Cracking Up The Work Of Unconscious Experience:

Cracking Up Christopher Bollas,1995 Explores the inner world of human experience and suggests that the rhythm of that experience is vital to individual creativity The Christopher Bollas Reader Christopher Bollas,2012-06-25 This reader brings together a selection of seminal papers by Christopher Bollas Essays such as The Fascist State of Mind The Structure of Evil and The Functions of History have established his position as one of the most significant cultural critics of our time Also included are examples of his psychoanalytical writings such as The Transformational Object and Psychic Genera that deepen and renew interest in unconscious creative processes Two recent essays Character and Interformality and The Wisdom of the Dream extend his work on aesthetics and the role of form in everyday life This is a collection of papers that will appeal to anyone interested in human experience and subjectivity The Hero in the Mirror Sue Grand,2011-05-20 Sue Grand offers a phenomenology of terror through a look at war genocide terrorism torture and familial abuse and queries the conditions through which an individual or group retains its humanity through acts of rescue resistance and memorial activity

New Keywords Tony Bennett, Lawrence Grossberg, Meaghan Morris,2013-05-29 Over 25 years ago Raymond Williams Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society set the standard for how we understand and use the language of culture and society Now three luminaries in the field of cultural studies have assembled a volume that builds on and updates Williams classic reflecting the transformation in culture and society since its publication New Keywords A Revised Vocabulary of Culture and Society is a state of the art reference for students teachers and culture vultures everywhere Assembles a stellar team of internationally renowned and interdisciplinary social thinkers and theorists Showcases 142 signed entries from art commodity and fundamentalism to youth utopia the virtual and the West that capture the practices institutions and debates of contemporary society Builds on and updates Raymond Williams s classic Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society by reflecting the transformation in culture and society over the last 25 years Includes a bibliographic resource to guide research and cross referencing The book is supported by a website www.blackwellpublishing.com/newkeywords Psychoanalytic Investigations in Philosophy Dorit Lemberger,2023-02-24 This pioneering volume explores and exemplifies the relevance of psychoanalysis to contemporary philosophical problems The novelty of the book s viewpoint is the consideration of psychoanalysis as an existentialist mode of thinking that deals with current existential problems such as loneliness uncertainty struggling with personal tragedies and rehabilitation Each chapter presents classic aspects of psychoanalytic theory based on Greek tragedies as well as their similarities with interdisciplinary aspects in other areas of study like modern literature hermeneutics and philosophy of language To deepen each subject each chapter also applies an interdisciplinary methodology that illuminates previously hidden insights arising from the fusion of psychoanalysis and philosophy Featuring contributions from well known scholars like Professor Avi Sagi and Professor Dov Schwartz as well as more up and coming writers the book suggests possible implications of philosophical hermeneutical and literary theories to the perception of post modern issues concerning agency and the subjective emotional world Psychoanalytic Investigations in Philosophy is of great interest to scholars of psychoanalysis and hermeneutic philosophy as well as teachers and academics who want to explore new teaching methods in various disciplines and general interest readers who wish to expand their horizons around concepts that can be applied to better understand themselves and the age in which we live Unsettled Remains Cynthia Sugars, Gerry Turcotte, 2010-08-27 Unsettled Remains Canadian Literature and the Postcolonial Gothic examines how Canadian writers have combined a postcolonial awareness with gothic metaphors of monstrosity and haunting in their response to Canadian history The essays gathered here range from treatments of early postcolonial gothic expression in Canadian literature to attempts to define a Canadian postcolonial gothic mode Many of these texts wrestle with Canada's colonial past and with the voices and histories that were repressed in the push for national consolidation but emerge now as uncanny reminders of that contentious history The haunting effect can be unsettling and enabling at the same time In recent years many Canadian authors have turned to the gothic to challenge dominant literary political and social narratives In Canadian literature the postcolonial gothic has been put to multiple uses above all to figure experiences of ambivalence that have emerged from a colonial context and persisted into the present As these essays demonstrate formulations of a Canadian postcolonial gothic differ radically from one another depending on the social and cultural positioning of who is positing it Given the preponderance in colonial discourse of accounts that demonize otherness it is not surprising that many minority writers have avoided gothic metaphors In recent years however minority authors have shown an interest in the gothic signalling an emerging critical discourse This spectral turn sees minority writers reversing long standing characterizations of their identity as monstrous or invisible in order to show their connections to and disconnection from stories of the nation

