D. Edzard Gerd Muehsam,1948 , A Companion to the Ancient Near East Daniel C. Snell,2008-04-15 A Companion to the Ancient Near East offers students and general readers a comprehensive overview of Near Eastern civilization from the Bronze Age to the conquests of Alexander the Great Covers the civilizations of the Sumerians Hittites Babylonians Assyrians Israelites and Persians Places particular emphasis on social and cultural history Covers the legacy of the Ancient Near East in the medieval and modern worlds Provides a useful bibliographical guide to this field of study Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century Paintings Richard R. Brettell,Paul Hayes Tucker,Natalie Henderson Lee,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2009 Robert Lehman 1891 1969 one of the foremost art collectors of his generation embraced the work of both traditional and modern masters This volume catalogues 130 nineteenth and twentieth century paintings that are now part of the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art The majority of the works are by artists based in France but there are also examples from the United States Latin America and India reflecting Lehman s global interests The catalogue opens with outstanding paintings by Ingres Th odore Rousseau and Corot among other early nineteenth century artists They are joined by an exemplary selection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist works by Degas Renoir Sisley Pissarro Seurat Signac Van Gogh C zanne and Gauguin Twentieth century masters represented here include Bonnard Matisse Rouault Dal and Balthus There are also newly researched modern works by Vicente do Rego Monteiro Kees van Dongen Dietz Edzard and D G Kulkarni dizi Robert Lehman s cultivated taste for nineteenth century French academic practitioners and his intuitive eye for emerging young artists of his own time are documented and discussed Three hundred comparative illustrations supplement the catalogue entries as do extensively researched provenance information exhibition histories and references The volume also includes a bibliography and indexes International Maritime Committee International Maritime Committee,1899 Shaping the Sciences of the Ancient and Medieval World Agathe Keller,Karine Chemla,2024-05-14 This book contributes to a worldwide history of textual criticism and critical editions of ancient scientific texts It first looks at ancient editorial practices and at their impact on modern editions Contributions analyze how through time the perception of what a text was may have changed and influenced how scholarly texts were made accessible The second section looks at the historical political and social contexts within which editions and translations of ancient scientific texts were produced Finally the last two parts examine the specificities of editions and translations that bore on scholarly documents Not only is there a focus on how the elements specific to scientific texts such as diagrams and numbers were treated but case studies analyzing the specific work carried out to edit mathematical and astronomical texts of the past are also offered to the reader The scholarship displayed in this work lays the foundation for further studies on the history of critical editions and raises questions to those who make scholarly translations and critical editions today Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age Christian Langer,2021-09-20 Egyptian Deportations of the Late Bronze Age explores the political economy of deportations in New Kingdom Egypt ca 1550 1070 BCE from an interdisciplinary angle The analysis of ancient Egyptian primary source material and the international correspondence of the time draws a comprehensive picture of the complex and far reaching policies The dataset reveals their geographic scope economic and demographic impact in Egypt and abroad as well as their interconnection with territorial expansion international relations and labour management The supply chain profiting institutions and individuals in Egypt as the well as the labour tasks origins and the composition of the deportees are discussed in detail A comparative analytical framework integrates the Egyptian policies with a review of deportation discourses as well as historical premodern and modern cases and enables a global and diachronic understanding of the topic The study is thus the first systematic investigation of deportations in ancient Egyptian history and offers new insights into Egyptian governance that revise previous assessments of the role of forced migration und unfree labour in ancient Egyptian society and their long term effects

Problems of Canonicity and Identity Formation in Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia Gojko Barjamovic, Kim Ryholt, 2016-04-24 The term canonicity implies the recognition that the domain of literature and of the library is also a cultural and political one related to various forms of identity formation maintenance and change Scribes and benefactors create canon in as much as they teach analyze preserve prom ulgate and change canonical texts according to prevailing norms From early on texts from the written traditions of ancient Mesopotamia and Egypt were accumulated codified and to some extent canonized as various collections developed mainly in the environment of the temple and the palace These written traditions represent sets of formal and informal cultures that all speak in their own ways of canonicity normativity and other forms of cultural expertise Some forms of literature were used not only in scholarly contexts but also in political ones and they served purposes of identity formation This volume addresses the interrelations between various forms of canon and identity formation in different time periods genres regions and contexts as well as the application of contemporary conceptions of canon to ancient texts
