Performance Labor Joey Orr, 2022-11-18 A Sourcebook of Performance Labor presents the views and experiences of collaborators in other artists' works. This book reorients well-known works of contemporary performance and social practice around the workers who have shaped, enacted, and supported them. It emerges from perspectives on maintenance care, affective labor, and the knowledges created and preserved through gesture and intersubjectivity. This compilation of interviews is filled with the voices of collaborators in notable works attributed to established contemporary artists including Francis Alÿs, Tania Bruguera, Suzanne Lacy, Ernesto Pujol, Asad Raza, Dread Scott, and Tino Sehgal. In the spirit of the artworks under discussion, this book reinvests in the possibilities for art as a collective effort to explore new ways of finding ourselves in others and others in ourselves. The Sourcebook collection is a contribution for further theorizing a largely unaddressed perspective in contemporary art. This collection will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies and art history.

New Deal Art in Alabama Anita Price Davis, Jimmy S. Emerson, 2015-08-17 As the United States struggled to recover from the Great Depression, 24 towns in Alabama would directly benefit from some of the $3 billion allocated by the Federal Government for public art works under the New Deal. In the words of Harold Lloyd Hopkins, administrator of the Federal Emergency Relief Act, artists had to eat too, and these funds aided people who needed employment during this difficult period in American history. This book examines some of the New Deal art: murals, reliefs, sculptures, frescoes, and paintings of Alabama, and offers biographical sketches of the artists who created them. An appendix describes federal art programs and projects of the period 1933-1943.

The Law Times, 1846 History of Perquimans County Ellen Goode Rawlings Winslow, 1974 Here is a county history that is extraordinarily rich in primary source materials including abstracts of deeds from 1681 through the Revolutionary War period and, moreover, petitions, divisions of estates, wills, and marriages found in the records of Perquimans and adjacent North Carolina counties. Numbering in the tens of thousands, the records provide the names of all principal parties and related family members, places of residence, and migration descriptions of real and personal property, dates, boundary surveys, names of executors, witnesses, and appraisers, and dates of recording. Altogether, the index contains references to about 35,000 persons. Researchers should note that Perquimans was one of the original North Carolina precincts with very close ties to the southeastern Virginia counties of Norfolk, Princess Anne, Nansemond, and Isle of Wight, and for many years had fluid boundaries with the North Carolina counties of Chowan, Gates, and Pasquotank.

English Poetry of the Eighteenth Century, 1700-1789 David Fairer, 2014-10-13 In recent years, the canon of eighteenth-century poetry has greatly expanded to include women poets, labouring-class and provincial poets, and many previously unheard voices. Fairer's book takes up the challenge this ought to pose to our traditional understanding of the subject. This book seeks to question some of the structures, categories, and labels that have given the age its reassuring shape in literary history. In doing so, Fairer
