Citizens of an Empty Nation Azra Hromadžić, Azra Hromadžić, 2015-04-07 In the wake of devastating conflict in Bosnia Herzegovina the polarizing effects of everyday ethnic divisions combined with hardened allegiances to ethnic nationalism and the rigid arrangements imposed in international peace building agreements have produced what Azra Hromadžić calls an empty nation Hromadžić explores the void created by unresolved tensions between mandated reunification initiatives and the segregation institutionalized by power sharing democracy and how these conditions are experienced by youths who have come of age in postconflict Bosnia Herzegovina Building on long term ethnographic research at the first integrated school of Bosnia Herzegovina Citizens of an Empty Nation offers a ground level view of how the processes of reunification play out at the Mostar Gymnasium Hromadi details the local effects of the tensions and contradictions inherent in the processes of postwar state making shedding light on the larger projects of humanitarian intervention social cohesion cross ethnic negotiations and citizenship In this careful ethnography the Mostar Gymnasium becomes a powerful symbol for the state s simultaneous segregation and integration as the school s shared halls bathrooms and computer labs foster dynamic spaces for a rich cross ethnic citizenship or else remain empty

Student Activities in Today's Schools Edward J. Klesse, 2004 What are student activities Why do schools have student activity groups What are the benefits for students schools and communities These are some of the questions that Student Activities in Today's Schools addresses Klesse has reviewed relevant educational research to provide an overview of the essential learning for all youth that is available from participation What are those benefits and who benefits Why don't all young people participate Are there ways to make student activity programs in schools more inclusive What will these programs look like in 5 10 and 15 years Schools must educate and develop our youth to meet the challenge of participation and survival in a global economy The skills learned through student activities provide the foundation for adult participation as citizens of our democracy So how do we best prepare our young people for the future Read this book to find out
