Killer 'Cane Robert Mykle, 2006-06-23 Killer Cane takes place in the Florida Everglades which was still a newly settled frontier in the 1920s On the night of September 16 1928 a hurricane swung up from Puerto Rico and collided quite unexpectedly with Palm Beach The powerful winds from the storm burst a dike and sent a twenty foot wall of water through three towns killing over two thousand people a third of the area's population Robert Mykle shows how the residents of the Everglades had believed prematurely that they had tamed nature how racial attitudes at the time compounded the disaster and how in the aftermath the cleanup of rapidly decaying corpses was such a horrifying task that some workers went mad Killer Cane is a vivid description of America's second greatest natural disaster coming between the financial disasters of the Florida real estate bust and the onset of the Great Depression
