Art Discourse Discourse In Art:

Art Discourse/discourse in Art Jessica Prinz, 1991 Many scholars and the art world generally recognize that post modernism is characterized by an explosion of language into the field of the visual arts For the rest of us there have been numerous shows at major museums and galleries allowing us to confront and to be confronted by these new and challenging art forms Discourses on Art Sir Joshua Reynolds, Robert R. Wark, Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art, 1975 The Discourses on Art of Sir Joshua Reynolds form one of the most eloquent literary documents in the history of European art Composed as lectures to the students at the Royal Academy in the late eighteenth century they both summarize the art theory of the previous three hundred years and point towards attitudes prevalent in the nineteenth century Reynolds general topic is the education of the artist He is concerned with the essentials of the problem the purpose of art the nature of the creative process and the artist's relation to tradition He treats these questions with a breadth and clarity that won the immediate admiration of his contemporaries and have continued to hold the attention of readers ever since No other body of art criticism by an Englishman has enjoyed such sustained respect This standard edition of the Discourses is now reissued in a new format and with improved illustrations It has long been recognized as a fundamental text for the study of eighteenth century English painting and this edition is generally considered to be the definitive one Video Art Historicized Malin Hedlin Hayden, 2016-03-03 Video art emerged as an art form that from the 1960s and onwards challenged the concept of art hence art historical practices From the perspective of artists critics and scholars engaged with this new medium art was seen as too limiting a notion Important issues were to re think art as a means for critical investigations and a demand for visual reconsiderations Likewise art history was argued to be in crisis and in need of adapting its theories and methods in order to produce interpretations and thereby establish historical sense for moving images as fine art Yet as this book argues video art history has evolved into a discourse clinging to traditional concepts ideologies and narrative structures manifested in an increasing body of texts Video Art Historicized provides a novel insightful and also challenging re interpretation of this field by examining the discourse and its own premises It takes a firm conceptual approach to the material examining the conceptual theoretical and methodological implications that are simultaneously contested by both artists and authors yet intertwined in both the legitimizing and the historicizing processes of video as art By engaging art history's most debated concepts canon art and history this study provides an in depth investigation of the mechanisms of the historiography of video art Scrutinizing various narratives on video art the book emphasizes the profound and widespread hesitations towards but also the efforts to negotiate traditional concepts and practices By focusing on the politics of this discourse theoretical issues of gender nationality and particular themes in video art Malin Hedlin Hayden contests the presumptions that inform video art and its history Art Discourse, Discourse in Art (1960-1985) Jessica Prinz, 1986 Art and Knowledge James O. Young, 2003-09-02 Art and Knowledge argues that the experience of art is so rewarding because it can be an important

source of knowledge about ourselves and our relation to each other and to the world Women Contesting the Mainstream Discourses of the Art World Penelope Josephine Collet, 2004 A neglected area of publishing in the visual arts is that of women's perceptions and strategies for sustaining their careers as artists This book reports on research which investigated the formative life experiences of nine women and how they perceived their positions as students artists art teachers and family members in relation to the discourses dominant in their lives The study aimed to identify new discursive practices undertaken by the women to contest their positioning It used feminist poststructuralist methodology that acknowledged the notion of constitution and positioning of the subject in discourse This innovative methodology is valuable for researchers in a range of disciplines not only in studying careers of women but also other marginalised groups Because of the reliance on the women's voices the text contributes rich pictures of women's lives and their attempts to negotiate their careers in workplaces they described as battle grounds Consequently the text has a wider appeal to readers interested in women's careers and art practice experiences of the women who were able to challenge and restructure constraining discourses They utilised a range of strategies to negotiate obstacles and based on the women's experiences and the literature the author is then able to propose further possible strategies Dialogues between Art and Business Anke Strauß, 2017-06-20 The relationship between the fine art and the business sphere has never been harmonious it has been rejected fought about ignored exploited criticised and questioned but it is still omnipresent Commonly assumed to be antagonistic situating art and the business organisation sphere in the discourses of new knowledge creation and learning however holds the potential of exploring new ways of relating the two spheres This book investigates such potentialities discussing the limits and challenges of these new forms of relating It does so by first outlining the changing discourses of the art and business spheres and how they produce different ways of relating to their respective worlds Second it brings into conversation an ethnographic study of an art business collaboration organised by two artists with a Deleuzian concept of dialogue Dialogue here is understood as a non hierarchical encounter developing between two spheres a source of creation no longer belonging to anyone In what is here termed a machinic research framework accounting for composition and movement on all scales the book shows how making connections is a discursive and material practice with expectations and imaginaries playing a central role It also addresses the paradoxical interplays between losing control and maintaining control in collaborative attempts between reaching out for the Other and carrying out identity work and between positions in the centre and in the margins of the highly stratified and codified areas of business organisations and fine art Eventually this book examines small dialogical instances that escape the stratifying forces dividing the two worlds thereby creating a temporary space It closes with a reflection on the role of research in thinking and making new ways of relating the world of fine art and the business organisation sphere Discourses on Art Sir Joshua Reynolds, 1959 Total Modernity and the Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Minglu Gao, 2011-04-29 A groundbreaking book that describes a distinctively Chinese avant gardism and a modernity that unifies art politics and social life To the extent that Chinese contemporary art has become a global phenomenon it is largely through the groundbreaking exhibitions curated by Gao Minglu China Avant Garde Beijing 1989 Inside Out New Chinese Art Asia Society New York 1998 and The Wall Reshaping Contemporary Chinese Art Albright Knox Art Gallery 2005 among them As the first Chinese writer to articulate a distinctively Chinese avant gardism and modernity one not defined by Western chronology or formalism Gao Minglu is largely responsible for the visibility of Chinese art in the global art scene today Contemporary Chinese artists tend to navigate between extremes either embracing or rejecting a rich classical tradition Indeed for Chinese artists the term modernity refers not to a new epoch or aesthetic but to a new nation modernityinextricably connects politics to art It is this notion of total modernity that forms the foundation of the Chinese avant garde aesthetic and of this book Gao examines the many ways Chinese artists engaged with this intrinsic total modernity including the 85 Movement political pop cynical realism apartment art maximalism and the museum age encompassing the emergenceof local art museums and organizations as well as such major events as the Shanghai Biennial He describes the inner logic of the Chinese context while locating the art within the framework of a worldwide avant garde He vividly describes the Chinese avant garde s embrace of a modernity that unifies politics aesthetics and social life blurring the boundaries between abstraction conception and representation Lavishly illustrated with color images throughout this book will be a touchstone for all considerations of Chinese contemporary art

