

ACTION PLANS 2

STEP BY STEP GUIDE

- I Identify Improvement Areas
Define your existing risk management processes and identify areas that require improvement. This initial stage goals is to identification, assessment, mitigation, monitoring, or adaptation opportunities.
- II Set Clear Objectives
Define clear objectives for your improvements. For example, you might aspire to achieve the achievement of 100% communication or strengthen communication channels to existing customers.
- III Define Activities
Break down each improvement objective into specific activities or tasks. Ensure that these activities are achievable, measurable, and estimable. For example, if your objective is to enhance risk assessments, activities might include updating and applying a communication framework, creating training for risk assessors, or conducting pilot assessments.
