Creating The Writing Portfolio:

Creating the Writing Portfolio Alan C. Purves, Joseph A. Quattrini, Christine I. Sullivan, 1995 Writing Portfolios in the Classroom Robert Calfee, Pamela Perfumo, 2012-10-12 This volume presents chapters by researchers practitioners and policymakers who study the impact of classroom portfolios in the assessment of writing achievement by elementary and middle grade students The focus throughout the volume is on the tension between classroom assessment and externally mandated testing It presents the efforts of researchers practitioners and policymakers to understand the impact of classroom portfolios for the assessment of writing achievement by elementary and middle grade students Under the auspices of the Center for the Study of Writing the editors conducted a national survey of exemplary portfolio projects arranged for a series of video visits and held several working conferences The result of this work is a broad ranging tale the aspirations of teachers and administrators to move the machinery of schooling in the direction of more authentic and engaging tasks the puzzlement of students when they realize that the assignments are real and that the teacher may not have a right answer in mind and the tensions between ivory tower ideas and everyday classroom practice Divided into four sections this research volume provides a historical perspective develops the conceptual framework that serves as a background for many activities described throughout and discusses numerous practical issues that confront today s researchers and practitioners views the phenomenon of writing portfolios through a variety of broadview lenses such as teacher enthusiasm student reflection assessment tension the portfolio as metaphor and the locus of control conveys important conceptual issues with a balance toward pragmatics and offers unique insights from the perspective of one individual who serves as scholar researcher and teacher

Timothy Horan, 2017-10-17. The inventor of the School Library Writing Center makes it easy for librarians and teachers of kindergarten through sixth grade learners to provide highly effective writing instruction. Students in the early years of their development have a tremendous capacity for learning. By focusing on providing authentic writing experiences for kindergarten through sixth grade students, librarians and teachers can help transform students into competent writers well before they reach middle school. Written by the inventor of the School Library Writing Center, this book is the only one of its kind. It gives you clear and easy-to-read instructions on how to create and structure engaging and productive lessons in writing, as well as reproducible worksheets that are ready to implement in your library or classroom. Each worksheet relates directly to writing lessons discussed in the book and serves to guide students and their teachers as they explore the exciting world of writing. Readers will learn why and how they can create and maintain a School Library Writing Center. The book moves sequentially through the grade levels, starting with kindergarten and concluding at grade six, with each chapter focusing on a specific grade level. The author explains best practices with regards to tutoring writing in each grade, discusses the developmental levels and skills expected in a particular grade with regards to writing and reading, addresses grade-specific Common Core learning standards, discusses grade-appropriate online resources and technology-enabled activities that will help students become better writers, and identifies practical tutoring methods that will help students develop as writers.
