Creating Meaningful Funeral Ceremonies: A Guide for Families Alan D. Wolfelt,1999-12-01 Designed to complement the clergy and funeral director s role in the funeral planning process this book walks families through the many decisions they will make at the time of a death and helps them create a ceremony that will be both healing and meaningful Options are clearly explained and alternatives are also given and charts and tables are included to help families assess cost options

Creating Meaningful Funeral Experiences Alan D Wolfelt, 2003-10-01 Written in response to the current trend to deritualize death and funeral ceremonies this book explores the ways in which caregivers and clergy can create heartfelt ceremonies that help the bereaved begin to heal Explaining the purposes behind rituals it reviews the many ways these have changed over the years and argues for a return to authentic personalized and meaningful funeral ceremonies. The qualities in caregivers that make them effective funeral planners are examined and practical ideas for creating authentic personalized and meaningful funeral ceremonies are provided Trends toward the prevalence of cremation are discussed as are trends away from viewing and spending time with the body of the deceased This replaces 1879651084 Creating Meaningful Funeral Ceremonies Alan Wolfelt, 2013-11-19 More and more people are considering a career in nursing or healthcare but the thought of undertaking an academic degree at university can be intimidating Whether you are moving straight from school or college or have been away from education for some time Getting Ready for your Nursing Degree is essential preparation for anyone considering becoming or about to become a nursing student It looks at all aspects of university work in a straightforward way and provides advice examples and activities designed to help you get the most out of classes research and assessments from your first lecture right through to sitting exams and learning on placement Designed with nursing students in mind this small but perfectly formed guide is tailored to help you develop the skills you will need not only for your course but for your career and lifelong learning as a registered healthcare practitioner Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one s funeral or memorial occasion The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors and hospice hospital and funeral professionals Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author title and first line A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film novel or celebrity s funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park, 2017-11-07

Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God s grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals Funeral Home Customer Service A-Z Alan D. Wolfelt, 2005-04-01 From personalizing memorials and visitations to aftercare for the bereaved this thoughtful manual helps owners and staff of funeral homes and cemeteries better understand their customers and the special needs in tending to the grieving and burial process Explaining the evolution and prospects of today s experience economy customer this motivational resource offers practical guidance for exceeding expectations and provides suggestions for service issues particular to funeral homes such as first impressions telephone skills competition and arrangements With the more than 70 issues addressed funeral professionals will be able to meet and exceed the sensitive Caring for Donor Families Raelynn Maloney, Alan D. Wolfelt, 2011-04-01 Integrating vital necessities of families in pain information on the dynamics of the donation experience and grief education this revised second edition provides an invaluable resource for hospital and organ procurement caregivers Going beyond helping professionals understand the challenges of obtaining consent this guide invites them to offer compassionate care throughout the family s experience with the death including the months and years following The chapters include information on understanding the family s initial responses helping families understand brain death facilitating the donation discussion assisting families with meaningful leave taking rituals understanding long term grief responses and establishing an ongoing family support program Three easy to follow sections before during and after the donation experience guarantee that caregivers can easily access the section Language of the Heart Carolyn Pogue, 1998 Funeral or memorial ceremonies most relevant to their role with the family are important in meeting the social and emotional needs of survivors They can be important rituals to help us acknowledge a death Ceremonies can help people express pain Rituals can help us remember Ceremonies can help people heal In Language of the Heart author Carolyn Pogue offers stories and resources for creating meaningful and healing ceremonies The book answers the questions many of us have about financial and legal matters living wills and ethical wills organ donation and what to expect at a funeral home It also contains sample memorial ceremony outlines prayers and suggested scripture readings Includes unique resources for situations when there has been a death of a child when the relationship was unloving when the death was a suicide Healing The Bereaved Child Alan Wolfelt, 2013-12-19 First published in 1996 One spring morning a gardener noticed an unfamiliar seedling poking through the ground near the rocky untidy edge of his garden So begins the parable that sets the tone for this inspiring heartfelt new book for caregivers to bereaved children By comparing grief counseling to gardening Dr Wolfelt frees caregivers of the traditional medical model of bereavement care which implies that grief is an illness that must be cured He suggests that caregivers instead embrace a more holistic view of the normal natural and necessary process that is grief He then explores the ways in which bereaved children can not only heal but grow through grief Healing the Bereaved Child also contains chapter after chapter of practical caregiving guidelines How a grieving child thinks feels and mourns What makes each child s grief unique How the bereaved child heals the six needs of mourning Foundations of counseling bereaved children Counseling techniques play art writing nature and many others more than 15 pages A family systems approach to counseling Support groups for bereaved kids including a 10 session model Helping grieving children at school including a crisis response team model Helping the grieving adolescent Self care for the child's bereavement caregiver A must read for child counselors hospice caregivers funeral directors school counselors and teach ers clergy parents anyone who wants to offer support and com panionship to children affected by the death of someone Grief on the Road to Emmaus Beth L.
