Annual Of The Swedish Theological Institute 1973:

Annual of the Swedish Theological Institute, volume XI festschrift Gillis Gerleman ,1978      Annual of the Swedish Theological Institute Svenska teologiska institutet (Jerusalem),1977      The D and H stems in Koranic Arabic

Leemhuis,2025-02-10      Linguistics and Biblical Hebrew Walter Ray Bodine,1992 The essays in this volume arose out of the Society of Biblical Literature section on linguistics and Biblical Hebrew and have been selected to provide a summary and statement of the state of the question with regard to a number of areas of investigation The sixteen articles are organized into sections on phonology morphology syntax semantics discourse analysis historical comparative linguistics and graphemics

Narrative Analogy in the Hebrew Bible Joshua Berman,2004-07-01 This volume sheds fresh light upon the phenomenon of narrative doubling in the Hebrew Bible Through an innovative interdisciplinary model the author defines the notion of narrative analogy in relation to other literatures where it has been studied such as English Renaissance drama and makes extensive critical use of contemporary literary theory particularly that of the Russian formalist Vladimir Propp His exploitation of narrative doubling with a focus upon the metaphorical reorients our reading by uncovering a major dynamic in biblical literature The author examines several battle reports and demonstrates how each could be interpreted as an oblique commentary and metaphor for the non battle account that immediately precedes it Battle scenes are revealed to stand in metaphoric analogy with among others accounts of a trial a rape a drinking feast and a court deliberation Joshua Berman offers new insights to the ever growing concern with the relationship between historiography and literary strategies and succeeds in articulating a new aspect of biblical ideology concerning human and divine relationship      Studies in the Book of Job Walter E. Aufrecht,2006-01-01 The four essays in this volume present an overview of current issues in studies of the book of Job The opening essay by Williams deals with major aspects of Joban research new commentaries Near Eastern backgrounds textual criticism language and vocabulary literary criticism dating problems and theological ideas The remaining essays focus on specifics from within Williams overview Craigie discusses the impact of Ugaritic language and literature on studies of Job Cox is concerned with textual criticism of Job primarily with regard to the Septuagint And in the final essay Aufrecht illustrates the importance of Aramaic in biblical studies in general and studies of Job in particular

Rumors of Wisdom Scott C. Jones,2009 Efforts at interpreting Joban poetry have often been divided between philological and literary critics This study brings these two critical modes together to offer an account of how Job 28 achieves meaning The heart of the study consists of two major sections The first is a reading of the poem with special attention to the conceptual background of its metaphors Rather than a poetic account of mining technology Job 28 is properly understood against the heroic deeds of ancient Mesopotamian kings described in Sumerian and Akkadian royal narratives especially the Gilgamesh epic The second major section is a thorough philological and textual commentary in which comparative philological and text critical methods are complemented by an aesthetic rationale for restoring the text of the poem as a work of art The study reveals a multileveled and image driven masterpiece whose complexity impacts how one reads Job 28 as poetry and theology

Joel's Use of Scripture And the Scripture's Use of Joel John Strazicich, 2007 This work focuses on the appropriation and resignification of scripture in Joel and its NT Nachleben where Israel s literature functions as an authoritative medium of refraction The purpose is to recover the canon s unrecorded hermeneutics at the intersection of both diachronic and synchronic textual surfaces

In Search of History John Van Seters, 1997 The primary concern of the book is to understand the origins and nature of history writing in ancient Israel The investigation is undertaken against the background of history writing in the Near Eastern and classical worlds Professor Van Seters begins with a broad survey of all the historiographic material relevant for the study of Israel s own writing of history He then turns his attention to the question of Israel s historiography by focusing particularly on the Deuteronomistic Historian the first Israelite historian

Between Wisdom and Torah Jiseong James Kwon, Seth Bledsoe, 2023-05-08 Previous scholars have largely approached Wisdom and Torah in the Second Temple Period through a type of reception history whereby the two concepts have been understood as signifiers of independent earlier biblical streams of tradition that later came together in the Hellenistic and Roman eras largely under the process of a so called torahization of wisdom Recent studies critiquing the nature of wisdom and wisdom literature as operative categories for understanding scribal cultures in early Judaism as well as newer approaches to conceptualizing Torah and authorizing compositional practices related to the Pentateuchal texts however have challenged the foundations on which the previous models of Wisdom and Torah rested This volume therefore brings together several essays that aim to reexamine and rethink the ways we can describe the developments of texts categorized as Wisdom that proliferated during the Second Temple Period and whose contents point to an engagement with a Torah discourse By asking anew the question of whether Wisdom was transformed by into Torah during this period this volume offers reformulations on the discursive space between Wisdom and Torah through analyzing new identifications confluences and transformations
