Art Of Hunger Essays Prefaces Interviews And The Red Notebook:

The Art of Hunger Paul Auster, 1992 Now including The Red Notebook a collection of autobiographical sketches on coincidence The Art Of Hunger undermines our accepted notions about literature Auster's meditations on writing and artists leads us to a better understanding of the toll of writing Beyond the Red Notebook Dennis Barone, 2011-09-16 The novels of Paul Auster finely wrought self reflexive filled with doublings coincidences and mysteries have captured the imagination of readers and the admiration of many critics of contemporary literature In Beyond the Red Notebook the first book devoted to the works of Auster Dennis Barone has assembled an international group of scholars who present twelve essays that provide a rich and insightful examination of Auster's writings The authors explore connections between Auster's poetry and fiction the philosophical underpinnings of his writing its relation to detective fiction and its unique embodiment of the postmodern sublime Their essays provide the fullest analysis available of Auster's themes of solitude chance and paternity found in works such as The Invention of Solitude City of Glass Ghosts The Locked Room In the Country of Last Things Moon Palace The Music of Chance and Leviathan This volume includes contributions from Pascal Bruckner Marc Chenetier Norman Finkelstein Derek Rubin Madeleine Sorapure Stephen Bernstein Tim Woods Steven Weisenburger Arthur Saltzman Eric Wirth and Motoyuki Shibata The extensive bibliography prepared by William Drenttel will greatly benefit both scholars and general readers The Art of Hunger Paul Auster, 1998 This collection includes essays on Kafka Beckett and other 20th century literary figures and reflections by Auster on his own work on the need to break down the boundary between living and writing and on the use of certain genre conventions to penetrate matters of memory and identity The World that is the Book Aliki Varvogli, 2001-01-01 The World that is the Book offers an in depth analysis of Paul Auster's fiction It explores the rich literary and cultural sources that Auster taps into in order to create compelling stories that investigate the nature of language the workings of chance and the individual's complex relations with the world at large Whereas most Auster criticism has concentrated on readings of individual novels this book emphasizes the continuity in Auster's writing by discussing throughout the philosophical underpinnings that lead the author to question the boundaries separating the fictional from the factual and the real from the imagined Since Beckett Peter Boxall, 2011-11-03 Samuel Beckett is widely regarded as the last modernist the writer in whose work the aesthetic principles which drove the modernist project dwindled and were finally exhausted And yet despite this it is striking that many of the most important contemporary writers across the world see their work as emerging from a Beckettian legacy So whilst Beckett belongs in one sense to the end of the modernist period in another sense he is the well spring from which the contemporary in a wide array of guises can be seen to emerge Since Beckett looks at a number of writers in different national and political contexts tracing the way in which Beckett's writing inhabits the contemporary while at the same time reading back through Beckett to the modernist and proto modernist forms he inherited In reading Beckett against the contemporary in this way Peter Boxall offers both a compelling re reading of Beckett and a powerful new analysis of contemporary culture Edmond Jabès and the Archaeology of the Book Tsivia Wygoda Frank, 2021-11-08 This book offers a fresh reflection on The Book of Questions by the French Egyptian Jewish writer Edmond Jabès and its readings and proposes to re contextualize Jabès enigmatic prose through the lens of the author's manuscripts Addressed are the main prisms through which Jabès oeuvre has been read since its publication in 1963 Jewishness the Shoah intertextuality with Midrash and Kabbalah hermeticism and interpretation It analyzes their shapes and their becoming in the work in progress reveals the dynamics and the contexts of their evolution from the pre texts to the text and beyond and reflects on the relationship between creation interpretation and writing as a process It seeks to rethink our reading of The Book of Questions and the poetics and hermeneutics of enigmatic writing Samuel Beckett's Legacies in American Fiction James Baxter, 2021-11-30 Samuel Beckett's Legacies in American Fiction provides an overdue investigation into Beckett's rich influences over American writing Through in depth readings of postmodern authors such as Robert Coover Donald Barthelme Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo Paul Auster and Lydia Davis this book situates Beckett's post war writing of exhaustion and generation in relation to the emergence of an explosive American avant garde In turn this study provides a valuable insight into the practical realities of Beckett's dissemination in America following the author's long standing relationship with the countercultural magazine Evergreen Review and its dramatic role in redrawing the possibilities of American culture in the 1960s While Beckett would be largely removed from his American context this book follows his vigorous albeit sometimes awkward reception alongside the authors and institutions central to shaping his legacies in 20th and 21st century America On Anthologies Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2004-01-01 Over the course of the past twenty five years anthologies have shifted from playing a relatively minor role in academic culture to a position of dominance The essays in this collection explore the significant intellectual economic political pedagogical and creative resonance of anthologies through all levels of academic life They show that anthologies have consequences and are grounded in commitments Striving to articulate these consequences and commitments is a priority in higher education today Most of the contributors to this volume are editors of anthologies and they draw on personal experiences to provide a rare glimpse into the economics and logic of anthology publication Their essays illustrate the ways in which editing an anthology involves negotiation and compromise between intellectual ideal and realistic practice On Anthologies includes discussion of a wide range of anthologies used and produced by teachers and scholars Though the emphasis is on literature and theory anthologies the insights in this volume speak to professionals in all areas of academic life Collectively these essays establish the foundation for continuing critical analysis of anthology production and consumption in all disciplines Postmodern Counternarratives Christopher Donovan, 2005-02-10 This book provides a wide ranging discussion of realism postmodernism literary theory and popular fiction before focusing on the careers of four prominent novelists Despite wildly contrasting ambitions and agendas all four grow progressively more sympathetic to the expectations of a mainstream literary audience

