Alford, 2014-01-10 During World War II the Nazis plundered from occupied countries millions of items of incalculable value estimated in the hundreds of millions of dollars Spearheaded by Hermann Goring the looting program quickly created the largest private art collection in the world exceeding the collections amassed by the Metropolitan in New York the British Museum in London the Louvre in Paris and the Tretyakov Gallery in Moscow By the end of the war the Nazis had stolen roughly one fifth of the entire art treasures of the world This book explores the formation of the Nazi art collection and the methods used by Goring and his party to strip occupied Europe of a large part of its artistic heritage Handbook of the Collection Elvehjem Museum of Art, 1990 Highlights of the permanent collection Distributed for the Chazen Museum of Art University of Wisconsin Madison

Smithsonian Institution United States. Congress. House. Committee on House Administration. Subcommittee on Library and Memorials, 1971 The Palgrave Handbook of Artistic and Cultural Responses to War since 1914 Martin Kerby, Margaret Baguley, Janet McDonald, 2018-12-05 This handbook explores a diverse range of artistic and cultural responses to modern conflict from Mons in the First World War to Kabul in the twenty first century With over thirty chapters from an international range of contributors ranging from the UK to the US and Australia and working across history art literature and media it offers a significant interdisciplinary contribution to the study of modern war and our artistic and cultural responses to it The handbook is divided into three parts The first part explores how communities and individuals responded to loss and grief by using art and culture to assimilate the experience as an act of survival and resilience The second part explores how conflict exerts a powerful influence on the expression and formation of both individual group racial cultural and national identities and the role played by art literature and education in this process The third part moves beyond the actual experience of conflict and its connection with issues of identity to explore how individuals and society have made use of art and culture to commemorate the war In this way it offers a unique breadth of vision and perspective to explore how conflicts have been both represented and remembered since the early twentieth century G.A. 100 National Museum of American History (U.S.). Division of Graphic Arts,1986 Exhibiting Italian Art in the United States from Futurism to Arte Povera Raffaele Bedarida,2022-06-28 This volume explores how Italian institutions dealers critics and artists constructed a modern national identity for Italy by exporting literally and figuratively contemporary art to the United States in key moments between 1929 and 1969 From artist Fortunato Depero opening his Futurist House in New York City to critic Germano Celant launching Arte Povera in the United States Raffaele Bedarida examines the thick web of individuals and cultural environments beyond the two more canonical movements that shaped this project By interrogating standard narratives of Italian Fascist propaganda on the one hand and American Cold War imperialism on the other this book establishes a more nuanced transnational approach The central thesis is that beyond the immediate aims of political propaganda and conquering a new market for Italian art these art exhibitions publications and the critical discourse aimed at American audiences all reflected back on their makers they forced and helped Italians define their own modernity in relation to the world s new dominant cultural and economic power The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history social history exhibition history and Italian studies Eurovision and Australia Chris Hay,Jessica Carniel,2019-07-25 This book investigates Australia s relationship with the Eurovision Song Contest over time and place from its first screening on SBS in 1983 to Australia s inaugural national selection in 2019 Beginning with an overview of Australia s Eurovision history the contributions explore the contest s role in Australian political participation and international relations its significance for Australia s diverse communities including migrants and the LGBTQIA community racialised and gendered representations of Australianness changing ideas of liveness in watching the event and a reflection on teaching Australia s first undergraduate course dedicated to the Eurovision Song Contest The collection brings together a group of scholar fans from a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives including history politics cultural studies performance studies and musicology to explore Australia s transition from observer to participant in the first thirty six years of its love affair with the Eurovision Song Contest Congressional Record United States.
