Secular Devotion Timothy Brennan, 2008-10-17 Popular music in the Americas from jazz Cuban and Latin salsa to disco and rap is overwhelmingly neo African Created in the midst of war and military invasion and filtered through a Western worldview these musical forms are completely modern in their sensibilities they are in fact the very sound of modern life But the African religious philosophy at their core involved a longing for earlier eras ones that pre dated the technological discipline of labor forced on captive populations by the European occupiers In this groundbreaking new book Timothy Brennan shows how the popular music of the Americas the music of entertainment nightlife and leisure is involved in a devotion to an African religious worldview that survived the ravages of slavery and found its way into the rituals of everyday listening In doing so he explores the challenge posed by Afro Latin music to a world music system dominated by a few wealthy countries and the processes by which Afro Latin music has been absorbed into the imperial imagination

Minority Religions and Fraud Amanda van Eck Duymaer van Twist, 2016-04-22 Analysing both fraud and religion as social constructs with different functions and meanings attributed to them this book raises issues that are central to debates about the limits of religious toleration in diverse societies and the possible harm as well as benefits that religious organisations can visit upon society and individuals There has already been a lively debate concerning the structural context in which abuse especially sexual abuse can be perpetrated within religion Contributors to the volume proceed from the premise that similar arguments about ways in which structure and power may be conducive to abuse can be made about fraud and deception Both can contribute to abuse yet they are often less easily demonstrated and proven hence less easily prosecuted With a focus on minority religions the book offers a comparative overview of the concept of religious fraud by bringing together analyses of different types of fraud or deception financial bio medical emotional breach of trust and consent Contributors examine whether fraud is necessarily intentional or whether that is in the eye of the beholder certain structures may be more conducive to fraud followers willingly participate in it The volume includes some chapters focused on non Western beliefs Juju Occult Economies Dharma Lineage which have travelled to the West and can be found in North American and European metropolitan areas