noting the increasingly neglected yet archetypal need for strong explanatory narrative even while remaining wary of its limitations presumptions and potential abuses Exploring novels that manage to bridge the gap between accessible storytelling and literary theory this book shows how contemporary authors reconcile values of postmodern literary experimentation and traditional realism Gilles Deleuze John Marks, 1998-05-20 A guide to the work of Gilles Deleuze

Siberian Exile Julija Sukys, 2019-12-01 2018 Book Prize from the Association for the Advancement of Baltic Studies 2018 Vine Award for Canadian Jewish Literature in Nonfiction from the Koffler Centre of the Arts in Toronto When Julija Sukys was a child her paternal grandfather Anthony rarely smiled and her grandmother Ona spoke only in her native Lithuanian But they still taught Sukys her family's story that of a proud people forced from their homeland when the soldiers came In mid June 1941 three Red Army soldiers arrested Ona and sent her east to Siberia where she spent seventeen years working on a collective farm It was all a mistake the family maintained Some seventy years after these events Sukys sat down to write about her grandparents and their survival of a twenty five year forced separation and subsequent reunion Piecing the story together from letters oral histories audio recordings and KGB documents her research soon revealed a Holocaust era secret a family connection to the killing of seven hundred Jews in a small Lithuanian border town According to KGB documents the man in charge when those massacres took place was Anthony Ona's husband In Siberian Exile Sukys weaves together the two narratives the story of Ona noble exile and innocent victim and that of Anthony accused war criminal She examines the stories that communities tell themselves and considers what happens when the stories we've been told all our lives suddenly and irrevocably change and how forgiveness operates across generations and the barriers of life and death

Twenty-First-Century Fiction Peter Boxall, 2013-06-24 The widespread use of electronic communication at the dawn of the twenty first century has created a global context for our interactions transforming the ways we relate to the world and to one another This critical introduction reads the fiction of the past decade as a response to our contemporary predicament one that draws on new cultural and technological developments to challenge established notions of democracy humanity and national and global sovereignty Peter Boxall traces formal and thematic similarities in the novels of contemporary writers including Don DeLillo Margaret Atwood J M Coetzee Marilynne Robinson Cormac McCarthy W G Sebald and Philip Roth as well as David Mitchell Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Dave Eggers Ali Smith Amy Waldman and Roberto Bolaño In doing so Boxall maps new territory for scholars students and interested readers of today's literature by exploring how these authors narrate shared cultural life in the new century Pikareske Romane der 80er Jahre Werner Reinhart, 2001

Postmodernizing the Holocaust Marta Tomczok, 2024-01-22 Marta Tomczok presents all Polish postmodern novels about the Holocaust starting with The First Splendor by Leopold Buczkowski and ending with The Suspected Dybbuk by Andrzej Bart She also presents their rich relationships with selected foreign language prose which intensified especially at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries The culmination of the entire trend is a discussion around two novels Tworki by

Marek Bie czyk and Fly Trap Factory by Andrzej Bart which reveals the aestheticizing and post memorial profile of Polish postmodernization and its advantage over the historiosophical trend This monograph is not only the first such collection of post Holocaust postmodern novels but also the first comprehensive study of postmodernism in the literature about the Holocaust which thanks to comparative analysis tries to analyze and explain the circumstances of the appearance and later disappearance of this trend from cultural landscape of the world and Poland

