British Books ,1911 The Columbia History of the British Novel John Richetti,John Bender,Deirdre David,Michael Seidel,1994-05-19 Booklist Reading the Modern British and Irish Novel 1890 - 1930 Daniel R. Schwarz,2008-04-15 Daniel R Schwarz has studied and taught the modern British novel for decades and now brings his impressive erudition and critical acuity to this insightful study of the major authors and novels of the first half of the twentieth century An insightful study of British fiction in the first half of the twentieth century Draws on the author's decades of experience researching and teaching the modern British novel Sets the modern British novel in its intellectual cultural and literary contexts Features close readings of Hardy's Jude the Obscure Conrad's Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Lawrence's Sons and Lovers and The Rainbow Joyce's Dubliners and Ulysses Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and To the Lighthouse and Forster's A Passage to India Shows how these novels are essential components in a modernist cultural tradition which includes the visual arts Takes account of recent developments in theory and cultural studies Written in an engaging style avoiding jargon The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1896 Conrad in the Twenty-First Century Carola Kaplan,Peter Mallios,Andrea White,2005-01-15 This is a collection of original essays by leading Conrad scholars that rereads Conrad in light of his representations of post colonialism of empire imperialism and of modernism questions that are once again relevant today Rereading Conrad Daniel R. Schwarz,2001 Leading Conradian scholar Daniel R Schwarz assembles his work from over the past two decades into one crucial volume providing a significant reexamination of a seminal figure who continues to be a major focus in the twenty first century Schwarz touches on virtually all of Joseph Conrad's work including his masterworks and the later relatively neglected fiction In his introduction and in the persuasive and insightful essays that follow Schwarz explores how the study of Conrad has changed and why Conrad is such a focus of interest in terms of gender postcolonial and cultural studies He also demonstrates how Conrad helps define the modernist cultural tradition Exploring such essential works as Heart of Darkness Lord Jim Nostromo and The Secret Sharer Schwarz addresses issues raised by recent theory discussing the ways in which contemporary readers including of course himself have come to read Conrad differently He does so without abandoning crucial Conradian themes such as the disjunction between interior and articulated motives and the discrepancies between dimly acknowledged needs obsessions and compulsions and actual behavior Schwarz also touches on the extent to which Conrad's conservative desires for a few simple moral and political ideas were often at odds with his profound skepticism. A powerful close reader of Conrad's complex texts, Schwarz stresses how from their opening paragraphs Conrad's works establish a grammar of psychological, political, and moral cause and effect. Rereading Conrad sheds new light on an author who has spoken to readers for over a century. Schwarz's essays take account of recent developments in theory and cultural studies, including postcolonial, feminist, gay, and ecological perspectives, and show how reading Conrad has changed in the face of the theoretical explosion that has occurred over the past two decades. Because for over three decades Schwarz has been an important figure in defining how we read Conrad and in studying modernism, including how we respond to the relationship between modern literature and modern art, scholars, teachers, and students will take great pleasure in this new collection of his work.

Achieving Autobiographical Form Nicholas Meihuizen, 2016-01-27. In Achieving Autobiographical Form, Nicholas Meihuizen argues that significant autobiographies achieve significant forms peculiar to themselves alone. Form, he argues, is not accidental or merely functional. The author arrives at a form through a careful negotiation between the self's immersion in its world and its ability to distance itself from this world. The quality of the resultant self-scrutiny enables the author to transform everyday reflex into the act of attention that results in formal achievement: a uniquely crafted structure. Meihuizen's book helps demonstrate how each piece of autobiographical writing under consideration in it works. By Yeats, Conrad, Martin Amis, Frank Kermode, Andrew Motion, Roy Campbell, Richard Murphy, and J. M. Coetzee, he discovers a unique form.