The Value of Herman Melville Geoffrey Sanborn, 2018-09-06 This book explores the writings of Herman Melville across his career and examines the distinctive qualities of his style Reading Italian Psychoanalysis Franco Borgogno, Alberto Luchetti, Luisa Marino Coe, 2016-02-22 Winner of the American Board Academy of Psychoanalysis Prize for best Edited book published in 2016 Psychoanalysis in Italy is a particularly diverse and vibrant profession embracing a number of influences and schools of thought connecting together new thinking and producing theorists and clinicians of global renown Reading Italian Psychoanalysis provides a comprehensive guide to the most important Italian psychoanalytic thinking of recent years including work by major names such as Weiss E Gaddini Matte Blanco Nissim Momigliano Canestri Amati Mehler and Ferro It covers the most important theoretical developments and clinical advances with special emphasis on contemporary topics such as transference trauma and primitive states of mind where Italian work has been particularly influential In this volume Franco Borgogno Alberto Luchetti and Luisa Marino Coe of the Italian Psychoanalytical Society provide an overview of how Italian psychoanalysis has developed from the 1920s to the present day tracing its early influences and highlighting contemporary developments Forty six seminal and representative papers of psychoanalysts belonging to the two Italian psychoanalytical societies the Italian Psychoanalytical Society and the Italian Association of Psychoanalysis have been chosen to illuminate what is special about Italian theoretical and clinical thinking and what is demonstrative of the specificity of its psychoanalytic discourse The selected papers are preceded by a first introductory section about the history of psychoanalysis in Italy and followed by a swift glance at Italian psychoanalysis from abroad They are grouped into sections which represent the areas particularly explored by Italian psychoanalysis Each section is accompanied by introductory comments which summarize the main ideas and concepts and also their historical and cultural background so as to offer to the reader either an orientation and stimulus for the debate and to indicate their connections to other papers included in the present volume and to the international psychoanalytic world The book is divided into six parts including History of psychoanalysis in Italy Metapsychology Clinical practice theory of technique therapeutic factors The person of the analyst countertransference and the analytic relationship field Trauma psychic pain mourning and working through Preverbal precocious fusional primitive states of the mind This volume offers an excellent and detailed fresco of Italian psychoanalytic debate shining a light on thinking that has evolved differently in France England North and Latin America It is an ideal book for beginners and advanced students of clinical theory as well as experienced psychoanalysts wanting to know more about Italian psychoanalytic theory and technique and how they have developed

Interdisciplinary Handbook of Trauma and Culture Yochai Ataria, David Gurevitz, Haviva Pedaya, Yuval Neria, 2016-09-15 This lofty volume analyzes a circular cultural relationship not only how trauma is reflected in cultural processes and products but also how trauma itself acts as a critical shaper of literature the visual and performing arts architecture and religion and mythmaking The political power of trauma is seen through US Israeli and Japanese art forms as they reflect varied roles of perpetrator victim and witness Traumatic complexities are traced from spirituality to movement philosophy to trauma theory And essays on authors such as Kafka Plath and Cormac McCarthy examine how narrative can blur the boundaries of personal and collective experience Among the topics covered Television a traumatic culture From Hiroshima to Fukushima comics and animation as subversive agents of memory in Japan The death of the witness in the era of testimony Primo Levi and Georges Perec Sigmund Freud's Moses and Monotheism and the possibility of writing a traumatic history of religion Placing collective trauma within its social context the case of the 9/11 attacks Killing the killer rampage and gun rights as a syndrome This volume appeals to multiple

The Other Side of Pedagogy T. R. Johnson, 2014-10-15 Delineates Lacan s theory of the four discourses as a practical framework through which faculty can reflect on where their students are developmentally and where they might go University classrooms are increasingly in crisis though popular demands for accountability grow more insistent no one seems to know what our teaching should seek to achieve This book traces how we arrived at our current impasse and it uses Lacan s theory of the four discourses to chart a path forward via an analysis of the freshman writing class How did we forfeit a meaningful set of goals for our teaching T R Johnson suggests that by the 1960s the work of Bergson and Piaget had led us to see student growth as a journey into more and more abstract thought a journey that will happen naturally if the teacher knows how to stay out of the way Since the 1960s we ve come to see development in turn only as a vague initiation into the academic community This book however offers an alternative tradition one rooted in Vygotsky and the feminist movement that defines the developing student writer in terms of a complex intersubjective ecology and then through these precedents proposes a fully psychoanalytic model of student development To illustrate his practical use of the four discourses Johnson draws on a wide array of concepts and a colorful set of examples including Franz Kafka Keith Richards David Foster Wallace Hannah Arendt and many others Graceful provocative thoughtful and well researched The Other Side of Pedagogy connects theory and teaching in compelling ways This is a groundbreaking book that scholars of writing will want to read reread and teach