GO: On the Geographies of Gunnar Olsson Martin Gren, 2016-04-22 Since the early 1960s the internationally acclaimed and highly distinguished Swedish geographer Gunnar Olsson has made substantial contributions to his own discipline In addition because of the transgressive nature of his work and writing which often borders to art and philosophy his ideas and approaches have reached a wider audience of those interested in the history and geography of ideas culture and human reasoning Olsson s recent masterpiece Abysmal is a minimalist guide to the territory of Western culture In it he investigates how cartographical reason enables people to think about and navigate the abstract world of invisible human relations in much the same way as they are able to study and traverse the physical Earth by using maps and mapping This book presents a comprehensive introduction to and overview of the entire range of Olsson s geography from the early days of spatial science to his contemporary engagement with and critique of cartographical reasoning It includes selected samples of Olsson s own writings including rarities together with a consolidated bibliography of his publications It also contains critical engagements from leading scholars such as Michael Dear Michael Watts Chris Philo and Marcus Doel with Olsson s geography from a variety of perspectives which are particularly valuable to those readers who already know his work It is structured and written in a way that makes Olsson s geography accessible to a wide readership including those who are not already familiar with Olsson s work

Border

Masculinities Amit Thakkar, Brian Baker, Chris Harris, 2024-10-08 This volume collates and examines literary and screened representations of what the editors term border masculinities It seeks to understand masculine subjectivities through fiction and screen within a complex global arena of relationships and fluid movements across multiple boundaries within that arena It also concerns paradigmatic borders related to class gender and ethnicities as well as other theoretical parameters which cut across porous spatial boundaries This collection contains a range of theoretically informed responses to varying cultural representations of such masculinities in Europe the Americas the Caribbean Australasia and Asia Thematic and conceptual connections between them are discussed in the introductory chapter and such links are also made between chapters

Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction David Coughlan, 2016-11-05 This book examines representations of the specter in American twentieth and twenty first century fiction David Coughlan s innovative structure has chapters on Paul Auster Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Marilynne Robinson and Philip Roth alternating with shorter sections detailing the significance of the ghost in the philosophy of Jacques Derrida particularly within the context of his 1993 text Specters of Marx Together these accounts of phantoms shadows haunts spirit the death sentence and hospitality provide a compelling theoretical context in which to read contemporary US literature Ghost Writing in Contemporary American Fiction argues at every stage that there is no self no relation to the other no love no home no mourning no future no trace of life without the return of the specter that is without ghost writing Conversations with Paul Auster Paul Auster, 2013-03 Interviews with the author of The New York Trilogy In the Country of Last Things and The Brooklyn Follies Pragmatism and Literary Studies Winfried Fluck, 1999 Paul Auster's "The New York Trilogy" as Postmodern Detective Fiction Matthias Kugler, 1999-10-28 Inhaltsangabe Abstract Paul Auster's New York Trilogy published in one volume for the first time in England in 1988 and in the U S in 1990 has been widely categorised as detective fiction among literary scholars and critics There is however a striking diversity and lack of consensus regarding the classification of the trilogy within the existing genre forms of the detective novel Among others Auster's stories are described as metaanti detective fiction mysteries about mysteries a strangely humorous working of the detective novel very soft boiled a metamystery glassy little jigsaws a mixture between the detective story and the nouveau roman a metaphysical detective story a deconstruction of the detective novel antidetective fiction a late example of the anti detective genre and being related to hard boiled novels by authors like Hammett and Chandler Such a striking lack of agreement within the secondary literature has inspired me to write this paper It does not however elaborate further on this diversity of viewpoints although they all seem to have a certain validity and underline the richness and diversity of Auster's detective trilogy neither do I intend to coin a new term for Auster's detective fiction I would rather place The New York Trilogy within a more general and open literary form namely postmodern detective fiction This classifies Paul Auster as an American writer who is part of the generation that immediately followed the classical literary movement of American postmodernism of the 60s and 70s His writing demonstrates that he has been influenced by the revolutionary and innovative postmodern concepts characterised by the notion of anything goes on a planet of multiplicity as well as by French poststructuralism He may however be distinguished from a traditional postmodern writer through a certain coherence in the narrative discourse a neo realistic approach and by showing a certain responsibility for social and moral aspects going beyond mere metafictional and subversive elements Many of the ideas of postmodernism were formulated in theoretical literary texts of the 60s and 70s and based on formal experiments include the attempt of subverting the ability of language to refer truthfully to the world and a radical turning away from coherent narrative discourse and plot These ideas seem to have been internalized by the new generation of postmodern writers of the 80s to such