Partisan Canons Anna Brzyski,2007-10-08 Case studies that counter the idea of a transcendent art canon by demonstrating that the content of any and every canon is historically and culturally specific

The Global Rules of Art Larissa Buchholz,2022-11-22 A trailblazing look at the historical emergence of a global field in contemporary art and the diverse ways artists become valued worldwide Prior to the 1980s the postwar canon of international contemporary art was made up almost exclusively of artists from North America and Western Europe while cultural agents from other parts of the world often found themselves on the margins The Global Rules of Art examines how this discriminatory situation has changed in recent decades Drawing from abundant sources including objective indicators from more than one hundred countries multiple institutional histories and discourses extensive fieldwork and interviews with artists critics curators gallerists and auction house agents Larissa Buchholz examines the emergence of a world spanning art field whose logics have increasingly become defined in global terms Deftly blending comprehensive historical analyses with illuminating case studies The Global Rules of Art breaks new ground in its exploration of valuation and how cultural hierarchies take shape in a global context The book s innovative global field approach will appeal to scholars in the sociology of art cultural and economic sociology interdisciplinary global studies and anyone interested in the dynamics of global art and culture

The Bonn Handbook of Globality Ludger Kühnhardt, Tilman Mayer, 2019-02-26 This two volume

handbook provides readers with a comprehensive interpretation of globality through the multifaceted prism of the humanities and social sciences. Key concepts and symbolizations rooted in and shaped by European academic traditions are discussed and reinterpreted under the conditions of the global turn. Highlighting consistent anthropological features and socio-cultural realities, the handbook gathers coherently structured articles written by 110 professors in the humanities and social sciences at Bonn University, Germany, who initiate a global dialogue on meaningful and sustainable notions of human life in the age of globality. Volume 1 introduces readers to various interpretations of globality and discusses notions of human development, communication, and aesthetics. Volume 2 covers notions of technical meaning of political and moral order and reflections on the shaping of globality.

Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08. Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics, Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life. In the 1970s, Sanento Yuliman, Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century, further developed that concept, stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history. The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual, sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium, including their responses to the COVID-19 pandemic. The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia. The volume also features essays by T. K. Sabapathy, Jim Supangkat, Alia Swastika, Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono, as well as the three editors, Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner. The book's contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art, including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers, Islam-inspired art, artistic ideologies, the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s. The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia. Extensively illustrated, Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia's contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally.

Theory in Contemporary Art since 1985 Zoya Kocur, Simon Leung, 2012-09-11. Updated and reorganized to offer the best collection of state-of-the-art readings on the role of critical theory in contemporary art, this second edition of Theory in Contemporary Art since 1985 brings together scholarly essays, artists' statements and art reproductions to capture the vibrancy and dissonance that define today's art scene. Incorporates new and updated topics that have become central to art theory and practice over the past decade. New and updated chapters cover such topics as international biennials, historicizing of the term contemporary art, aesthetics, art and politics, feminism and pornography, ecology and art, the Middle East and conflict studies.

Eastern European art and politics gender and war and technology Features a thematic reconfiguration of sections and new introductions to make readings user friendly Extensively illustrated throughout with an expanded color plate section New contributions to this edition include those by Alexander Alberro Claire Bishop T J Demos Anthony Downey Liam Gillick Marina Gr ini Mary Kelly Chantal Mouffe Beatriz Preciado Jacques Ranciere Blake Stimson and Chin Tao Wu Art Crossing Borders Jan Dirk Baetens, Dries Lyna, 2019-02-11 Art Crossing Borders offers a thought provoking analysis of the internationalisation of the art market during the long nineteenth century Twelve experts dealing with a wide variety of geographical temporal and commercial contexts explore how the gradual integration of art markets structurally depended on the simultaneous rise of nationalist modes of thinking in unexpected and ambiguous ways By presenting a radically international research perspective Art Crossing Borders offers a crucial contribution to the field of art market studies