Joseph Harris author of A Teaching Subject Composition Since 1966

Handbook of Traumatic Loss Neil Thompson, Gerry R. Cox, Robert G. Stevenson, 2017-01-06 The Handbook of Traumatic Loss adopts a broad holistic approach that recognizes traumatic loss much more fully as a multidimensional human phenomenon not simply a medical condition Initial chapters build a foundation for understanding traumatic loss and explore the many ways we respond to trauma Later chapters counterbalance the individualistic focus of dominant approaches to traumatic loss by highlighting a number of thought provoking social dimensions of traumatic loss Each chapter emphasizes different aspects of traumatic loss and argues for ways in which clinicians can help deal with its many and varied impacts

Understanding Violence Lorenzo Magnani, 2024-06-22 This book offers a philosophical account of violence engaged with both empirical and theoretical debates in disciplines such as cognitive science sociology psychiatry anthropology political theory evolutionary biology and theology The primary thesis is that violence is intertwined with morality and typically enacted for moral reasons To show this the book compellingly demonstrates how morality operates to trigger and justify violence and how people in their violent behaviors can engage and disengage with discrete moralities The author's fundamental account of language and in particular its normative aspects is particularly insightful as regards extending the range of what is to be understood as violence beyond the domain of physical harm By employing concepts such as coalition enforcement moral bubbles cognitive niches overmoralization and military intelligence the book aims to spell out how perpetrators and victims of violence systematically disagree about the very nature of violence The author's original claim is that disagreement can be understood naturalistically described by an account of morality informed by evolutionary perspectives as well This book helps us come to terms with the fact that we are intrinsically violent beings To acknowledge this condition and our stupefying capacity to inflict harm is a responsibility we must face up to such understanding could ultimately be of help in order to achieve a safer ownership of our destinies by individuating and reinforcing those cognitive firewalls that would prevent violence from always escalating and overflowing This second edition is thoroughly revised and integrated with two new chapters to cover new aspects of violence and its understanding such as the role of looting finance in facilitating violent outcomes and the attack to scientific cognition and human creativity

China on the Mind Christopher Bollas, 2013 Thousands of years ago Indo European culture diverged into Western and Eastern ways of thinking Bollas examines how they are converging again in psychoanalysis

Endings Fausta Ferraro, Alessandro Garella, 2009 Preliminary Material The Beginnings Freud Ferenczi and Analysis Terminable and Interminable After Freud The Theme of Termination in the Mid 1900s Theoretical Developments and Modern Orientations The Psychoanalytic Process The Termination Process The Termination of Analysis as a Psychoanalytic Event The Liminal Forms of Time A Map of Termination Ending References

The Dubious Spectacle Herbert Blau, 2002-01-01 Spanning a quarter of a century the essays in this book rehearse in the movement of memory and cross reflection an extensive career in theater The work of Herbert Blau his directing writing and criticism has been a determining force during this period as theater encounters theory Blau's struggle to bring a critical intelligence to the American stage goes back half a century to the quiescent postwar years which he has eloquently described in The Impossible Theater A Manifesto His innovations in performance began with early productions of now canonical plays that were hardly known at that time works by Brecht Beckett Genet Pinter Durrenmatt and others His experience is as distinctive as his versatile habits of mind and conceptual urgency of style If the impossible takes a little time as the title of one essay states Blau's struggle now continues in a theoretical vein Performance and his own compelling writing has moved across other genres and disciplines into fashion politics sexuality and theory His diversity of thought is demonstrated here in commentaries about the newer modes of performance including conceptual and body art various American playwrights Renaissance drama new music and theater voice the senses and the baroque and the photographic image As the essays reflect upon each other a kind of cultural history with inflections of autobiography develops which is what readers of Blau s previous books have come to expect

Spectatorship and Film Theory Carlo Comanducci,2018-08-27 This book interrogates the relation between film spectatorship and film theory in order to criticise some of the disciplinary and authoritarian assumptions of 1970s apparatus theory without dismissing its core political concerns Theory in this perspective should not be seen as a practice distinct from spectatorship but rather as an integral aspect of the spectator s gaze Combining Jacques Ranci re s emancipated spectator with Judith Butler s queer theory of subjectivity Spectatorship and Film Theory foregrounds the contingent embodied and dialogic aspects of our experience of film Erratic and always a step beyond the grasp of disciplinary discourse this singular work rejects the notion of the spectator as a fixed position and instead presents it as a field of tensions a wayward history of encounters
