake's Bunyan illustrations that is much more than that it revises our sense of Blake of the relationship of illustrator to illustrated text and the assumptions of Romantic and Romanticist writing Blake certainly will not be the same after Norvig's vigorous analysis and it is arguable that the same may be true of Romanticism Ronald Paulson author of Figure and Abstraction in Contemporary Painting Specialists in both Blake studies and English Romanticism will find this book extremely interesting and useful Norvig carefully analyzes for the first time a set of Blake's most accomplished illustrations a set that as she points out has very rarely been reproduced or exhibited These designs certainly deserve to be better known and Norvig's insightful and stimulating interpretation of them makes their importance to Blake's thought and career amply clear This is certainly a book that all Blake specialists will have to know Anne K Mellor author of Mary Shelley Her Life Her Fiction Her Monsters
